Top Clinicians Review BCH Student's Work

An 18-year-old Roxbury youth, who has been working part time on his own research project at Boston City Hospital's Channing Laboratory, has become the first precollege student to present an original paper to a highly prestigious group of clinicians — the American Federation for Clinical Research.

Hunter Nicholas, of 26 Abbotsford Street, presented his paper on Saturday, December 18, 1971, in Philadelphia on "The Effect of Experimental Irradiation on the Antibacterial Defense System of the Lung," which will also be published this month in Clinical Research, the Federation's official publication.

His research explains why people undergoing irradiation treatment frequently develop pulmonary infection and may provide a key to correcting this problem. Hunter's study showed that the cells which work as the lung's defense against bacteria do not function normally and are decreased in number following irradiation treatment, thus making the lung more susceptible to infection.

Hunter's is an unusual story of a highly motivated young man who would not allow lack of money or proper education to dampen his desire to achieve what he wanted out of life, and of a group of doctors and a family who believed in him and helped him.

Hunter, who has been working part time, occasionally up to 80 hours a week, on a voluntary basis at Boston City Hospital for some three years, started as a volunteer the summer of 1969. He began with jobs such as cleaning the laboratory to which he was assigned and running errands. He had previously been a volunteer at a private hospital but wanted to work at Boston City Hospital—the hospital that services his own Black community.

He was assigned to a research unit under the direction of Dr. Gary Huber of the Channing Laboratory at Boston City Hospital.

It was Dr. Huber and other members of the staff who encouraged Hunter in his research and suggested that he submit his paper for publication.

"The opportunity that was provided for me here at City Hospital was, to put it mildly, a real mind-blower," said Hunter. "Ever since I was a little kid, I loved working with scientific things like my chemistry set. I really wanted to be able to do that kind of work, but I never thought I'd get the opportunity."

"Although Hunter's education at the time he came to us was far from adequate, he was extremely inquisitive about the experiments we had going in the lab," Dr. Huber said.

"At that time, we were running an experiment in which the animals used had to be injected at 4 A.M. each morning. Hunter volunteered for the task and we agreed to let him do it.

"We felt that Hunter should have his own project so we gave him some medical literature to read for background and to help him select a topic for his research," Dr. Huber said.

"At times the barriers seemed insurmountable," Hunter said, "like understanding the reading and terminology used in the research, but everyone here took the time to explain things to me and encouraged me not to give up."

The doctors realized that he was extremely motivated but at the same time had a difficult time expressing himself. He told them that during the past few years he had had a succession of substitute teachers in the public schools and there was little continuity in his learning experience.

The doctors in the lab came to his aid and arranged for him to be accepted at the Palfrey Street School, an elite private school in Watertown.

Because Hunter's tuition would have caused a hardship on his parents, the school agreed to provide him with financial aid.

"The school was extremely helpful to Hunter. They provided him with special tutoring in communications and mathematics," Dr. Huber said.

At the same time Hunter held up his end of the bargain by devoting many hours each night to studying.

During his two years there, he became the first Black student ever elected to the board of trustees of the school and the only student ever elected unanimously.

"Hunter improved so quickly in his studies that he ended up teaching two courses at the school, one in freshman algebra and another in Black literature," Dr. Huber explained.

In his spare time Hunter has also tutored high school students, as well as working at least two days a week on his project at Boston City Hospital.

"He often had to come in at strange hours to get his work done, like two or four in the morning and was gone before we got in," Dr. Huber explained.

Hunter said that there were times when he was discouraged about his work in the lab.

"I had my ups and downs here, but after each problem you grow more able to tackle the next one," Hunter said. "Sometimes I thought I'd never finish my project, like the times I'd come in at 3 A.M. to find that the culture I had started the night before hadn't grown or that a simple mistake I had made ruined the entire experiment.

"But I could always go to Gary (Dr. Huber) for help or to many of the other doctors at the hospital who were always willing to take the time to help me.

"I hope that other young people, especially other Blacks who may feel discouraged at times, will know that there is opportunity for them at places like Boston City Hospital if they're willing to put in the necessary time and effort," Hunter said.

Hunter was graduated from the Palfrey Street School in June of 1971, but did not apply to college immediately as he had planned to go to the Kinshasa Congo in Africa this semester and help build a schoolhouse there before going on to college in January.

But Hunter may now have to postpone or cancel his plans completely. Hunter's father, who along with his mother encouraged him in his education and research, recently suffered from a hemorrhage into the retina of his right eye (he has been blind in his left eye for six years).

With increasing medical bills and an older brother in college and a younger sister and brother in high school, it will be most difficult for Hunter to attend college without sufficient financial assistance.

RENEW INSURANCE

Registrar of Motor Vehicles David J. Lucey reminds owners of all motor vehicles registered in Massachusetts that it is their responsibility to renew the insurance on their vehicles by the end of the year.

The Registrar made it perfectly clear that this applies not only to registrations which are on a calendar year basis but also to those which are registered on a staggered system.

He cautioned registrants to return insurance company rating statements and questionnaires when due in order to avoid action by them.

Under Chapter 175, it is mandatory for the registrar to revoke the registration when he receives a valid cancellation notice from the insurance company of the registered owner.

REGISTRY REMINDER

The Law of the Road, chapter 89, section 7, provides that certain vehicles have the right of way with a penalty to persons who retard their passage.

"The members and apparatus of a fire department while going to a fire or responding to an alarm, police patrol wagons and ambulances, and ambulances on a call for the purpose of hospitalizing a sick or injured person shall have the right of way through any street, way, lane, or alley.

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously obstructs or retards the passage of any of the foregoing in the exercise of such right shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or imprisonment for not more than three months."

Drivers are also reminded that there is a punishment provided for persons who wilfully interrupt or by fast driving or otherwise in any way disturb a funeral assembly or procession.

Armed forces of the United States and any part of the armed forces of the Commonwealth also have the right of way when parading or performing any duty in any street or highway through which they pass, and drivers in a convoy of five or more vehicles may have certain privileges under certain conditions provided that the carriage of the United States mails, the legitimate functions of the police, and the progress and operation of fire departments are not interfered with.

POST OFFICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Larger denominations of money orders—up to $200—will be available this month in six metropolitan areas as part of a United States Postal Service test expected to lead to a revamping of the postal money order service.

The present face value of postal money orders is limited to $100.

The market test will begin January 3 in Boston, Cleveland, Denver, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Jacksonville, Florida. A total of 1,100 post offices, stations, branches, and contract facilities are scheduled to participate in the test.

A new green-tinted money order has been designed to distinguish the test money orders from the standard gray orders, which will continue to be issued by other postal facilities. Although the green types will be sold only in the six specified areas, they may be cashed at any postal facility.

The raised face value to $200 will apply to test money orders only. The regular gray-tint domestic and international money orders will remain at the present limit of $100.

Postmasters in the six areas also have been authorized to sell the green money orders on Saturday morning as another part of the market test.

NEW MBTA ENTRANCE OPENED

The Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) opened a new entrance to the Haymarket-Green Station on Tuesday, December 21, following a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Located under the spiral ramp of the new Government Center parking garage, the new entrance is part of the $991,530 project modernizing the Haymarket-Green Station. Boston's new parking garage and a busway were built by the Real Property Board and the Boston Redevelopment Authority. The busway was used for the first time on Monday, December 27, by buses bringing commuters into Haymarket Square from suburban areas.

Participating in the opening of the new entrance facility were Henry S. Lodge, chairman, other members of the board of directors, and General Manager Joseph C. Kelly.

Modernization of this station included building a new platform area, completed last December in the existing tunnel; constructing a connection to the existing passageway between the Haymarket-Green and Haymarket-Orange Stations; installing new stairs and an escalator to the new fare collection lobby; installing new lighting; and painting the entire station.

The new entrance will be more convenient for commuters, as it will eliminate the long walk they had to make to and from the Orange Line entrance/exit used while the Government Center Garage was being built. The new busway will eliminate getting on and off of buses on New Congress Street.

The Haymarket-Green Station is the last of fourteen stations modernized in Phase I of the Authority's $14.6 million, federally aided station modernization program, initiated in 1965. The federal grant amounted to $6.1 million.

HUB CITIZENS SPONSOR AIR POLLUTION PROGRAM

Citizens will have a chance to participate in a special air pollution workshop to be held on Saturday, January 8, 1972, from 9:30 to 5:00 at Campion Hall on the Boston College Campus.

The program is sponsored by the Boston Citizens for Clean Air (BCCAC), a special committee of the Boston Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association (BTRDA), under a federal grant from the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), Offices of Public Services and Public Affairs. James J. MacKenzie, Ph. D., is chairman of the Steering Committee and Thomas B. Arnold, Esq., is chairman for Boston Citizens for Clean Air.

The purpose of the workshop is to prepare citizens for a public hearing to be held at Gardner Auditorium, State House, Boston, on January 14, concerning the latest state plan to implement state-wide pollution control legislation. The workshop will help establish a strategy for citizen participation in the development and adoption of the implementation plans as required by the 1970 Federal Clean Air Act Amendment.

The program will begin with a general discussion of the purpose and scope of the air pollution problem, conducted by James J. MacKenzie, Ph. D., member, Division of Sponsored Research, in the Laboratory for Nuclear Science, MIT.

Other speakers will include Richard Johnson, Esq., Chairman of the Environmental Committee of the Boston Bar Association and Director of the Conservation Law Foundation of New England; Anthony Cortese, Chief, Planning and Standards Section, Air Branch, Air and Water Programs Division of the Environmental Protection Agency; and representatives of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health.

A panel of experts will consist of Susan Wilkes, League of Women Voters; Allan Walker, Sierra Club; David Standley, City of Boston Air Pollution Control Commission.

Luncheon will be served at a cost of $1.70 per person. Persons wishing to attend must confirm their reservation no later than January 5 by calling the Boston Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, 131 Clarendon Street, Boston. The phone is 536-0935.

The Mayor said he anticipates that this study will develop policies that will restrict the number of automobile commuters and encourage the use of mass transportation. In any event, this administration is committed to abide by policies which are at least as restrictive in terms of eliminating commuter automobile traffic within the city as those to be promulgated by the Advisory Commission, Mayor White added.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES COMMISSION

MR. DUNCAN T. FOLEY,
Supervisor of Personnel.

DEAR MR. FOLEY:

The Youth Activities Commission, at its December 14, 1971, meeting, voted unanimously to promote Miss Joanne Prevost from community organizer to executive secretary, effective December 15, 1971.

Miss Prevost has an accumulation of over eight years' service with the state and city. Miss Prevost previously held administrative positions with the secretary of the Commonwealth's Office, the Governor's Office, the State Department of Commerce and Development, and the Boston Health and Hospitals Department (Board of Trustees) prior to her employment in 1967 by the Boston Youth Activities Commission.

In her various positions Miss Prevost has had extensive experience that uniquely qualifies her for the position of executive secretary.

Particular attention is called to her experience in serving as liaison and special assistant for federally funded projects in the Mayor's Office.

In view of Miss Prevost's past experience and her educational background, it is respectfully requested that her first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth increments in the position of executive secretary be determined under the provisions of Rule 6 (f) of the Youth Activities Commission Compensation Plan, effective December 15, 1971.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE J. JONES,

Mayor White Delivers Inaugural Address

Inaugural address delivered by Mayor Kevin H. White at Faneuil Hall on Monday, January 3, 1972:

Once in every four years the Mayor of this city, and others like it across the country, is sworn in at ceremonies similar to that which you have just witnessed. I think it is fair to say that with a few exceptions nobody except those of us directly involved takes them very seriously.

Yet it is not pretentious to assert that this is a very significant occasion in the history of a city — for this is that moment in time when we remind not only the nation but ourselves of what we are, of what we can do, and of what we mean to be.

What are we? Well, the image of the American city and its government is shattered. The conventional wisdom is that cities like Boston have lost their vitality and capacity to create and sustain a decent environment in which to live.

The most tragic aspect of this image is that so many of us have come to believe it.

Not only people in government, in the media, in business, in academia, in suburbs, but we in the city itself. We should have known better, but too often we have listened to others who know less and care less than we do, and they have distorted our own understanding at times even sapped our own will.

So, at the outset of this Administration and this address, let me say boldly what I deeply believe. That is, that we are one city in America that has great capacity and greater opportunities than we have ever allowed ourselves to believe.

And in the year of 1972, those opportunities loom even larger on the horizon because we can build on the experience of the past four turbulent but productive years.

We have a foundation of some strength because during those years, we tried to listen, to act, to change.

We have listened to the voices of the city through little City Halls, Advisory Councils, 24-Hour Services, Model Cities, SEPAC and Summerthing.

We have acted in building more schools, more parks, more libraries, more police and fire stations than at any other time in this century.

We have changed whole new directions of public policy, conservation, consumer protection, neighborhood development and pollution control. We stopped ill-conceived highways and arbitrary airport expansion for new direction in transportation. We created change and we will continue to cause change and use it for our common benefit.

We have done all of this by a combination of patience, hard work, taxing ourselves in money, labor and devotion. We have learned over these past four years that much of what is said about the city is closer to myth than to fact. So,—

When urbanologists tell us “the city is dying,” we can say with the confidence of experience, in Boston that is not true.

When voices cry that cities are unlivable, we can say at least in Boston that is not true.

When men write that cities are losing their economic value you can say with pride in Boston that is not true.

This city pulsates now with a 10-billion-dollar economy that creates more than 500,000 jobs and not for herself alone—one out of every two jobs in this city is held by commuters.

During the past four years more office space has been built in Boston than during the previous third of a century; with only one quarter of the people in the metropolitan area, Boston now produces almost one half its goods and services. Let us banish from our minds the false images of decay and recognize Boston for what she is, not a dying city but a dynamic one.

However, after four years as Mayor, I am not blind to reality. Even our dynamism does not dismiss or diminish the reality of our problems:

— Too many of our streets are unsafe;

— Too many of our neighborhoods face blight;

— Too many of our citizens do not have decent housing; and

MAYOR'S ADDRESS . . .

— Too little has been done to improve the quality of our education.

This then is the good and the bad, our assets and our liabilities, our achievements and our failures.

It is what we are.

What can we do? In each single day over the next four years we can and must face our responsibilities and respond to our needs. Those needs are enormous:

We need 20,000 units of low-income and elderly housing; 50,000 units of middle- and upper-income housing. We cannot tolerate dilapidated housing in the shadow of a bold new skyline.

We need new and renovated schools. We cannot tolerate run-down schools in a city with palatial airline terminals.

We need balanced transportation. We cannot tolerate highways that destroy neighborhoods and a mass transit system on the verge of collapse.

We need tax reform. We cannot tolerate fiscal exploitation. In a city which is economically rich, we are financially impoverished.

This cry of fiscal crisis is not new, but our time for tolerance toward it has ceased.

Our tax resources are robbed by the state and federal governments. For every $25 Boston contributes to the state and federal government, we receive back in aid only $1.

We demand a fair share of our own tax revenues, and any pious declarations by the state that it has done all it can is ludicrous.

We are not asking for gratuities for statesmanship and courage to reform the tax structure in this state or give us the power to do it ourselves. We do not demand too much and we refuse to accept less.

These are not all our needs, but they are paramount ones and we will respond to them immediately.

This year alone five basic steps will be taken:

1. I will request of the City Council a 200-million-dollar bond issue for schools.

2. I will seek to fund and activate the Economic Development Corporation.

3. I will implement the major recommendations of the Home Rule Commission.

4. I will fight for tax reform in this legislative session.

5. I will appoint a special commission composed of governmental, business, labor, and community leaders to develop a planned course of action for us to pursue as a people over the next twenty-five years. For charting the destiny of the city in the last quarter of this century is our responsibility.

What we are, what we do. These factors determine whether we will become what we mean to be.

Four years ago at this ceremony I quoted an ancient philosopher who said that, "Men come together in cities in order to live, but they remain in cities in order to live well." During the past four years, despite the laments of the doubters and the jeers of the skeptics, a better life has become more of a reality for more Bostonians than at any other time in our history. This is a demonstrable fact.

To continue to improve the quality of life, to give a spirit and a sense of purpose to this city is my overriding priority.

In a sentence, what we mean to be is citizens of the most livable city in America.

Our economic, political, and social goals depend upon it.

Today, I enter a new term with convictions born of a lifetime in this city and four years as its Mayor.

The unremitting convictions that:

1. This city's intellectual vitality and diversity is her greatest strength;

2. That we all share more common needs than common conflict;

3. That each segment of people deserve a place in our progress; and

4. That it is the ultimate responsibility of one person to unify and lead this city. And that person is the Mayor — and I intend to lead.

Let notice be given to forces within and outside this city that the people of Boston are going to fight for their rights as a community and against those abuses that destroy our community; that the time for limited self-interest by government or business or any single group is over. Decisions will be made and directions pursued in the best interest of the whole of which we are all part.

If urban life is to die in America, let us pledge it will not happen here. If urban life is to revive, let it be said that the renaissance of the cities started in Boston.

And so as these ceremonies conclude, let us resolve to remember that the cities of this country still provide the working dynamos of this society, the incubators of change and reform and advance, and most of all, they are still the conserving, creating, beating heart of our civilization.

The city has to survive, and it will. But in order to make Boston work and serve both its people and its function in this society, leadership willing to assume risks and responsibilities is essential.

Not only in the business community, in the media, in the neighborhoods. I ask for the help of every one of you.

I will need help and I will expect it!

I will need understanding and I will hope for it.

If urban life is to die in America, let us pledge it will not die here. If urban life is to have a new birth of greatness, let it be said that the renaissance began in Boston.

MBTA SEEKS MODERNIZATION FUNDS

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority on December 15 approved the filing of an application with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the United States Department of Transportation for a capital facilities grant in the amount of $9,565,087 for the second phase of the MBTA's award-winning station modernization program which will refurbish seven stations.

The total project cost of the second-stage station modernization project affecting Ashmont, Auditorium, Essex, Haymarket Orange, Park, State, and Washington Stations is $14,347,630, two thirds coming from DOT and the local matching one third in the amount of $4,782,543 from the MBTA's recently approved $124 million bonding authority.

Once federal approval of the grant application is received, the design and bidding phases of the project can get under way. It is estimated that completion of the seven-station face-lifting will take approximately five years from start of design.

REMEMBER NUMBER 911

Number 911, an emergency telephone number that will bring instant police, fire, or ambulance service to the Boston area, and is now being used in many sections of the country, is expected to be in use here in Boston by next spring.

The Telephone Company will have to make equipment alterations in all of its switching offices and is also paying for the expenditures.

Installation of a number of new trunk lines will be fed into Police Headquarters. The Boston Police Department has been working with the Telephone Company for almost four years to make this system a reality.

To institute the system all over the country will cost the Bell Telephone Company in excess of 50 million dollars. It eventually hopes to wire all pay phones so that 911 can be dialed by people without the use of a coin. A number of neighboring cities and towns are already using the 911 emergency number.

BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION COMPLETED

The Summer Street Bridge is now available to traffic, marking the first time in more than three and one half years that traffic will move across the 700-foot span, Mayor Kevin White announced on December 29.

The 70-year-old bridge, between A and C Streets in South Boston, was destroyed May 14, 1968, by a five-alarm fire. Since then, motorists have been forced to use either the Northern Avenue Bridge or Broadway to make their way into downtown Boston.

Mayor White, Public Works Commissioner Joseph F. Casazza, and other city officials, and representatives of the J. F. White Contracting Company of Newton attended the ribbon-cutting ceremonies on Friday, December 31. J. F. White Contracting Company submitted the low bid of $549,011.25 for the construction project.

After the bridge burned in 1968, the Public Works Department ordered the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, then owner of the bridge, to make the necessary repairs. The railroad appealed the decision to the State Supreme Judicial Court.

To avoid further delay, the city agreed to split the cost of construction with the railroad. When control of the New Haven Railroad passed to the Penn Central on January 1, 1969, it assumed the obligation to rebuild the bridge.

The situation, however, was further complicated on June 21, 1970, when the Penn Central declared bankruptcy. The city then petitioned in Penn Central to deed the land to the city so that construction could begin.

A court decision in March, 1971, allowed the Penn Central to turn the land over to the city.

WILLIAM H. KERR

William H. "Bill" Kerr, employed by the City of Boston in the Law Department as senior legal assistant and researchist for the past thirty-two years, passed away on New Year's Eve. He had retired only a month ago and was expected to return to work on a part-time basis. Mayor White, before delivering his inaugural address at Faneuil Hall on January 3, asked his audience to rise for a minute in silent prayer in memory of "Bill" Kerr. The Mayor also ordered all flags on city buildings to be flown at half-staff, and the City Council adjourned for the day.

On Wednesday, January 5, after brief funeral services, "Bill" was interred in Forest Hills Cemetery. Requiescat in pace.

NATIONAL PHONE NUMBER FOR HARVARD

Phone calls to the Harvard University Police now will include "1212," the national police number, with the prefix of the Harvard University exchange — "495."

Callers from outside the University will dial: 495-1212.

Callers inside the University will dial: 5-1212.

These calls will go to the central police desk in Gray's Hall, manned by police lieutenants and sergeants on a 24-hour basis. They are in direct communication with police duty officers in all parts of the University.

Security officers at Harvard explain that the national police number is helpful both to police officers of various jurisdictions and to the general public when rapid communication is needed to meet a police or medical emergency.

Boston Redevelopment (BRA) Summarizes 1971 Activities

Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Director Robert T. Kenney, in a year-end summary of BRA activities, said that among the year's highlights in 1971 were:

— 1,300 new housing units that went into construction in the city's renewal areas, plus major rehabilitation projects that will provide 170 apartments; — Receipt of a commitment of $5.4 million in federal funds for four small, new renewal projects, $11.7 million for four existing renewal projects, and a reservation of $9.7 million for South Station;

— $38 million worth of educational construction started;

— BRA approval of some $280 million of commercial development.

The housing started this year is primarily for low- and moderate-income families, and is financed through various government housing programs, a substantial portion through the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency.

In addition, 761 units were completed during the year, leaving a total of 2,797 apartments now under construction throughout Boston's renewal projects.

Housing begun in Boston's renewal projects in 1971 includes:

Charlestown

Turnkey Elderly Housing (BHA), 96 units.

Fenway

Church Park, 508 units.

Morville House (elderly), 147 units.

South Cove

Tai Tung Village, 214 units.

Mass. Pike Towers, 200 units.

Washington Park

Taurus Apartments, 38 units.

Allston

Waverly Apartments (121A), 102 units.

Total, 1,305 units.

Housing completed in the renewal projects includes:

Charlestown

Charles-New-Town, 262 units.

North Harvard

Charlesview Apartments, 212 units.

South End

Camfield Gardens, 136 units.

Methunion Manors, 151 units.

Total, 761 units.

Other housing now under construction in the renewal projects includes:

South End

ROXSE,* 364 units.

Tuckerman Homes, 280 units.

Grant AME Homes,* 180 units.

Rutland Homes, 44 units.

Waterfront

Harbor Towers,* 624 units.

Total, 1,492 units.

Final approval has been given to Mishawum Park, 336 units of low- and moderate-income housing soon to start in Charlestown, and the Thompson Triangle rehabilitation project, also in Charlestown, that will see five historic structures restored for residential and some office and retail space.

Two community-sponsored rehabilitation projects in the South End that began this year will provide 171 apartments for low- and moderate-income families. The Emergency Tenants' Council (ETC), a Puerto Rican group, is rehabilitating 71 apartments in thirteen buildings under the Federal 236 Housing Program.

Tenants' Development Corporation, the first tenant group in the country to act as redevelopers in a renewal area, is working on 100 apartments in twenty buildings that were acquired by the BRA several years ago as part of a rent dispute and subsequently turned over to the tenant group. Rehabilitation is being financed by the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency (MHFA) and the Federal 236 Program.

Rehabilitation by homeowners in the renewal areas this year has resulted in some 700 apartments completed. At least 950 units have been started or have received a commitment of financing.

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) approved the BRA's request for Planning Advance Contracts for two urban renewal projects — Kittredge Square and Brunswick-King — in the Model Cities area. Each contract is for $82,606, and each project also has a HUD reservation of $1.5 million in capital grant funds for project execution.

BRA Summary . . .

HUD has also approved a BRA application for $3.1 million for a Neighborhood Development Program (NDP) on Sumner Street in East Boston that will be the site for some 300 units of public housing, primarily for the elderly. The BRA will acquire and prepare the land for development, and the Boston Housing Authority will contract with a private developer for construction of the housing under the Federal Turnkey Program. The NDP approach involves federal approval and funding of a project on a yearly basis.

Some $800,000 in federal funds has also been approved for the St. Botolph Street renewal project, a single-purpose development adjacent to the Fenway renewal area that will provide elderly housing, again through the Turnkey Program. The BRA will use the federal money to acquire and clear the land. No relocation will be necessary, as the buildings to be acquired are now vacant.

In addition, the BRA this year received $11.7 million from HUD in the form of amendatory budgets that will help complete the Washington Park, Government Center, North Harvard, and South Cove renewal projects.

The BRA also received a commitment of $9.7 million for renewal activities at South Station, and demolition has at last begun.

Two major educational complexes began this year at an estimated cost of $38 million. The $22.8 million Phase One of the city-side Campus High School in Lower Roxbury (the Campus High School renewal area) will accommodate 2,500 students and should be ready for occupancy in September, 1973. Stage One of Bunker Hill Community College in Charlestown, to cost an estimated $15.3 million, will be available to approximately 2,500 day and evening commuter students in the fall of 1973 as well.

BRA approval of more than $280 million of commercial development includes:

— Park Plaza. Boston Urban Associates was given preliminary approval as developer for the $260 million Phase One of this 35-acre non-federally funded renewal project that will include residential, hotel, retail, office, and parking uses. The Boston City Council recently approved the area's renewal plan and other necessary documents after long discussion.

— Faneuil Markets. The $16 million restoration project behind historic Faneuil Hall will transform Quincy Market, North and South Market Streets into a pedestrian center of retail, restaurant, entertainment, and office activity, forming a vital link between Government Center, the financial district, and the waterfront. Van Arkle & Moss/R. M. Bradley has been given preliminary approval as developer, with Benjamin Thompson Associates as architect.

— Clinton Street Office and Parking Complex. Spaulding and Slye will develop this $7 million complex behind Faneuil Markets, with 100,000 square feet of office space, parking for 400 cars, and ground floor commercial space. The Massachusetts Department of Public Works is now removing the discontinued expressway ramp at Clinton Street preparatory to making the construction site available.

Following receipt of federal funds for the long-delayed South Station project, demolition was begun last fall on the Railway Express building on Kneeland Street, the site for a 5,000-car parking garage. Mr. Kenney said that, while the garage and transportation facilities will be built as planned, the BRA is now updating the overall South Station plan, with an eye to the possibility of more diversified use of the 24-acre area.

In the waterfront, the Atlantic Avenue fish and lobster wholesalers were successfully relocated to the Harris Terminal Building in South Boston, across Northern Avenue from the Fish Pier. The old and ramshackle buildings they had occupied, on the site of the planned Waterfront Marine Park, are now being demolished.

Construction of the new $2.5 million facilities for Boston's wholesale flower industry in the South End is nearly completed on Harrison Avenue. The old flower market buildings on Tremont Street are now the location of the Boston Center for the Arts.

Throughout the city's urban renewal areas, more than $2.7 million in public improvements such as new streets, lighting, sewer and water lines were installed in 1971, Mr. Kenney said.

This past year, he added, BRA planning staff has provided extensive technical assistance to community groups in East Boston, Dorchester, Mattapan, Jamaica Plain, and Allston-Brighton that were concerned with housing, community facilities, parks, and open space. The Planning Department has also worked with the Parks and Recreation Department and the Conservation Commission on matters regarding parks and public open space, and with the Housing Inspection Department on code enforcement areas.

SMOKE SYMPTOMS

Parents who smoke at home can aggravate symptoms in some asthmatic children; even trigger asthma attacks.

In a study of 400 asthmatic children at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, two-thirds of the children were found to be allergic to tobacco smoke. Forty of these youngsters were so sensitive to smoke, in fact, that they suffered an asthma attack just by entering a room with tobacco smells.

Two physicians, Dr. Edward J. O'Connell and Dr. George B. Logan, reported the results at a recent meeting of the American Medical Association. "We advise parents not to smoke in their child's bedroom," they said, "in the car with the child, or in any room where the child is sitting."

However, almost half the parents of the youngsters who were sensitive to smoke did not quit even when shown that their smoking was a major cause of their children's asthma. In contrast, one or both parents of twenty of the most severe asthmatic children did quit smoking, and eighteen of these youngsters showed a marked improvement in their asthmatic condition.

PERSONAL INJURIES DECREASE

Registrar of Motor Vehicles, David J. Lucey, said, on January 4, that records compiled by the Accident Records Section under the direction of Frederick Cody revealed that there were 50,000 less personal injuries reported in 1971 than in 1970.

Broken down, this means that approximately one hundred forty less persons were reported injured on a daily basis throughout the year although the number of accidents reported remained approximately the same.

The general trend towards fewer personal injuries first became noticeable in the months following the effective date of no-fault insurance.

MBTA REPAINTING PROGRAM

The Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) will introduce to bus passengers the week of January 17, the bright golden yellow color scheme, recently adopted for the bus fleet.

Two buses, one a two-year-old Flxible and the other a five-year-old GMC, will be returned to service Monday morning following general overhaul and repainting at the Campello shops.

The Flxible will operate on the Waltham express route, via Massachusetts Turnpike, to Downtown Boston, and the GMC will be operating on Downtown Boston routes.

The Authority has no immediate plans to repaint its entire fleet of 1,200 buses, but a repainting program has been set up to change the remaining 39 Flxibles over to the new color scheme to match 300 new Flxibles being delivered in the spring. Older buses in the fleet are expected to be repainted if new paint or major repair work is required.

INCOME TAX INFORMATION AVAILABLE

A booklet that gives information on how to fill out federal tax returns will be sold at all postal service facilities in the Boston Postal District, Postmaster George K. Walker announced on January 6.

"Your Federal Income Tax" was written by the Internal Revenue Service and contains many examples to illustrate how the tax law applies to actual situations. A special feature of the booklet is the sample, filled-in return, Form 1040, keyed to pages where explanations can be found for each entry on the return.

The 160-page booklet is now on sale and costs 75 cents a copy.

"By selling this booklet at postal facilities in the Boston Postal District, we are offering a convenient service to our customers," Postmaster Walker said. "We are participating in a nationwide program to make the tax booklet available to the public in 15,000 postal facilities."

Another popular IRS publication, "Tax Guide for Small Business," will be sold for 75 cents a copy at all offices.

This publication answers many questions businessmen have about federal income, excise, and employment taxes and also contains a 1972 tax calendar with due dates for various tax and information returns and payments.

MAYOR OFFERS LAND TO MDC FOR TRACK FACILITY

Mayor Kevin White, on January 10, reiterated his offer to turn over to the MDC, without cost, 10.8 acres of vacant land in Dorchester for construction of a schoolboy track facility.

The MDC scheduled a public hearing for the purpose of selecting a site for the long-awaited track. The hearing was held January 12, in the MDC offices at 20 Somerset Street.

The city-owned land, which formerly served as a dump, is located on Hallet Street adjacent to the Southeast Expressway near Neponset Circle.

The Mayor made his original offer of the land to MDC Commissioner John Sears last February. At that time Mayor White said:

"A suitable facility for schoolboy track is long overdue, and unless some agency begins to take the first positive step, it will be delayed indefinitely. So, we are taking this first step. We shall make the land available, without cost to the MDC, provided that agency can produce specific, concrete plans for a track, plus a timetable for speedy construction."

MBTA SENIOR CITIZENS PASSES SUCCESSFUL

If there is any truth in sheer numbers, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's reduced fare pass for senior citizens must be counted an outstanding success as 185,422 senior citizens have taken advantage of the privilege since the law became effective on August 15, 1969.

"We have been continually surprised at the reception accorded the reduced fare registration program by the district's golden agers," MBTA Public Information Director Joseph F. Malone stated. "During September and October of last year the Authority had a registration team which visited forty-one communities and registered, in thirty working days, the startling total of 9,515. During the same period our permanent registration office at the MBTA Government Center Station on the Green Line was averaging a solid 100 registrations a day."

The Government Center Station office, open Monday through Friday from 9 A.M. to 3:30 P.M., registered 24,509 senior citizens in 1971 bringing the total registration at that location to 60,676.

Any person 65 years of age or older who is a resident of the MBTA district is eligible, upon payment of a 50-cent fee, to obtain an identification card good for a reduced fare on all MBTA lines at any time of the day or night, seven days a week.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

Massachusetts motor vehicles are sporting two types of registration plates this year as the Registry of Motor Vehicles begins phasing in new license markers.

The new plates, with red numerals on white reflectorized background, will be the standard in 1974 when the current blue-on-white series expires.

Motorists renewing or initially registering this year will receive the new plates which differ from those in use in other ways.

The new tags have Massachusetts lettered across the bottom instead of at the top as did their predecessors. Renewal decals will be affixed to the bottom right instead of the top right as in the past.

Another innovation is a change in the numbering scheme, a change from the conventional three-dot-three system.

New plates being issued have a numeral, letter, and dot—followed by four numerals. However, plates issued in 1973 will return to the three-dot-three system.

The red-and-white markers will be issued to all holders of reserved plates expiring this year, as well as for motorcycles. The latter will not need decals since the figure "72" is stamped on the lower right corner.

Rule 16.15 is hereby changed to read:

Rule 16.15. All leaves of absence granted by the Fire Commissioner shall be without pay, unless due to injury or illness received in the line of duty or as specified in subparagraphs (b) and (c) unless allowance of pay is especially ordered by the Fire Commissioner.

(a) In the case of a member returning from leave of absence with loss of pay, Company Commanders making out Form 3B, Return of Absentee, shall state under "Remarks":

(1) Number of 10 and or 14 hour tours of duty not performed by member.

(2) The work group number of the member at the time he went off duty and returned to duty.

(b) Five calendar days leave of absence with pay will be allowed a member in the case of the death of his wife, or anybody in either of the following relationships to himself or wife: father, mother, brother, sister, child, grandchild, son- or daughter-in-law. These leaves shall begin at the morning roll call following receipt of notice of death, and members affected shall be excused from tours of duty intervening between receipt of notice of death and the morning roll call. Sufficient time to attend the funeral of other near relatives may be allowed without loss of pay, with an extension of such time in any particular case, at the discretion of the Fire Commissioner. Leave under this rule must be applied in the usual way, and the relationship must be stated on the application.

(c) Members of the department who are serving in the capacity of officers or directors in the following department organizations will be granted time off without loss of pay to attend the meetings of these organizations, if the strength of the company permits: Boston Firemen's Relief Fund. Boston Firemen's Mutual Relief Association.

Charitable Association of the Boston Fire Department.

II. RESIGNATION

The following resignation which became effective at 0800 hours, Friday, January 7, 1972, is hereby announced:

Fire Fighter on Probation Edward J. Sheridan, Ladder Company 22.

III. COMMENDATIONS

The Rescue Company is hereby commended for unusual services rendered on December 23, 1971, at 2035 hours.

The Company, under the command of Fire Lieutenant John J. Creedon, was notified to respond to the Massachusetts General Hospital to aid in the removal of a meat grinder from the right arm of a 14-year-old Melrose boy. The boy was removed from the operating room to the corridor opposite the elevators on the third floor with fire doors on each side forming an enclosure. Engine 4 was summoned to man lines at each fire door. The Rescue Company and a team of doctors and nurses tried in vain to break the machine with ordinary tools. It was then decided to use the K-12 saw.

The coolness, the knowledge of the tool and expertness in its use by the Rescue Company in general and by Fire Fighters Nelson J. Pitman and Harold T. Matulaitis in particular resulted in the mouth or bell end of the grinder being cut away, enabling the doctors to save many inches of the boy's arm.

IV. COMMENDATIONS

The following-named members are hereby commended for volunteering and donating blood to a patient at the Framingham Union Hospital, through the American Red Cross Blood Bank, on January 4, 1972:

Fire Fighter Francis Manning, Engine 24.

Fire Fighter Lawrence Healy, Ladder 10.

Fire Fighter Walter O'Brien, Ladder 10.

Fire Fighter Philip Gagne, Engine 45.

Fire Fighter Joseph Petrocelli, Ladder 16.

V. LETTER OF APPRECIATION

The following letter received by the Chief of Department is published for the information of the department:

"January 4, 1972.

BOSTON FIREFIGHTERS RELIEF FUND:

This check is in appreciation for the firemen who fought the Peterborough Street fire last March 31. We hope this money is used for the benefit of fire fighters and their wives in a way they see most fit.

(The check was a very sizeable donation.)

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE, MAYOR OF BOSTON

GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE
PRESIDENT CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 64

MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 1972

No. 4

BCH To Limit Patient Admittance Temporarily

Mayor Kevin White and the Board of Trustees of the Department of Health and Hospitals announced on January 11 that in order to provide optimal patient care under the present nursing shortage at Boston City Hospital, they will temporarily limit the number of patients admitted beginning this March.

"No steps will be taken, however," Mayor White stressed, "until the Board and I have been assured that those people not admitted here will be adequately cared for at other Boston hospitals."

The hospital administration has been asked to report back to the Mayor and the Board by March 1, with a plan of how to limit patients and to arrange admission at other hospitals for those Boston City Hospital cannot handle.

While improving patient care, the cutback is also designed to help the hospital maintain and increase its nursing staff by easing their work load.

"The people who use Boston City Hospital deserve the same quality care as those who go to private hospitals," said Mayor White. "Considering the present nursing shortage here, the Board and I feel that this is not the case."

He said that he hopes the other hospitals in Boston will cooperate and stressed that no limit on the number of patients will be initiated until he and the Board are assured that they will be accepted by other institutions.

"Boston's hospitals enjoy a tax-exempt status and they therefore have a responsibility to serve the citizens of Boston no matter what their financial status may be."

The Mayor said that Boston City Hospital has been straining to maintain the traditional open-door policy of a city hospital, but it is no longer possible if the hospital wants to provide top quality patient care.

The Mayor and the Board said that the reduction in patient census would be achieved mostly in the categories of elective patients and those patients sent to Boston City Hospital from other hospitals.

"No one who needs immediate emergency care will be turned away," Mayor White stressed.

"We will not allow anyone to be turned away unless we can pick up the phone and be sure they will be well cared for at some other hospital," said David S. Nelson, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Nelson noted that Boston City Hospital's intensive nurse recruitment program has been very successful, but a high turnover rate has just about negated any progress made.

"You can't expect a nurse to stay around too long at a hospital where she has to do the work of six nurses," Mr. Nelson said. "We hope that by limiting the number of patients and easing the pressure under which our nurses work, we will be able to keep our nurses and recruit even more. Eventually, we hope to build up our nursing staff to the level where we need not limit patients."

He also noted that other steps have been taken to provide a better atmosphere for nurses at Boston City Hospital.

"We have increased security, provided shuttle bus service to our parking lots and to public transportation on all shift changes," Mr. Nelson said. "In this year's budget we have also provided for additional ancillary personnel such as ward clerks, messengers, and nursing assistants to help free nurses and doctors for strictly medical functions."

There are at present some 300 full time in-patient staff nurses at Boston City Hospital. The average daily in-patient census in 1971 was 635.

MAYOR DECRIES GOVERNMENT TAKING OF SOUTH POSTAL ANNEX

Mayor Kevin White revealed on January 12 that the federal government has taken by eminent domain the South Postal Annex at South Station at a cost of $700,000 annually in taxes to the City of Boston.

The Mayor, who was sharply critical of the action, said he was disturbed that the federal government was attempting to establish the United States Postal Service as a profitable public corporation at the expense of the taxpayers of this city.

"The President obviously has missed the message of revenue sharing," Mayor White said. "The city is supposed to receive aid from Washington, not subsidize the postal operation for all of New England."

In addition, he disclosed that the federal government filed suit December 22 in United States District Court seeking to take by eminent domain 5.25 acres of city-owned land adjacent to the Postal Annex along Dorchester Avenue for the establishment of additional facilities.

The Postal Service had leased the South Postal Annex building from a private owner, who would have paid the city $700,000 in taxes on the building for the current year. The federal government acquired the building on December 30 for $27.4 million.

"With more than half of the city tax-free, Boston cannot afford to have one more parcel of land taken off the tax rolls," the Mayor said. "This land grab by tax-exempt institutions has got to stop, and there is no better time to do it than at the outset of this four-year term."

"On this matter, Washington has callously disregarded the effect of this action on the taxpayers of this city," Mayor White continued. "The President's alleged concern for the plight of the nation's cities has got to be demonstrated by more than empty promises."

The Mayor said that because the federal government chose to no longer pay taxes on the South

Postal Annex, every taxpayer will be required to make up the difference, approximately 45 cents per $1,000 valuation.

FRANKLIN PARK RESTORATION SLATED

Restoration of the entire area of Franklin Park, located in the Roxbury, Dorchester, Roslindale section of Boston, under a beautification and elimination of vandalism and other crimes project, at a cost of approximately $3 million, was discussed at a meeting on Tuesday, January 11.

Spokesmen, headed by Commissioner of Parks and Recreation Joseph E. Curtis, also were represented by the Police Department and community groups. The meeting was held at the caddy house on the William F. Devine Golf Course.

Commissioner Curtis told the group, "It is now the sanctuary for undesirable elements. An augmented police detail will be housed at a substation, and will patrol the area seeking to rid the park of muggers, gamblers, handbag snatchers, and all law-breakers in general."

A new lighting system will be installed and maximum measures will be used to insure the safety of anyone visiting the zoo. A children's day camp is expected to open July 1, and added maintenance crews will be supplied.

BOSTON'S NEW FIREBOAT NAMED

The Boston Fire Department and the Fire Prevention Council selected the winner of the Name the Fireboat Contest from approximately 650 entries.

Boston's new fireboat will be named "The Firefighter."

The winner of the $100 savings bond was Mr. William Pierce of 187 Webster Street, East Boston, Mass.

Runners-up to the winning name were the names "Aquarius" and "Valiant."

It was obvious from the various entries that many contestants had contributed much time, thought, and effort into their choice of a name for the new fireboat.

The Boston Fire Department and the Fire Prevention Council wish to thank all contestants for lending us their time by entering this contest.

SAFETY POSTER CONTEST WINNERS

Fire Commissioner James H. Kelly has announced the winners of the Annual Holiday Safety Poster Contest conducted by the Fire Prevention Division of the Boston Fire Department. This contest was open to high school pupils of the public and parochial school systems of Boston and surrounding towns in the so-called "Mutual Aid" pact. It was sponsored by the Fire Prevention Council, Inc., who donated the various prizes for the children.

The winners were:

Miss Marie Abbatinuzzi, Everett High School, Everett, $50 savings bond.

Miss Katie O'Hara, Fontbonne Academy, Milton, $25 savings bond.

Miss Lynn Alberti, Everett High School, Everett, $15 cash.

Miss Sona Yacobian, Everett High School, Everett, $10 cash.

ANY POSTAL SUGGESTIONS?

Private citizens were afforded an opportunity to offer suggestions on the reclassification of postal products and services at a meeting which took place on January 17, in Washington, D C.

The public forum is one of a series of meetings with mailers which the Postal Service has scheduled in connection with its studies looking toward possible changes in the classification schedule.

The Postal Reorganization Act requires that the Postal Service submit a proposed mail classification schedule to the Postal Rate Commission by January 20, 1973.

In developing its reclassification proposals, the Postal Service seeks the views of business mailers and the general public.

Business mailers have had and will continue to have regular opportunities for dialogue with the Postal Service through the Mailers' Technical Advisory Committee, the more than 500 Postal Customer Councils throughout the country and the National Postal Forum held annually in Washington, D. C.

The January 17 meeting was intended specifically to give private citizens the chance to present their ideas on how the mail classification schedule, which embraces first-, second-, third-, and fourth-class mail, should be revised.

The meeting was held in the Departmental Auditorium on the north side of Constitution Avenue between 12th and 14th Streets, N. W., in Washington.

Individuals who were unable to attend the January meeting may submit their suggestions in writing to the Director, Office of Sales, United States Postal Service, P. O. Box 603, Washington, D. C. 20044.

BRA PAVES WAY FOR 134-UNIT STRUCTURE

The $3.4 million St. Botolph Street elderly housing development took another step forward recently as the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) gave preliminary approval to LiDaPell Associates, Inc., as developer for the 134-unit structure.

The 1.1-acre single purpose urban renewal area, which will provide badly needed public housing for senior citizens in the Fenway area, is located on St. Botolph Street between Garrison and Follen Streets.

Preliminary plans call for 84 efficiency and 50 one-bedroom apartments in an eight-story building.

Under the Federal Turnkey public housing program, the Boston Housing Authority (BHA) will contract with LiDaPell Associates to purchase the completed housing development for a previously agreed upon price. The BHA will then own and manage the apartments, charging public housing rentals.

The BRA has received $1 million in federal renewal funds for the project, and the City Council voted a loan order for the city's one-third share of project costs in 1969. The federal and city money will be used for acquisition of the land, demolition of the existing buildings, and street and utility improvements.

Construction of the housing will require no displacement or relocation of families. The site is presently occupied by five buildings owned by Boston University.

The BHA gave its approval to the developer last summer. Final redevelopment authority approval of the housing requires that the developer complete financing arrangements, architectural drawings, and receive necessary federal approvals. The BRA will then sell the land to the developer so construction can get under way.

LiDaPell Associates, Inc., is based in Beverly, Mass. The company recently completed a similar Turnkey development of 100 units in Claremont, N. H. Architects for the St. Botolph Street housing are Ganteaume & McMullen of Boston.

Construction is expected to begin by this summer.

MBTA EXTENSION SUCCESSFUL

Nearly two million fares were collected on the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's new South Shore rapid transit extension from opening day on September 2 through December 31, 1971, MBTA Director of Public Information Joseph F. Malone announced last week. "The actual count of 1,974,862 fares exceeded our fondest expectations so soon after the opening of the extension," Malone commented.

Since an opening day figure of 15,834 riding has increased at a steady pace until December, figures show a weekday average of 21,739 fares collected, with Saturday fares consistently topping out at better than 13,000 and Sunday at 4,000 plus.

STILL BEING BUGGED?

There is no cure-all for the common cold. But outgrowing colds may be one way to hold out against sniffles and sore throats.

One intensive study, conducted by the Child Research Council of the University of Colorado, showed that the preschool child had the greatest number of colds. As age increased, colds declined.

Subjects in the study, 116 boys and 111 girls, were volunteered by their parents before they were born. Their illness records were kept for decades, in some cases as many as 34 years.

The results? Severe infections were most common in the very early years. But they decreased gradually after age two in boys and age five in girls. Mild infections peaked in preschool and early school years, slowly declined until mid-adolescence, then dropped off abruptly. During the year, most colds occurred between October and May. Colds were scarce during June, July, and August.

The study suggested that antibiotic therapy did not alter the number or the kind of infection. Also, the passage of time had not influenced the incidence of respiratory infection since 1930. Results of the study were published in a recent issue of the American Journal of Diseases of Children, a professional publication of the American Medical Association.

Outgrowing colds can be a long, scratchy wait. And millions of adults are still laid low by respiratory infections every year. To find out more about how your respiratory system works, check with your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. And when your system isn't working right, see your doctor.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDY

Thirty authorities on specific environmental problems will be participating at an all-day meeting of the New England Environmental Health Societies which is set for Wednesday, January 26, at Valle's Steak House, Route 9, Newton, beginning with registration at 8:30 A.M.

Collaborating agencies of the day-long meeting are the New England Section of the Air Pollution Control Association, New England Industrial Hygiene Association, and the New England Chapter of the Health Physics Society.

A morning plenary session from 9:30 A.M. to noon will be devoted to "Programs for Compliance with Environmental Protection Laws." John A. S. "January 5, 1972.

DEAR COMMISSIONER:

I take this opportunity to set the records straight and to thank the men of your fire fighting department who saved the lives of my brother and my aged mother.

According to the newspaper reports of January 2, 1972, the Boston Record-American, the Herald-Traveler, the Globe, credit is given to an off-duty police officer for carrying my mother over a ladder from the second-story apartment at 997 South Street, Roslindale. The fact is that it was one of your men, a Boston fire fighter who aided my brother and my mother. My brothers, James and Arthur can verify this statement. I do not intend in any sense to discredit the role the off-duty police officer played. But the true facts are that he stopped and helped my brother to get help in that serious crisis. For that, I am grateful to him and my family joins me in expressions of deep gratitude.

If possible, I would like to know the name or names of the men of your department who participated in the heroic rescue. I feel that they should be given due recognition, and I know that you will see to it that they get it.

I have already said a Mass of thanksgiving for all who played a role in the rescue. Thank God, my mother is fine and is now living at my sister's house.

All my family joins with me in sentiments of deep appreciation to Boston's heroic fire fighters. I remain

Sincerely yours,

FR. CORNELIUS F. KELLY, O.F.M."

The fire fighter referred to in the above letter is Leo Mooney of Engine Company 52 who was detailed to Ladder 25 for that particular tour of duty. As would be expected of any member of this department, he carried out his duty in assisting a citizen in distress in the true tradition of the Boston Fire Department.

"January 5, 1972.

DEAR COMMISSIONER KELLY:

As a physician and surgeon in Boston for over thirty years, my type of practice has never required the service of your organization, but, today, my sister-in-law, Mrs. John S. Kelly, 812 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., required oxygen help. Your men responded immediately and in a most efficient manner. They were really tremendous, capable, courteous and did a "great job." My miserable human words are most inadequate to express the gratitude and appreciation of the family. I was truly humbled, as an M.D. most ignorant of their problems and the unrecognized contributions of the Boston Fire Department. I really do not feel that the general public is conscious of this fact.

Pardon my trespassing on your time but the above is merely a written expression of deep gratitude and, also, a media of complimenting the fine unselfish men who came with enthusiasm to the aid of my sister-in-law.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES J. E. KICKHAM, M.D."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record and to award a contract for professional management consulting services to Paul J. Dorr of 46 Spring Lane, Canton, Mass., at a cost not to exceed nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) during the period October 1, 1971, to and including March 31, 1972.

Under the proposed contract, Mr. Dorr will:

1. Provide a program statement, schedule, draft budget, and such other professional services, that may be necessary to assist the city in applying for a federal grant to conduct, under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act, a management education program in labor relations.
2. Assess the state's pilot "Executive Development Program" and suggest modifications that may be necessary for use by the city.
3. Assist the Director of Administrative Services and/or the Management Development Council in explaining to the managers and in installing the new management salary plan, and provide similar services to the Commissioner of Traffic and Parking for the current pilot program of describing and evaluating bargaining unit positions.
4. Provide the Labor Relations Office with various studies on labor relations problems such as the probable impact of a four-day work week and payment of unused sick leave on retirement.
5. Assist the Director of Administrative Services and the Management Development Council to redirect efforts to the identification and resolution of problems of internal administration.

In view of the professional nature of the services to be rendered and Mr. Dorr's previous excellent services to the city under prior contracts, it is my opinion that inviting proposals by advertisement would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

Purchasing Division

MAINTENANCE AND SERVICING OF I.B.M. ELECTRIC TYPEWRITERS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Authority is requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to International Business Machines Corporation for the maintenance and servicing of I. B. M. electric typewriters in the various city departments from May 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972, inclusive.

This company is the only qualified source for servicing I. B. M. electric typewriters and therefore no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract in the above manner. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $3,000.

Respectfully yours,
KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

CLASSROOM SEATING

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On June 7, 1971, bids for furnishing mobile and fixed cabinets, cabinet units, and school furniture to the Public Facilities Department were publicly opened and read in this office.

The proposal contained two specifications for classroom seating. American Seating Company was the only company who bid on one of the specifications. However, at that time the chair on which this company bid was not approved by the Fire Department for classroom use. The American Seating Company has now modified the nylon shell of the chair and the Fire Department now indicates it is acceptable for classroom use.

Authority is therefore requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to American Seating Company at the price submitted on the publicly opened bid of June 7, 1971. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract in this manner.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $5,880.40.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,

Purchasing Agent.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT
RENTAL OF CARD PROCESSOR

DEAR SIR:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with the usual form of advertising, and to award a contract commencing April 1, 1971, and expiring May 31, 1971, for the rental of one Model 1004 card processor from Univac, Division of Sperry Rand Corporation, Wellesley Office Park, Wellesley, Mass.

The amount of rental for this machine will be $1,200 per month.

There is no competition in the award of this contract as this corporation is the only supplier of this machine, which will form an integral part of this system.

Very truly yours,

JOHN F. MORLEY,

Associate Commissioner of Assessing.

RENTAL OF KEYPUNCH MACHINE

DEAR SIR:

I respectfully request permission to award without advertising for bids a contract to the Univac Division of the Sperry Rand Corporation for a period commencing April 1, 1971 and expiring March 31, 1972.

It has become necessary to replace the current 90 column keypunch with an 80 column punch in order to be compatible with the 360 Computer in the Administrative Data Processing Division and begin a conversion program.

Our old machines and peripheral equipment (owned by the Department) are obsolete and must be scrapped. Rental of six new keypunch machines with interpreters is necessary. The present 1004 will be replaced by the rental of a Remington Rand 9200—which will better serve the needs of this department and can easily be adapted as a backup for the 360 Computer.

Until the expanded system is completely installed, the rental of the Univac 1004 and the maintenance of the old machines currently in use will cost $1,797.00 per month.

The cost for rental of the 6 key punch machines and the Remington Rand 9200 Processor will be $2,112.00 per month, or $25,344.00 per year. Added to this will be a charge of $400.00 for transportation charges of the Remington Rand 9200, the 6 keypunch machines, and the removal of the 1004 Card Processor.

Very truly yours,

JOHN F. MORLEY,

Associate Commissioner of Assessing.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT BUILDING RAZED

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:

Emergency telephone bid for the demolition of 31-33 Railroad Street, Ward 20, ordered in by Leo F. Martin, Deputy Building Commissioner.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 479, Acts of 1938, as amended, particularly section 116 (d) thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Berardi.—$2,799.

Napoli.—$3,600.

Mystic.—$3,950.

John A. Berardi Wrecking Company, 117 Franklin Street, Allston, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in lower administrative costs to the city than would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price $2,000 or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising as required in the city charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,799 to the John A. Berardi Wrecking Company, 117 Franklin Street, Allston, Mass.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD R. THUMA, JR.,

Building Commissioner.

BOARDING UP BUILDING AND REMOVING PORCHES
DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following building or structure has been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. This building or structure is a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:
20 and 24 Winthrop Street, Ward 12.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 479, Acts of 1938, as amended, particularly section 116 (d) thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to board up building and remove porches.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the boarding up and the removal of porches of this building or structure.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Napoli.—$2,640.

Diaferio.—$3,800.

Cousins.—$4,778.

Morello.—$8,300.

Napoli Wrecking Company, Inc., 111 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising as required in the city charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,640 to Napoli Wrecking Company, Inc., 111 Norwell Street, Dorchester, Mass.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD R. THUMA, JR.,

Building Commissioner.

Charlestown Rehabilitation Program Started by BRA

Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) Director Robert T. Kenney and Mrs. Kevin H. White, a native of Charlestown, on January 19 inspected rehabilitation work now under way on five historic Charlestown structures known as Thompson Square Triangle. The buildings include one of Paul Revere's favorite taverns and the homes of former mayors of Boston and Charlestown.

James Adams, a Charlestown resident and president of Charlestown Development Corporation (CDC), developer for Thompson Triangle, conducted the inspection tour.

CDC recently received a federal Section 312 rehabilitation loan of nearly $261,000 to finance the work. This is the largest single amount ever approved by the federal government for housing rehabilitation under this program in Boston.

Boundaries of the project are Warren, Pleasant, and Main Streets in the Charlestown urban renewal area.

The Thompson Triangle development includes the Benjamin Thompson House, Timothy Thompson House, Round Corner House, Armstrong House, and the Warren Tavern. End result of the rehabilitation will be twelve rental apartments within the historic structures plus three ground floor commercial or office spaces.

Also planned is construction to provide nine or ten additional apartments in two new buildings that will become an integral part of the complex.

BRA Director Kenney said, "The BRA believes that every effort must be made in this city to preserve historic structures, buildings of architectural significance, and even whole areas that are important to the scale or history of Boston.

"These five buildings," he continued, "which date from the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, have both historic and architectural value not only to the residents of Charlestown, but to the rest of the city as well. Charlestown Development Corporation has undertaken a unique and exciting project that will save these structures for future generations, and at the same time increase Charlestown's housing supply."

Mr. Adams described the Thompson Triangle as a "miniature of old Charlestown.

"We are preserving and restoring the architectural details of the buildings inside and out while adapting them to modern safety and living standards," he said. "We plan to landscape the outdoor areas as they would have been around 1790, with lilac bushes, which were very popular at that time, brick paving, and gaslights."

Thompson Street will be discontinued by the city and a pedestrian way built in its place. A plaque on

LETTER CARRIERS ASSOCIATION PURCHASES REVENUE BONDS

As an expression of confidence in the United States Postal Service, the Boston Letter Carriers Mutual Benefit Association has purchased $100,000 in postal revenue bonds in the first public offering of $250 million authorized under the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970.

"The 2,300 member organization, which dates back to May 18, 1889, is making this investment as a reflection of our faith in our own business," stated Henry J. Carroll, organization president. "We take great pride in our daily contact with every segment of the community and are particularly pleased to demonstrate our determination to build a postal service that will command the respect of the entire country," Carroll continued.

The postal service is authorized to sell up to $10 billion in revenue bonds for the construction of new facilities, updating of present buildings, and the installation of mechanized equipment to process the constantly increasing volumes of mail.

In its first public sale of debt, the postal service issue attracted orders for about 90 percent of the 25-year, 6 $\frac{7}{8}$ percent bonds at a price of \$100. These included individual investors, pension funds, life insurance companies, and other institutions.

Charlestown Rehab. . . .

each building will tell its history and something of its architecture.

The five buildings were originally slated for demolition under the Charlestown urban renewal plan. The Charlestown Preservation Society, however, which was formed in 1966 to save significant structures and encourage their restoration, succeeded in convincing the BRA of the historic architectural merits of the buildings, as well as the economic feasibility of saving them for rehabilitation.

The Preservation Society has undertaken other projects such as the restoration of the Larkin House and the preservation and maintenance of the Phipps Street Burial Ground, one of the three oldest cemeteries in Boston.

The Benjamin Thompson House, at 119 Main Street, was also the home of Dr. Abraham Rand Thompson, for whom Thompson Square was named. Completed in 1794, its architecture is typical of Charlestown houses of that time. It will contain one four-bedroom and one one-bedroom apartment when its rehabilitation is complete.

The Timothy Thompson House, 9 Thompson Street, dates from the 1780's. It still has its original interior and clapboards, which have been preserved. Once the home of Timothy Sawyer, who married Timothy Thompson's daughter and was also mayor of Charlestown in 1855-1857, it will have one four-bedroom and two one-bedroom apartments.

Built by ship's carpenters about 1814, the roof of the Round Corner House, at 121-123 Main Street, is shaped like a ship's hull and still retains its original soldered metal plates. Plans call for two two-bedroom apartments plus a commercial space in the Round Corner House.

The Armstrong House, 125-127 Main Street, built in 1808, has always included both residential and commercial space. Restored, it will house three two-bedroom apartments and one office. Samuel T. Armstrong, who became mayor of Boston in 1836, lived there and had his printing works in the building in 1810 and 1811. Armstrong also served as lieutenant governor of the Commonwealth for two terms.

The Universalist Church, originally called the First Universalist Society, was founded and held meetings in Edmands Hall on the third floor of the Armstrong House early in the nineteenth century.

Located at the corner of Main and Pleasant Streets, the Warren Tavern, built before 1780 and the oldest building still standing in Charlestown, was one of the first buildings constructed after Charlestown was burned by the British following the Battle of Bunker Hill. Reputedly a favorite meeting place of Paul Revere, the tavern is also where King Solomon's Lodge of the Masonic Order was founded in 1783. Along with a one-bedroom and a two-bedroom apartment, plans for the restored tavern building include space for a smart restaurant.

The developer intends to build a duplicate of the Timothy Thompson House, probably with three or four two-bedroom apartments and to construct a six-apartment structure with two- and three-bedroom dwelling units adjacent to the Armstrong House. The Timothy Thompson House once had a twin building that was demolished some time ago.

Architect for the new construction is Laurence Rubin of Boston. The new buildings, to be financed by conventional means, are expected to get under way as soon as rehabilitation work is completed.

Several old and dilapidated structures within the rehabilitation area, without historic or architectural value, have been torn down to permit landscaping and new construction.

Mr. Kenney noted that there are many historic structures that the BRA has been instrumental in preserving in the city's urban renewal areas:

—Old City Hall, built in 1865, in the School-Franklin renewal area. It now houses offices, a bank, and a restaurant complex.

—The Sears Block and Sears Crescent in Government Center. Built in the early nineteenth century, they now house restaurants, offices, and banking facilities.

—Faneuil Markets, built in 1824-1826, in the Waterfront project. North and South Market Streets and Quincy Market will be restored as a major retail, commercial, office, and entertainment complex.

—The rezoning of residential Back Bay to prohibit construction of high-rise buildings. Mr. Kenney said the rezoning, in which the BRA played a major role, has been instrumental in encouraging rehabilitation of the Hotel Vendome (as apartments and retail space) and the Webster House (as office space) and the purchase of the Somerset Hotel for conversion to apartments, and will probably lead to similar actions in the future.

Mr. Kenney also noted that other renewal activities in the area of Thompson Triangle will combine with the rehabilitation project to strengthen the neighborhood.

In recent months BRA project staff and the Charlestown Preservation Society have discussed possible rehabilitation of buildings along Main Street between Thompson Triangle and the Harvard Mall at City Square. Tentatively called the John Harvard Crescent, the project would involve the rehabilitation of two blocks of nineteenth-century brick row structures to provide ground floor commercial space and upper story apartments, as the buildings did originally. The BRA now owns the buildings, which are structurally sound, and may advertise for developers this spring.

Ninety-six units of housing for the elderly are now under construction on several sites between Main Street and the route of New Rutherford Avenue. A shopping center in Thompson Square is also planned by Charlestown Shoppers, Inc., once New Rutherford Avenue and New Austin Street are built.

The $5.5 million construction of these two streets, financed through the Federal TOPICS Program with 50 percent federal and 50 percent state funds and intended to take heavy traffic off Charlestown's residential streets, is expected to begin very soon.

The elevated MBTA that now runs through Thompson Square above Main Street will come down when service is transferred to the new MBTA right-of-way beneath Interstate 93, now under construction.

MORTGAGE LENDING CONTINUES

Mortgage lending activity continues well above last year's levels. Figures for October, 1971, released by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development show that seven major lender groups acquired $7.3 billion in long-term mortgage loans during the month, up 45 percent from October, 1970. The rise is accounted for primarily by increased lending for housing which, at $5.8 billion in October, is 51 percent higher than last year.

New construction loans last October totaled $3.2 billion, a 61 percent increase over the $2.0 billion level recorded in October, 1970, and up 10 percent from the $2.9 billion September level. Nearly two-thirds of new construction loans are for housing.

CAN YOU FIX A CAR?

An automotive mechanic examination to fill existing vacancies and to establish a register of eligibles has been announced by Postmaster George K. Walker.

All interested persons who meet the requirements of a general mechanic are requested to reply in person or write to the Office of Personnel, Room 464, John W. McCormack Post Office and Court House, Boston, Mass. 02109, attention: automotive mechanic examinations.

Applicants must be at least eighteen years of age. Starting salary is $8,393 per year plus liberal employee benefits. Closing date for applications is February 29, 1972.

MBUF RAISES $13.8 MILLION

The 1971-72 Massachusetts Bay United Fund Campaign moved slightly ahead of last year's total in reporting $13,830,047 at its final campaign meeting.

Over 600 volunteer workers received reports from the various campaign units which added up to 90.99 percent of the $15,200,000 goal. Campaign Chairman William S. Brewster reminded those attending that the sum of $13,760,000 reported at a similar meeting one year ago had been exceeded by the year's end. He urged them to continue their efforts to reach belated givers.

Results of divisions reported by their chairman were: Communities, Charles A. Ormsby, $2,196,233, 87 percent; Advance Gifts, Mrs. Josiah Spaulding, $1,440,614, 90 percent; Government and Education, M. Daniel Richardson, $890,000, 88 percent; Chapter Divisions, Thomas J. Galligan, Jr., $5,138,610, 92 percent; Major Firms, Bernard Grossman, $3,218,395, 92 percent; Corporate Gifts, John I. Taylor, $946,195, 92 percent.

HOME COUNSELING SERVICE EXPANDED BY HUD

Homeownership counseling service is being expanded in fifteen HUD areas to include the Section 235 low-income homeownership program.

For the past three years, homeownership counseling has been available only to applicants for Section 237 mortgage insurance.

A fee system also has been authorized to offset the administrative costs of voluntary agencies located within the jurisdiction of these fifteen areas that counsel families buying homes under federally assisted programs. Boston will be included in the expanded program.

"OPERATION SCOOP" BEGINS

Fire Commissioner James H. Kelly announced on January 21 that in cooperation with the Boston Council of the Cub Scouts of America, "Operation Scoop" will be in effect the remainder of the winter. He also stated that he is proud of the Cub Scouts and the interest they are showing in endeavoring to make their community safe from fire.

What is "Operation Scoop"? In the event of a snowstorm, Cub Scouts have volunteered to shovel the snow away from fire hydrants in their district. To assist them, the Boston Fire Department has given the Cub Scouts the following directions:

"When the storm is over, start at the street side and shovel a path about three feet wide to the hydrant. This will give the pump operator room to run his hard suction hose from the hydrant to the pump. The fire hydrant should be shoveled out at least three feet in all directions. When shoveling, snow should be thrown to the back of the hydrant or far enough away to keep the hydrant from being obstructed by a bank of snow. In other words, the hydrant should be clearly visible from the street side. The boys should make sure that they recheck their hydrants to avoid possible blockage by snowplows which may be working in the area."

DIRECTIVE NO. 1 ANNUAL REPORTS

January 25, 1972.

To Department Heads, Chairmen of Boards, Commissions, Etc.

His Honor the Mayor has directed my attention to the fact that several agencies of the city have been lax in filing annual reports in accordance with the provisions of the City Ordinance set forth in chapter 3, section 25, for the years 1969 and 1970.

To those agencies that have failed to file annual reports for the years 1969 and 1970, I would suggest that immediate attention be directed to the filing of same at the earliest possible date but no later than March 1.

All annual reports for the year 1971 should be filed on or before May 1. The ordinance stipulates "thirty days after the close of the financial year" but I realize that this is an impossibility for most departments.

I have also been advised that there has been some confusion as to where these annual reports should be filed. For the information of those who are unfamiliar with present procedures, these reports should be filed with Mr. Joseph Brogna, Staff Director, Boston City Council, who arranges for printing and making proper distribution.

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.

"This issue of the Newsletter begins with a commendation to Lieut. George Sangster, Supervisor of Plans in the Boston Fire Department. Lieut. Sangster's authorship of the 'Firefighters Key Switches' under the 'Automatic Elevators—Fire Emergency' section in the latest revision of the State Elevator Code was so complete and all encompassing that it has been adopted by the New York City Fire Department in toto. In addition to being a personal tribute to George's fine work, it again places Massachusetts in the position of forerunner in the formulation of fire safety regulations. Our congratulations to Lieutenant Sangster!"

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT PLOWING AND REMOVAL OF SNOW

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on November 3, 1971, it was voted that this Board enter into a force account contract, without public advertising for bids, with John J. Botti Company, Inc., 1050 Adams Street, Dorchester, Mass., providing for furnishing all labor and equipment necessary for plowing, or plowing and removal of snow, from various areas in and around Boston City Hospital, Main Division, 818 Harrison Avenue, Boston, Mass., and Long Island Chronic Disease Division, Boston (Harbor), Mass., during the winter 1971-1972, the entire contract price not to exceed $12,000, for which an appropriation is available.

The plowing of snow, together with the plowing and removal of same from the hospitals premises can be done only as access is arranged, and this presents a problem differing measurably from normal plowing.

This work contract has been bid on various occasions and no bids were received.

This contract is awarded primarily to have adequate equipment available in the event of a succession of heavy snowfalls to provide access and parking for the hospital facilities and is paid on an hourly rate for such equipment as is provided.

The Board respectfully requests your Honor's written approval of entering into contract with the above-mentioned contractor, for these snow removal services.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Acting Commissioner.

PROGRAM OF HEALTH SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on September 22, 1971, it was voted that said Board enter into a contract with the Boston-Brookline Health Resources Organization, Incorporated, under which said corporation shall develop and sponsor a comprehensive program of health services for residents of designated neighborhoods in the City of Boston for the period commencing October 1, 1971, and ending on March 31, 1972, at a cost not to exceed $25,000.

The Boston-Brookline Health Resources Organization, an independent, nonprofit corporation, is supported jointly by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, the Town of Brookline, and the Boston Department of Health and Hospitals, each of which is pledged to a $25,000 contribution during the corporation's initial year of operation. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of twenty-one consumer and provider members representing residents and providers of health services in the state planning area No. 6-29, which includes the Boston neighborhoods of Jamaica Plain, Mission Hill-Parker Hill, Brighton-Allston, Back Bay, and the Town of Brookline.

The primary objective of the corporation is to develop and sponsor a comprehensive program of health services for the 200,000 residents living within the area.

Inasmuch as this contractual undertaking is one of a personal and specialized nature, and since no benefit to the city can be derived from competitive bidding, your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

FRANCIS E. GUINEY,
Acting Commissioner.

HOUSING INSPECTION DEPARTMENT LEASING OF SPACE

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby respectfully request permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record for the leasing of 1,296 square feet of space in the building located at 263, 265, and 265A Bowdoin Street, Dorchester, and to enter into a lease with Harold E. Stone for this space. The premises are needed by this department as a local office in connection with Code Enforcement activities: under section 117 of the Housing Acts of 1949, as amended, City of Boston, Concentrated Code Enforcement Program, Mass. Contract E-6.

The proposed lease is for a term of one year, July 15, 1971, to July 15, 1972, with two consecutive options on the part of the city to extend the term for an additional year. The proposed rental fee is two hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, not to exceed the total of two thousand seven hundred dollars.

It is my opinion that nothing is to be gained by public advertising.

Very truly yours,

FRANCIS W. GENS,
Commissioner.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT PERIODICALS AND SERIALS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Board of Trustees in charge of the Library Department of the City of Boston respectfully request the approval of your Honor for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to F. W. Faxon Company, Inc., 15 Southwest Park, Westwood, Mass., for supplying periodicals and serials to the Boston Public Library for the year 1972 and for servicing the subscriptions for the individual items throughout the year.

The F. W. Faxon Company, Inc., has had over eighty years of experience of servicing libraries, has a reputation for rendering good service, and has all of its records on data processing equipment. Also, this company, located as it is near to Boston, is convenient when it is necessary to register claims for materials not received from publishers and for corrections.

The matter of service and of continuity of receipt of publications and serials is of the highest importance. Missing issues, resulting from delays in renewing subscriptions, lower the quality of service. To prevent this gap in service to the public many libraries have placed "til forbid" orders with their subscription dealers. Under such an arrangement the agency sends to the Library in August each year a preliminary invoice which is double checked and on which any additions or deletions are made. The agency then prepares a final invoice and automatically renews with the publishers the subscriptions several months in advance of their expiration, thus eliminating gaps in the Library's files. This also reduces the amount of paper work involved in renewing procedure. The "til forbid" arrangement was in effect this year in connection with the Library's 1971 contract with F. W. Faxon Company, Inc.

Therefore, in the interests of service to the public and of economy of operation it is recommended that the Boston Public Library serial subscriptions be placed on this "til forbid" basis with F. W. Faxon Company, Inc., for the year 1972.

The company will base its charges on the cost to it of each title plus a service charge per title, the same formula used by the F. W. Faxon Company, Inc., in computing its bid price for the last year. It is estimated the total cost of this contract will not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

In view of the above, the Trustees have: "Voted. That there be entered into, without public advertising, with F. W. Faxon Company, Inc., 15 Southwest Park, Westwood, Mass., for (1) supplying periodicals and serials for the year 1972, and (2) servicing the subscriptions for the individual items throughout the year, subject to the terms, agreements, and conditions set forth in said contract."

The permission of your Honor is hereby requested to award the contract to F. W. Faxon Company, Inc., in the amount indicated above.

Respectfully,

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES IN CHARGE OF THE LIBRARY DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,

By PHILIP J. MCNIFF,
Director.

MODEL CITY ADMINISTRATION TUTORING PROJECT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

As Administrator of the Model City Agency, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract in an amount not to exceed seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) to La Alianza Hispana de Dorchester y Roxbury, Inc., a nonprofit corporation organized and existing under and pursuant to chapter 180 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with offices located at 655 Dudley Street, Dorchester, Mass. The maximum period of performance shall be from September 13, 1971, through June 29, 1972; provided, that if the program is not completed by that date it may be continued for up to six additional months.

Under the contract, funds will be provided to La Alianza Hispana de Dorchester y Roxbury, Inc., to carry out a mothers tutoring mothers project. The project is to develop the English language proficiency of Spanish-speaking adults. This will be undertaken by instruction by bilingual adults of Spanish-speaking mothers in the home. It is hoped that this home-centered, peer instruction approach will maximize the use of established cultural and language strengths.

Funds for the contract are provided to the Model City Agency by a grant from the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, which grant was finally approved on August 6, 1971. In addition to the grant of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, seventy-eight hundred dollars ($7,800) of nonfederal contribution, consisting of staff time and space, is included in the program.

La Alianza Hispana de Dorchester y Roxbury, Inc., is designated in the approved proposal as the organization which will operate the program. It is so designated because it is the only organization in the Spanish-speaking community in the Model Neighborhood Area with the ability to carry out this program.

Award of the contract is consistent with the city's grant contract with the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. For these aforementioned reasons, it is requested that notice of the contract be dispensed from being advertised in the City Record.

Yours truly,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

PROGRAM FOR SPANISH-SPEAKING RESIDENTS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request authority to dispense with advertising in connection with the award of a contract in an amount not to exceed three hundred forty thousand ($340,000) dollars to La Alianza Hispana de Dorchester y Roxbury, Inc. (the "Alliance"), a Massachusetts nonprofit corporation having its principal office at 655 Dudley Street, Dorchester, Mass., for a comprehensive program of social, educational, and economic development services for Spanish-speaking residents of the Model City Neighborhood.

The City Council resolution approving the Model City Third Year Action Plan specifically requires that up to three hundred fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars of Model City funds be expended for services to Spanish-speaking residents of the Model City Neighborhood.

More than a year before the adoption of that resolution a group of Spanish-speaking residents of the Model City Neighborhood representing a diversity of national backgrounds approached the Model Neighborhood Board and the Model City Agency with a request for assistance. The group subsequently incorporated under the name of La Alianza Hispana de Dorchester y Roxbury, Inc. With the cooperation of the Roxbury Multi-Service Center, a proposal for a permanent multi-service center for Spanish-speaking residents of the Model City Neighborhood was developed, and a temporary center was opened at 655 Dudley Street, Dorchester.

The proposed contract for the full program will provide for social services to assist with problems concerning housing, employment, legal, and other personal and family problems, a program to instruct Spanish-speaking residents in reading and writing the Spanish language and in speaking, reading, and writing the English language, a public school liaison program which will interpret public school requirements and procedures to Spanish-speaking residents and make the public school system aware of the special needs of Spanish-speaking children, a youth cultural arts and recreation program, services and assistance with housing problems, and assistance to business in the Model City Neighborhood owned or controlled by Spanish-speaking residents.

Approximately thirty-five employees of the Alliance will be employed and compensated under the contract, including an executive director, an economic development specialist, social service workers, housing workers, an education coordinator, a public school liaison, and office staff. The contract will also include funds for legal and accounting services, staff training, equipment and supplies, rental of space and utilities. The contract will be effective as of August 2, 1971, and will terminate July 31, 1972.

The reasons for not involving bids by advertisement with respect to this contract are the inappropriateness of the bidding process for this type of contract, and the special qualifications for serving Spanish-speaking residents of the Model City Neighborhood which are possessed by the contractor and are necessary to carry out the City Council's mandate.

Should there be any questions or should you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE, MAYOR OF BOSTON

GABRIEL F. PIEMONTE
PRESIDENT CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 64

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1972

NO. 6

Major Construction Projects Planned For Downtown Area

Mayor Kevin H. White, noting the confidence that both the city and the business community have in the future of downtown Boston, recently announced several major programs affecting Washington Street and its retail activities.

The programs are:

— Major construction plans by Filene's department store that will see one new building replacing six old structures in the Filene's block along Franklin and Washington Streets, plus a permanent "Shoppers' Park" at Washington and Franklin Streets.

— The redesigning and relighting of Washington Street as the first step in an overall plan by the Boston Redevelopment Authority (BRA) to make Washington Street an attractive pedestrian area.

— Construction by the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank of a small pedestrian city park at School and Washington Streets on land made available through the relocation of School Street next to the bank's new addition, now under construction.

"The future of downtown Boston, unlike many other American cities, is extremely bright," the Mayor said. "Recent construction of major office buildings has increased the daytime population of downtown, and new residential development in areas such as the Waterfront, and Park Plaza and the Fort Point Channel, will add a significant number of new families living within walking distance of the city's major retail area."

In addition to its plans to give Washington Street a face-lifting, the BRA, as the city's planning agency, assisted Filene's in reviewing plans and in coordinating the activities of various city departments.

"It is heartening to be able to announce this evidence of faith in the retail future of the central business district," the Mayor continued, "at a time when some businesses have chosen to desert the city for suburbia. Filene's commitment to the downtown area is of great importance to the whole retail business."

"These three projects, plus future improvements to Washington Street, the construction of Washington Mall, and other improvements, will have a major impact on the livability and 'shop-ability' of the retail area," the Mayor added.

The multimillion dollar Filene's program, privately financed by William Filene's Sons Company and Federated Department Stores, entails replacement of six of the nine buildings within the Filene's block with one large modern structure. Three buildings will be retained: the main building at Summer and Washington Streets designed by Daniel Burnham, the so-called Jones-McDuffy-Stratton building at Hawley and Franklin, and a recent addition on Hawley Street.

Demolition of the buildings at the corner of Washington and Franklin Streets has already begun. Plans call for construction of the new building to start this spring, with completion anticipated in the spring of 1973. Additional interior refurbishing of the three remaining structures is also planned.

The new building will eliminate the many floor levels and ceiling heights existing in the Filene's block, and give a new openness and accessibility to the selling floors of the department store. The escalator system will also be extended to Filene's basement, making unnecessary the staircase approach of prior years.

Richard G. Shapiro, chairman of the board of Filene's emphasized that the construction will be staged in order to allow all departments to continue functioning during construction.

Mr. Shapiro praised "the cooperation from Mayor White and all city departments in bringing this program to fruition." He said it is "the best evidence possible that the business climate in Boston is a good one."

Mayor White also noted that the temporary Shoppers' Park, a joint effort on the part of Filene's, the BRA, Parks and Public Works Departments last year, will be rebuilt permanently by Filene's when the new building is complete.

The Washington Street public improvements that the Mayor announced are the first phase of a plan drawn by the BRA to make Washington Street a pleasant and attractive pedestrian area, a major goal in strengthening downtown retail activities.

BRA Director Robert T. Kenney described the improvements, which include the installation of globe lamps, like those in Government Center, along Washington Street from Avery to Franklin Streets, with additional high-intensity lighting at Summer and Washington Streets. Kenney said international-style street and traffic signs will be installed between Stuart and State Streets, and the sidewalk on both sides of Washington Street will be widened between Summer and Franklin Streets. Work is to be done by the city's Public Works Department in accordance with BRA plans.

The pedestrian park at School and Washington Streets will be constructed by the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank as a result of an agreement between the bank, the Mayor, and the BRA. The bank will, with its own funds, construct the triangular park under plans approved by the BRA and on completion will deed it to the city. The bank has agreed to maintain the park as well.

Plans for the 3,400 square-foot area include a concrete sidewalk around the perimeter, with large granite cobblestones in the center section. Four permanent benches are to be installed, plus a sprinkler system that will provide water for eight large linden trees.

School Street will be moved to curve next to the Boston Five's new addition to connect with Milk Street. Existing School Street will continue to intersect with Washington Street.

The Mayor noted that bids are now being sought for construction of Phase 2 of the City Hall Plaza, which includes the pedestrian Washington Mall at the beginning of Washington Street. Construction is expected to get under way this spring.

MAYOR ADDRESSES MAPC; TOPIC, "REAL CITY"

Remarks of Mayor Kevin H. White to the Metropolitan Area Planning Council on "Real City," given at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel on January 27.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Boston. Allow me a little bit of civic pride. Boston is one of the strongest and most exciting core cities in America today. I hope all of you will take time out of a busy schedule to look at this city, to walk around in it, to talk to the people who live and work here. And I mean that as much for those of you who commute here every day as for our honored visitors from outside the area.

We have problems—I would be the last one to gloss over them. We have a decayed seaport and some decaying neighborhoods. We have unemployment and drugs and crime. We have a scarcity of housing, especially for our elderly and our poor. We have rising taxes and a shrinking tax base. But there is no sense of defeat in this city.

Boston is alive. Boston is fundamentally healthy. And with a little help from our friends, we are going to make Boston as desirable a place to live and work as any in the metropolitan region.

The Metropolitan Concept

You are here to discuss that region. You are here to talk about the "real city" which crosses municipal and even state lines. You are here to think about a community which does not divide the world into two parts—urban and suburban.

I would like to congratulate you for bringing the concept of the "real city" to public attention. You are helping to provide a new understanding of metropolitan settlements. You are performing an educational role, and I deeply believe that that is one of the most important roles public officials and community leaders can perform.

I would like to mention that the "real city" is not an entirely new concept in this part of the country. Three years ago we convened a "Council of Governments" Conference. Mayors, business leaders, and academics from all of Greater Boston came together at that time to discuss the common concerns of the region. They formed task forces to try to better understand such area-wide problems as housing, transportation, and local finance.

Together, we tried to find ways to work together which would still allow the cities and towns to keep their jealously-guarded sovereignty.

One of the things we learned from that conference was that it will be a long, slow job to develop adequate mechanisms to coordinate the activities of the various cities and towns. We were aware then, and we are more aware now, that such super agencies as the MDC, the MBTA, and the Port Authority are far from ideal models.

But difficulties and past failure should not discourage us. Our "Council of Governments" Conference and conferences such as this one point the way to the future. I can say to you very sincerely that I am committed to the metropolitan concept. I have endorsed it and worked for it in the past. I will endorse it and work for it in the future.

Problems

But we can't allow ourselves to be utopians. We can't say, "Cooperation is the answer," and then delude ourselves into thinking we have solved the problem. We have to be very hard-headed. We have to be very realistic. We have to talk to each other with a kind of honesty that may hurt.

The Suburbs

The conventional wisdom says that a family can move to the suburbs and leave the problems of the city behind. I would call that the "suburban syndrome." It is an illusion that is still alive. It may stay alive for another five years or ten years or maybe even fifteen years. But it is an illusion.

The suburbs have the same drug problem the cities do. They are beginning to have the same problems of pollution. The tax squeeze is catching up with them, just as it has with us. They have the crime and vandalism they thought they had left behind.

I will risk making a prediction. I will predict that in five years or ten years or even fifteen years the suburbs are going to realize that there are no walls that can shut out social problems. They are going to realize that what affects the part also must affect the whole.

But so long as the suburbs hold onto the illusion that our pressing social problems are the city's problems, they are not going to respond to calls for metropolitan cooperation. Nor will the incentive of federal grant monies suddenly change their minds. They are still affluent enough and insulated enough to think that they don't have the problems and can get along without the money. In fact, many suburbanites imagine that the problems go with the money.

The Greater Problem

But I don't want to make whipping boys of our suburban neighbors. This is certainly not a time for back-biting. I do not believe the urban-suburban split is the most serious problem we have to face. Even if I and the Mayors of Milton and Wellesley and Concord were all men of saintly goodwill and as much in harmony as a chorus line, we would still be a long way from the ideal of a metropolitan community.

Why?

Because the heart of our dilemma is fiscal. And fiscal reform lies out of our own hands. If there is ever to be such a thing as a functional metropolitan unit, we must have fiscal integrity. And for the towns and cities of the metropolitan region to have fiscal integrity, there must be tax reform at the state level and meaningful revenue sharing on the federal level.

Let me put this in a very concise form: the fiscal base of all the towns and cities in our "real city" is inadequate to their needs and unjust in terms of their economic productivity.

The Fiscal Question

Let me tell you something that may surprise you. Let me tell you something that contradicts the conventional wisdom. The core cities are often said to be on their last legs. They are said to be economically dying.

This is false. It is especially false in the case of Boston. To paraphrase Mark Twain, "The news of our death has been greatly exaggerated."

With less than one fourth of the metropolitan area population, the smallest ratio in the country, Boston accounts for one out of every two jobs in the metropolitan region. Boston accounts for one half of all the goods and services produced in the metropolitan region. And our production of goods and services rose by 40 percent in the last decade.

It is true, however, that we have shifted from a seaport and manufacturing economy to an economy based on the production of high-quality services. This fact has had serious fiscal consequences. We are limited to the property tax for our revenues, and banks and insurance companies are labor intensive rather than capital intensive. They simply do not produce the revenues, through the property tax, that the old industries did.

Instead, they generate vast amounts of corporate, personal, and sales tax revenues which flow to the state and federal governments. Thus, we get very little return from our own increasing productivity. We are like starving farmers who year after year must watch their bumper crops carried away for somebody else's dinner table.

Let me express this in some very dramatic figures. Over the past ten years, growth in the Metropolitan Boston economy has provided a $2 billion increment in the tax yield which has gone to the state and federal governments. Yet during the same period, the cities and towns have gotten back only about $100,000,000—a ratio of 20 to 1.

Secretary Romney has said, "... The basic solution to the city's problems must begin with the acceptance of responsibility by those who live off the city, who benefit from its commerce, who enjoy its conveniences and unique facilities." He had in mind, I believe, the typical suburban commuter. But what we suffer because of suburban commuters and suburban communities is a drop in the bucket compared with the vast tax rake-off of the state and federal governments.

Metropolitan cooperation depends on a partnership of the strong. It cannot be a shotgun marriage between reluctant and declining affluence on one hand and desperate poverty on the other.

And what I want to emphasize today is that even the core city is not desperately poor—in reality we are an economic dynamo asking only for the chance to tap our own resources.

We do not want a handout. We are not beggars. But we are demanding a fair share of our own immense productivity. On the state level, give us tax reform; on the federal level, give us equitable revenue sharing, and then we will be on our way to a true metropolitan cooperation.

What do we need, then, to make the "real city" an administrative reality as well as a theoretical concept? We need basically two things: first, recognition on the part of the suburbs that they already share or soon will share most of the urgent social and environmental problems of the day, and second, a massive fiscal restructuring which will allow the cities and towns to deal effectively with common problems once they are recognized.

As you meet during these two days, I hope you will keep these things in your minds. I hope you will recognize how difficult they are both going to be. But unless we address ourselves to them, metropolitan cooperation will amount to little more than a wishful hope.

Thank you.

JOSEPH M. HEIRTY RETIRES

Joseph M. Heirty, a leading boxing authority in New England, retired in December 1971, as senior coordinator of boxing for the Boston Parks and Recreation Department. Mr. Heirty was a leader in the Boston Parks and Recreation movement for forty-five years and is credited with developing some of the great boxing talents (two world champions and a number of New England champions) through the Parks and Recreation instructional classes and tournaments. Typical of his preaching on the subject of the importance of boxing as a recreational activity is when he says, "A boy who can take care of himself in the art of self-defense is not likely to use weapons like guns and knives."

Mr. Heirty has been for a number of years a Massachusetts Certified Boxing Judge. He is Chief Ranger of St. Augustine Court, a past president of the Veterans' Boxing Association, and president of Degree Staff of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters. He has been active as a consultant in recreation, formerly served as president of the South Boston Citizens Association Recreation Committee and is still an active member of the Massachusetts Recreation Association. He resides at 241 L Street in South Boston. We wish him a happy retirement.

LIFESAVING COURSES

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department has announced that new classes began February 1, in Red Cross lifesaving courses.

The courses will be held on Tuesdays from 5 P.M. to 7 P.M. in the Curtis Hall Municipal Building, South Street, Jamaica Plain.

These instructions are open free of charge to all Boston residents and require only that participants bring proper bathing and shower attire.

CENTRAL LIBRARY PRESENTS NOTED AUTHOR

Dorothy Sterling, noted author of books on black history, will speak to the Never Too Late Group of Boston's Central Library on Thursday, February 10, at 2 P.M. Mrs. Sterling, a white author who has been active in the NAACP, became aware early in her writing career of the rich heritage of black history which was unknown to the general public. Although her books are written for young adults, they also have a value for and appeal to older readers because of the extensive research which gives authority to the writings and the human quality of the subjects portrayed so vividly by Mrs. Sterling.

Through her books, Mrs. Sterling has dramatically conveyed the remarkable courage and spirit of the black people. Freedom Train (1954) re-creates the story of Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad. Captain of the Planter (1958) is a biography of Robert Smalls, a black Member of Congress in Reconstruction days. Lift Every Voice (1965) offers portraits of four black leaders: Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois, Mary Church Terrell, and James Weldon Johnson. Tear Down the Walls (1968) recounts the history of the Civil Rights Movement. The Making of an Afro-American (1971) tells of Martin Robison Delany, Boston-born black physician who was the first black major in the Civil War and became a judge in South Carolina.

All adults and young adults are invited to join Group members at the special meeting which has been planned as part of the Library's February observance of Black History Month. Admittance at the program is free of charge.

CANADA VISITS BOSTON

The Consul General of Canada in Boston and Mrs. F. X. Houde hosted the official opening of the exhibition "Canada Visits Boston" at Boston City Hall Gallery on January 27. The exhibition, consisting of two major exhibits presented by the Government of Canada, Department of External Affairs, and the Province of New Brunswick, is currently open to the public at City Hall Gallery through February 23.

The first exhibit, presented by the Canadian Government, is a three-dimensional photographic essay on the Canadian Houses of Parliament, shown together with a selection of films on Canada. This is the premiere showing of the exhibit, which, following its presentation here, will be shown in major cities across the United States.

The second part of the exhibition, presented by the Province of New Brunswick, is an exhibit of paintings by the well-known Canadian contemporary artist, Tom Forrestall. Mr. Forrestall's paintings have gained acclaim in Canada and abroad for their "magic realism" presented in unusual shapes, a deliberately complex and uncommon format exploring the reality of surface. An exhibition of his works, appropriately entitled "Shapes," is currently on tour of the major art galleries across Canada.

Participating in the opening were two Members of Parliament of the Canadian Government, Mr. Michael Forrestall and Mr. Keith MacQuarrie, Mayor Kevin White, the artist, Mr. Tom Forrestall, and Mr. Bobby Orr of the Boston Bruins.

The exhibition is open to the public Monday through Friday from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. and on Saturday from 10:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M., admission free.

CHARLESTOWN GIRL CHOSEN AS LITTLE MISS HEART FUND

Patricia Ann Reilly, 6, has been chosen to serve as 1972 Little Miss Heart Fund in Massachusetts. Patricia, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James E. Reilly of Charlestown, was born with a heart defect which was repaired through surgery developed with Heart Fund-aided research.

Patricia now attends kindergarten and finds that she can easily match the activity level of her friends and classmates.

Throughout February, which is Heart Fund Month, Patricia will appear on television and radio, preside at functions, and serve as a symbol of the 1972 Massachusetts Heart Fund drive.

The Heart Association feels Patricia is a particularly apt choice to serve as Little Miss Heart Fund. She is a happy and energetic child who embodies what Heart Fund dollars can do through heart research.

REMEMBER THIS ADDRESS?

The Gettysburg Address was delivered by President Abraham Lincoln at the dedication of the National Cemetery on Gettysburg Battlefield, November 19, 1863. It is a masterpiece of literature. President Lincoln, our sixteenth president, was born February 12, 1809, and died April 15, 1865.

Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work they have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honoured dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that the dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Administrator.

Under the terms of said contract the Boston Model Neighborhood Board, Inc., shall continue to undertake a school community communications project for the purpose of developing informal groups of parents and community residents to work in cooperation with school personnel for the improvement of the education of the children who live in the Model Neighborhood.

Said contract shall be effective from August 1, 1971, through July 31, 1972.

CITIZEN EDUCATION SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

The Model City Administration requests your approval to award a contract to the Boston Model Neighborhood Board, Inc., 333 Dudley Street, Roxbury, Mass., for citizen education services in an amount not to exceed one hundred forty-seven thousand four hundred sixty-two dollars ($147,462) in the aggregate.

SERVICES TO HIGHLAND PARK FREE SCHOOL

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your permission to award a contract for services to the Highland Park Free School, 42 Hawthorne Street, Roxbury, Mass. The contract, in an amount not to exceed twenty-one thousand five hundred fifty-five dollars ($21,555), will be effective from November 3, 1971, through July 31, 1972.

Building Code violations in a part of the facility previously used by the school necessitates the transfer of forty-five children to interim space at the former Boston Business School, 220 Warren Street. The school will be able to continue the rest of its educational programs at its existing site, 42 Hawthorne Street, Roxbury, but must renovate its cafeteria in order to meet minimum Building Code and Public Safety requirements. This contract will enable the school to carry out the emergency move of the forty-five children to the interim site and will provide the funds necessary to complete the required renovation of the cafeteria. In addition, the contract will provide funds for an in-depth study of the school's facility needs. The study will evaluate the school's existing physical plant and will set forth the alternatives for a long-term solution of the school's facility problems.

The Highland Park Free School is an exceptional demonstration of educational methods serving children in the Boston Model Neighborhood. Since the school is unique in the Model Neighborhood, there would be no purpose served by advertising for public bids. We request, therefore, that the award of this contract be dispensed from public bidding requirements.

Sincerely,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

SOCIAL SERVICES PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your permission to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed nine thousand dollars ($9,000) to the Young Women's Leadership Development Program, Inc. (YWLDP), 80 Dudley Street, Roxbury, Mass. The contract will be effective during the period from November 1, 1971, through May 30, 1972.

The contract is for the development of final program plans, the establishment of permanent funding sources, and the initial implementation of a 24-hour residence and social services program for Model City girls. In accordance with the terms of the prior contract between the city and the YWLDP in the amount of $30,000, substantial progress has been made in establishing the financial and programmatic underpinnings that are critical to the long-term success of the program. The prior contract expired on July 31, 1971. This new contract for nine thousand dollars will enable the necessary planning and program development work to be completed.

The YWLDP program is to be carried out at the old Boys' Club building located at 80 Dudley Street, Roxbury, which will soon be renovated pursuant to a separate contract between the city, the YWLDP, and the Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc. The design work for the project will soon be completed and we expect the renovation work will be finished in early spring, 1972.

The YWLDP program is specially designed to meet the needs of area girls. The program includes organized recreational activities, courses in leadership development, employment referrals, vocational crafts training, counseling, tutorial and reading instruction. Since this program is unique in the Model Neighborhood, there would be no purpose served by advertising for public bids. We therefore request that the award of this contract be dispensed from public bidding requirements.

Sincerely,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

LEASE OF PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I refer to my letter to you dated May 7, 1971, in which I requested and pursuant to which you granted authority to lease from the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston certain premises located at 12 Bicknell Street in the district of Dorchester. The space was leased for the purpose of operating an interim Model City Family Life Center in sub-area VI.

To meet the requirements of the Model City Family Life Center program, it will be necessary to execute a new lease of these premises for a term beyond the period of extension of nine months which was provided for in the original lease. The original lease, as extended, will expire on April 30, 1972. The initial term of the new lease shall be for three months, from May 1, 1972, to July 31, 1972, with options to extend for additional one-year terms up to a maximum of five years. Under the new lease, the interim Family Life Center program will expand into net usable space that was not included under the original lease. The new lease will cover the entire building and adjacent land at 12 Bicknell Street, containing for the purposes of the Family Life Center program a total of 5,983 square feet of net usable space. Rent will be paid by the city at the rate of $1.25 per year per square foot of net usable space which comes to six hundred twenty-three dollars ($623) per month for each of the months the space is rented or a maximum of $1,869 for the first three-month term.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is believed that public advertising would be of no usefulness in this instance.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

OFFICE OF JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the staff of your Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract to the Tufts New England Community Mental Health Center, in an amount not to exceed $19,869, for the period September 1, 1971, to February 29, 1972.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $21,250 under sections 303 and 304 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by order of the City Council on October 4, 1971.

Under the terms of the contract, the City of Boston will provide additional mental health anchor workers, a research assistant, psychiatrist-consultant, and social worker-consultant to implement one phase of a comprehensive delinquency prevention program developed for South Boston by the Tufts New England Community Mental Health Center.

At the heart of the program will be the anchor workers: combination social workers, child advocates, big brothers, and parent surrogates. They will work not only with the boys assigned to them, but also with their families, teachers, and community agencies, to address the individual problems of each child and the institutional failures which reinforce these problems.

Because of the unique nature of the program and the corporation's proven ability to operate programs in that community it is respectfully requested that public bidding be dispensed with.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE,
Executive Director.

RESIDENTIAL YOUTH CENTER

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the staff of your Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract to D.A.R.E., Inc. in an amount not to exceed $46,750 for the period September 1, 1971, to August 31, 1972.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a continuation grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $50,000 under sections 303 and 304 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by order of the City Council on October 4, 1971.

Under the terms of the contract, the City of Boston will continue for one year the partial support of a community residential youth center at 955 Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester.

This residence provides living space and counselling for an average of ten youths (approximately thirty in one year) as an alternative to incarceration for youths between the ages of 16 and 21 who have been involved with the courts and for those who without residential care and counselling exhibit high potential for becoming involved with the courts. Referrals to the center will come from the Department of Youth Services, Division of Child Guardianship, private agencies throughout the city, and emergency housing if necessary.

Funds requested under this grant will be used primarily to cover salaries of the staff director and three counsellors who work with the youths, families of the youths, and neighborhood agencies in a coordinated effort to meet the special needs of the residents with primary emphasis on education and job development. The center will provide supportive services for medical, dental, mental health, and legal needs, and innovative recreational, social, and cultural enrichment opportunities in which the youths may participate.

Because of the unique nature of the program and the corporation's proven ability to operate programs in that community, it is respectfully requested that public bidding be dispensed with.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE,
Executive Director.

MEDICAL TREATMENT FOR CERTAIN CHILDREN

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the staff of your Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract to the Children's Hospital Medical Center, in an amount not to exceed $25,000 for the period October 1, 1971, to September 30, 1972.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $25,000 under sections 303 and 304 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351). The grant was accepted by the order of the City Council on December 7, 1970.

Under the terms of the contract, the Children's Hospital Medical Center will be obligated to diagnose and treat childhood development disorders which seem to be associated in certain children with the development of aggression. The primary focus will be on the syndrome of child abuse, the victims of which appear increasingly to be subject to an early integration of violence as a way of dealing with the stresses of life.

The Children's Hospital Medical Center is fully capable of conducting such a program and is uniquely qualified to assist your staff in the task mentioned above.

In view of the professional services required to perform the terms of this contract, it is believed that public advertising is not advisable.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE,
Executive Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

SKI PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record in awarding to "Brighter Day," a charitable organization directed by Mr. Christopher Moore, to institute a S.K.I.S. program (a Start for Kids in Skiing). This program will involve approximately 500 youngsters in the City of Boston in a unique learn-to-ski program. Mr. Moore, as director of "Brighter Day," has $150,000 worth of new ski equipment to be used by the youth of Boston in this ski program. The contract will be effective November 1, 1971, to March 1, 1972, at a total cost not to exceed $3,000. Mr. Moore will be paid at a monthly rate of $750 for a period of four (4) months which is to be charged to Parks and Recreation Department Budget 1-11-41 (29), Miscellaneous Contractual Services.

The services to be provided by Christopher Moore as Director of "Brighter Day" will include organization of a city-wide skiing program for approximately 500 children, ages 8 through 16.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be furnished, no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Yours truly,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

FOOTBALL INSTRUCTIONS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record in awarding to Mr. James Hunt, 55 Pasadena Road, Dorchester, Mass., a contract for a series of instructional sessions for the youth of Boston in modern football techniques and sportsmanship as exemplified by professional athletes. He will also institute a program of cosponsorship of athletic programs between private corporations and the Parks and Recreation Department. This contract will be effective from November 15, 1971, to February 15, 1972, at a total cost not to exceed $3,000. Mr. Hunt will be paid at a monthly rate of $1,000 for a period of three (3) months which is to be charged to Parks and Recreation Department Budget 1-11-41 (29), Miscellaneous Contractual Services.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be furnished, no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Yours truly,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

ARCHITECTS' SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the firm of Storch Associates, with local offices at 150 Causeway Street, Boston, Mass., as architects for the preparation of plans and specifications and for the supervision of construction of improvements, landscaping, and beautification to various park facilities in conformity with the department's Legacy of Parks Program at a construction cost of $1,106,400.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in the award of this contract. The architect's basic fee, taken from the Percentage Fee Schedule, Group II, of the American Society of Landscape Architects, 1964 recommended schedule of minimum rates, and based upon the average estimated cost of construction of the twelve sub-construction contracts included in the Legacy of Parks Program, shall be 8.5 percent of said estimated construction, landscape, and beautification cost. In no event shall the maximum liability of the city under the terms of the proposed contract as of the date of its execution, including presently estimated expenditures of $44,256 for supplementary services by the architect, exceed in the aggregate the sum of $138,300.

As the proposed contract is to be one for the performance of professional services, a public solicitation for bids therefor would serve no useful purpose. The contract will be charged to Appropriation 6-61-44.

For further information, the cost of architect's fee and monies expended for supplementary services are eligible activities under the Legacy of Parks Program, and the city will receive grant assistance for such expenditures.

Respectfully yours,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

RENTAL OF PARKING SPACES AT UNDER-COMMON GARAGE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request permission for the Boston Police Department to enter into a written lease with the Massachusetts Parking Authority without publicly advertising for bids. The purpose of the lease is to utilize the "convenient" facilities of the Boston Under-Common Garage for police-towing operations. Section 2 of chapter 263 of the Acts of 1929, as amended, directs that all towed vehicles be removed "to some convenient place."

The lease will cover the rental of twenty-four (24) car spaces at the Boston Under-Common Garage where the Boston Police Department, on their own initiative, will tow the cars of the more flagrant violators of the traffic laws. The City of Boston will pay to the Massachusetts Parking Authority a monthly rental of $816, namely $34 for each of the twenty-four (24) car spaces per month, plus $1 per day for each car stored on the premises.

The Boston Police Department will issue a parking ticket for each car towed; also collect a tow fee of $8 per car towed; and further collect storage fees at the current Off-Street Parking rate, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 474 of the Acts of 1946.

This lease is to be in effect for the period from April 1, 1971, through March 31, 1972, with a sixty-day cancellation clause.

A lease is presently in effect for the prior term between April 1, 1970, and March 31, 1971.

Respectfully,
EDMUND L. McNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

CONSULTANT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Boston Police Department received a grant of $350,000 from 1970 Action Funds from the Safe Streets Act, the purpose of which was to carry on work in its records, communications, information, resource allocation, and command and control systems. Recently the department received a follow-on grant of $590,000 to continue developmental work in these areas.

Included in these grants is the provision for engaging consultant services in highly specialized technical areas in which the department does not have sufficient in-house talents. During the last year, with your authorization, I entered into two contracts with Urban Sciences, Inc., to provide consultant services in areas related to command and control, communications computer system development, and resource allocation. Urban Sciences, Inc., performed in an excellent and most professional manner, and work which they performed is already producing great benefits to our department.

Because of its previous experience, the background of its personnel and its excellent performance and the knowledge gained on our previous contract, Urban Sciences, Inc., is uniquely and singularly qualified to provide additional consultant services to the Police Department in our continuing project to improve our communications, command and control, computer, and information systems.

As Urban Sciences, Inc., is exceptionally qualified to provide the consultant services necessitated in this project, I believe that it would be in the best interest of the City of Boston and its Police Department to dispense with the usual advertising and bidding and to enter into a contract with Urban Sciences, Inc., of Wellesley, Mass., in the amount of $149,913, to provide the required consultant services, funds for which will come entirely from the above federal grants.

I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authorization so to do.

Respectfully,
EDMUND L. McNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

HUMAN RELATIONS PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Police Department has received a grant in the amount of $91,400 from 1970 Action Funds from the Safe Streets Act to expand the department's In-Service Training Programs. This grant has been previously accepted by the City Council and approved by you.

Among the areas covered by this grant's funding is the undertaking of a specialized human relations program for selected officers of this department.

With the guidance of my staff, New England Institute, 673 Boylston Street, Boston, has developed an innovative program that consists of fourteen sessions (56 hours) of human relations training specifically designed to meet the current-day needs of urban police officers in their daily confrontations with all elements of the social strata. The tuition for this course will be $260 per officer, and we will send forty selected officers to the course for a total cost of $10,400. Funds for this course are available from the above-noted Safe Streets Act grant for in-service training, and the use of funds for this course has been approved by the Governor's Committee on Law Enforcement.

Since federal grant funds are available, and since this program offers a unique and valuable opportunity to continue to improve the human relations awareness of our officers, your permission is respectfully requested to directly enter into a contract with the New England Institute in the amount of $10,400 without the usual advertising and bidding.

Respectfully,
EDMUND L. McNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT
LEASING CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for School Department purposes from the Boys' Club of Boston, Inc.

The premises to be included in the proposed lease are the swimming pool, one classroom, library, and gymnasium attached to the South Boston Boys' Club, 230 West Sixth Street, South Boston, Mass. The term of the lease shall be from September 1, 1971, through March 31, 1972, from 9:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. for use of special class students of the Patrick F. Gavin School. The rent is to be paid at the rate of $1,000 per month, not exceeding $7,000.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would be useful here.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

STUDY AND ANALYSIS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission of the City of Boston has just authorized the undersigned, to request, in its name and on its behalf, of your Honor, executive permission to dispense with the statutory requirements of advertising for proposals in the City Record in awarding to Coetti Brothers, Inc., Architects, 10 Industrial Park Road, Hingham, Mass., a contract to provide (a) a feasibility and space needs study, schematic drawings, and detailed cost estimates for expansion of facilities for Roslindale High School and (b) an analysis of facilities at the Washington Irving Junior High School, at a cost for such services of not to exceed $50,000; and to authorize the Director to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

In the event that another contract is awarded to the aforementioned architectural firm, following the authorization therefor your Honor, for full design development of this project, the City of Boston would receive a credit of $20,000 from the full contract fee paid the architect under the subject contract.

For the acquisition of the services such as those under construction, namely professional services, using the medium of public advertising for competitive bids therefor would not necessarily assure the procurement of skilled, experienced, and competent professionals.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ARCHITECTS' SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On Wednesday, November 24, 1971, the Public Facilities Commission authorized its executive officer, to request in its name and on its behalf, of your Honor, as I now do, permission to dispense with a public solicitation for competitive bids in the City Record, in awarding to Gerard Michael Kallman, Noel Michael McKinnell and Henry Wood, partners doing business as Kallman and McKinnell, Architects, of 127 Tremont Street, Boston, a contract to prepare schematic designs, design development drawings, and basic outline specifications and construction cost estimates for use in the construction of a branch library in the Roxbury Civic Center of Washington Park Urban Renewal Project of the City of Boston, at a cost for such services of $22,120, less $1,750 previously paid Hoyle, Doran, and Berry and Kallman and McKinnell, joint venturers doing business as Roxbury Civic Center Architects under a contract to locate at the aforementioned site a court house, police station, and branch library, the cost of the now proposed services not to exceed $30,370 (including supplementary services costing not in excess of $10,000); and to authorize the Director to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of the said written authority from the Mayor.

At a subsequent date, it is contemplated that a second contract shall be awarded the aforementioned partnership, following your Honor's approval at that time, to provide for preparation of the working drawings, detailed specifications, and supervision of construction. The fee for the projected second contract would be taken from the A.I.A. 1967 recommended schedule of minimum "B" rates, as calculated and based on the construction cost estimate less the $20,370 fee to be paid under the contract now proposed and also less $3,250 previously paid Roxbury Civic Center Architects.

The subject services are very definitely in the professional category and for that reason it is the considered judgement of the Board that a public solicitation for proposals would not be in the best interest of the city.

Respectfully,
ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT
ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development has recently approved a code enforcement grant for public improvement projects in the Egleston Square and Mt. Bowdoin-Codman Square areas of Boston. The grant contract authorizes expenditures for improving Public Works (including street lighting), Traffic and Parking, Parks and Recreation, Fire, and Police Departments facilities in each of the areas with the stipulation that all improvements must be constructed and in place by September 24, 1972.

The engineering firm of Fay, Spofford & Thorndike, Inc., has done a very satisfactory job of handling similar engineering and coordination for public improvements in our 1970-1971 code-enforcement programs. They are thoroughly familiar with the requirements and procedures set forth by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and they have the full confidence of the City of Boston Housing Inspection Department, which is the local public agency. It is my opinion that they are especially qualified to continue on with this similar work as required in our 1972 Code Enforcement Program.

Therefore, in order to insure the success of our 1972 Community Public Improvements Programs for Egleston Square and Mt. Bowdoin-Codman Square, I respectfully request your Honor's approval to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Fay, Spofford & Thorndike, Inc., 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. The contract to provide professional engineering services for the design and preparation of plans, specifications, contract documents, and designated supplementary services required for reconstruction of streets and the installation of improved street lighting, traffic signals, fire alarm signals, police signals, and park facilities in the Eggleston Square and Mt. Bowdoin-Codman Square Code Enforcement Areas. The contract to have a time limit of one year from the date of your approval and to be for an amount not to exceed $75,000.

Payment for engineering services would be at the engineer's billing rates for various grades of technical personnel with the provision that the monthly billings under rates per hour would not exceed the engineer's direct payroll for said personnel multiplied by a factor of 2.30. In addition, such items as survey work, borings, or any other necessary similar related work performed by companies engaged by the engineer would be paid for directly as "out of pocket" expenses.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REMOVING SNOW

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This department publicly advertised in the City Record for "Removing Snow and Furnishing labor and equipment for the purpose of supplementing the department forces and equipment in connection with the work of keeping highways and streets open following snowstorms" in all districts of the city, on September 16, 1971.

There were no bids received in Area 1, District 10B.

I have negotiated with the Jet-A-Way Trucking, Inc., to perform the work in this district. They have agreed to enter into a contract for doing the work at prices I consider reasonable.

Accordingly, I request your approval to dispense with further public advertising and award a contract to Jet-A-Way Trucking, Inc., of 32 West Tremlett Street, Dorchester, Mass., to perform the work in District 10B at an estimated cost of $15,000.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT UNIFORM AND MOP SERVICE

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record in awarding a contract to Federal National Linen Service Company, of 40 Brighton Street, Charlestown, for uniform and mop service for personnel at the Real Property Department for the period April 1, 1971, through December 31, 1971, at a total cost not to exceed four thousand dollars ($4,000).

This firm's rates are reasonable and fair, and the firm is charging the same rates for comparable work in the Traffic and Parking Department, and the firm has performed this work in the past in a capable manner.

In view of the foregoing, it is my opinion that public solicitation of bids would serve no useful purpose.

Yours truly,

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner.

REMOVAL OF RUBBISH

YOUR HONOR:

I respectfully request your written authority to award a contract to James A. Freaney, Inc., of 1 West Street, Hyde Park, Mass., for the use of 30-yard compactor box and the weekly removal of rubbish from box at loading dock at New City Hall, Boston, Mass., for the period of April 1, 1971, to December 31, 1971, at a cost not to exceed five thousand six hundred dollars ($5,600).

The Freaney firm is well experienced and has the capability of performing the work in an efficient manner and has done this service for the city in the past. I believe the price to be fair and reasonable.

I feel that the best interests of the city will be served with stimulated competitive bidding wherever possible.

Yours truly,

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner.

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

Mayor Protests Taking of Taxable Property

The following letter was sent by Mayor Kevin H. White to Senator Brooke on February 1:

Hon. Edward W. Brooke,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C. 20510

DEAR SENATOR BROOKE:

The Administration has made another raid on the taxable property of the City of Boston. Several months ago, it took a housing development in the Stony Brook Reservation for the Coast Guard. This time, it is taking 6.321 acres of land on Dorchester Avenue, South Boston — the site of the soon-to-be-completed South Postal Annex addition.

I, of course, recognize the eminent domain powers of the United States. Nevertheless, as you will see from the following "Chronology of Events," in 1967 the Postal authorities made a commitment to keep the property in question on the tax rolls. Please note that this is the second time in the past eleven years that the government has taken the same property. Please note, too, that the declaration of taking by the United States Postal Service on December 22, 1971, comes just sixteen days after the lease was executed.

I hope you will be in a position to discuss the matter with the appropriate authorities to the end that we retain the tax revenue. The taxes for the current year alone are approximately $700,000. Conceivably, due to the reorganization of the Post Office Department, the present Administration is not aware of the prior commitment. If you need documentation of any of the items listed in the "Chronology of Events," I will be happy to furnish them to you. In order that you be aware of the protective steps we are taking in the Federal District Court, I enclose a copy of our answer objecting to the taking.

Sincerely,
KEVIN H. WHITE,
Mayor.

LABANARA FUND DINNER

The John J. Labanara Scholarship Fund will sponsor a $25-a-plate dinner, Monday, February 28, at the John B. Hynes Civic Auditorium, Prudential Center, Boston. Mayor Kevin H. White is honorary chairman of the dinner which starts at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Labanara, an aide to Mayor White, died last October 20, the victim of a senseless killing, on the same day that he had received the news that he had passed the Massachusetts Bar Examination. He was 26.

"The impact of John's untimely death on his friends has inspired them to create from the tragedy a lasting force for good in the community," Mayor White said. "To achieve this goal, the John J. Labanara Scholarship Fund has been established, and proceeds from the dinner will be used to provide financial aid to students in the Greater Boston area."

Tickets may be obtained from the Scholarship Fund office, 10 Faneuil Hall Square, Boston, the Belmont Herald, 19 Flett Road (John was a native of Belmont) or by writing John J. Labanara Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 8972, Boston, Mass. 02114. The telephone number is 742-5172.

The cast of "Godspell" will entertain during the evening. A fitting tribute to the memory of this exceptionally fine young man, would be to honor him by your attendance at the dinner. Please order your tickets early.

January 26, 1967: Application for building permit denied. Zone code violations identified.

February 3, 1967: United States Post Office Department, acting through its architects, appealed to Board of Appeals and asked for a variance. As a ground therefor, stated that the South Postal Annex office addition will be a facility leased to the United States Post Office Department by an owner then unknown; will be occupied by the Post Office Department for a minimum of 20 years under a lease-back. Further, that the structure is necessary for the proper handling of mail in the Boston area and moreover real estate taxes will be paid on the facility.

March 6, 1967: Letter in behalf of Amos J. Coffman, acting Assistant Postmaster General, to Building Commissioner in support of appeal described the proposed construction and assured the city that the building will be a privately-owned facility with the lessor being required to pay local real estate taxes.

March 9, 1967: Pederson and Tilney, architects, sent letter to Building Commissioner in support of Commission's appeal assuring inter alia that the building will go on the tax rolls of the City of Boston.

March 29, 1967: Board of Appeal's decision granted the variance requested upon following conditions:

"That when the sale of this property is consummated, real estate taxes must be paid to the City of Boston on this property, and any owner or lessee must continue to pay real estate taxes on this property, and if real estate taxes are not paid, this decision will be null and void."

United States District Court
Civil Action No. 71-3158-C

United States of America, plaintiff v. 6.321 Acres of Land, More or Less, Situated in Suffolk County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and Olaf Knudsen, et al., Defendants.

Answer of Defendant, City of Boston

Now comes the City of Boston, a defendant herein and for answer and objection to the petition of the United States of America, brought at the request of the Postmaster General of the United States Postal Service says:

First, that it is a municipal corporation duly organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and for the purposes of imposing real estate taxes and assessments, has an interest in the property described in the complaint.

Second, that in March, 1967, while the plaintiff was the owner of the property described in the complaint by virtue of a prior taking by eminent domain (Case No. 59-941-F), the United States Postal Department, an agency of the plaintiff, assured the defendant City of Boston, that the property in question would be sold to and thereafter remain in, private ownership and leased to the United States Postal Department on an annual rental basis for a period of thirty years and that by virtue thereof, the owner would be required to pay local real estate taxes, that in view of all of the foregoing, this defendant objects to the taking unless the order of taking is made conditional on this defendant continuing to receive payment of the real estate taxes based on assessed value or payments in lieu of taxes for the thirty-year period hereinbefore noted.

Third, that by instrument entitled "United States Postal Service Lease" dated December 6, 1971—only sixteen days prior to the plaintiff's declaration of taking dated December 22, 1971—Olaf Knudsen, the owner of the property described in the complaint leased the said property to the plaintiff for a term of thirty years beginning November 1, 1971, at an annual rental of $1,792,476; that under the terms of the aforesaid lease, the plaintiff agreed to pay as additional rent the real estate taxes thereon; that in view of the foregoing, this defendant objects to the taking unless the order of taking is made conditional on this defendant continuing to receive payment of the real estate taxes based on assessed value or payments in lieu of taxes for the thirty-year term of the lease.

Fourth, that this defendant denies that the use for which this taking was made is a public use and therefore objects to the taking.

CITY OF BOSTON,

Corporation Counsel.

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

MAYOR URGES ESTABLISHMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION DEPT.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith and recommend adoption of an ordinance establishing the Environmental Protection Department.

The accompanying ordinance is a revision of the ordinance approved by your Honorable Body on December 20, 1971. It has been redrafted to confer upon the new department all of the powers and duties which are necessary to the establishment of an effective city environmental agency, and to correct the technical deficiencies which were contained in the previous ordinance which I returned without my signature and disapproved on January 13, 1972.

We share a common objective — an increased emphasis on, and effort to ensure, the best achievable environment for our city and its people. We seek a clear definition of responsibilities, coordination of all environmental protection activities, an ability to prevent damage to our environment, and a forum for an environmental review of projects and proposals which will have a significant environmental impact. We need to maintain our present momentum in improving the environmental quality of our city, to increase citizen participation in this process, and to address ourselves to heretofore neglected concerns.

Our people want, need, and shall have cleaner air and water and less noise. They must be protected from the improper use of pesticides, and from poorly located, designed, or operated facilities for disposing of solid wastes. City workers should be assured they are protected from unhealthy conditions in their workplaces, so far as that can be assured. The City of Boston has an obligation to do all it can, in concert with state and federal authorities and citizen groups. The city has already established an effective air pollution and noise abatement agency, and I propose to build on that strong foundation to restrain further environmental damages and to enhance the environmental quality of the city.

Accordingly, in the accompanying ordinance I propose the creation of a new Environmental Protection Department. The functions of the present Air Pollution Control Commission to regulate and control air and noise pollution will be transferred to the new department. The powers and duties now conferred on the Board of Health and Hospitals by various sections of chapter 111 of the General Laws with respect to the assignment of sites for the establishment or operation of refuse treatment and disposal facilities and the control of nuisances will also be transferred to the new department. In addition, for the first time a city department will be given specific jurisdiction to regulate and control water pollution and the use and disposal of pesticides, and to investigate and make recommendations concerning the exposure of city employees to occupational hazards.

The Environmental Protection Department will be headed by a Commissioner of Environmental Protection. In the exercise of his jurisdiction the commissioner will have authority to establish standards for environmental quality, to adopt environmental regulations, to require the registration of sources of environmental contamination and the procurement of permits therefor, to enforce the regulations by bringing suit in the name and on behalf of the city pursuant to section 10A of chapter 214 of the General Laws, to review projects of other city departments which may have a significant environmental impact, and to act as a clearinghouse for the preparation of environmental impact statements.

The accompanying ordinance also proposes the creation of a five-member Environmental Council, to be headed by the Commissioner of Environmental Protection and additionally composed of the Commissioner of Health and Hospitals and three appointed members. The council's duties will include the approval of environmental quality standards and regulations adopted by the Commissioner of Environmental Protection, and the making of studies and recommendations with respect to the environmental quality of the city.

The ordinance I propose relies heavily upon the comments and criticisms of the late William H. Kerr. It will be the last measure presented to your Honorable Body which has been directly influenced by this remarkable man and devoted public servant, and I take this opportunity again to pay tribute to his extraordinary talents, loyalty, and service to his city.

I urge your favorable action on this important ordinance.

Respectfully,

KEVIN H. WHITE,
Mayor.

MBTA APPROVES CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT

The MBTA Board of Directors, on February 2, approved the execution of a contract with the joint venture of New England Equipment Rental Corporation and the J. F. White Contracting Company of Newton for construction work on the Authority's new South Bay maintenance center in South Boston.

nance facility and a 200-bus capacity garage is expected to be completed in about ten months at an estimated cost of $1,986,999. Funding for this work comes from the Urban Mass Transportation Administration of the United States Department of Transportation with the local one-third share coming from the MBTA's original $225 million bonding authorization.

Removal of all of the old railroad structures and trackwork and rough grading of the site has been completed by earlier contracts. This contract will see the initial site preparation and will include smooth grading, filling, the provision of water, sewer, steam, and electrical services, pavement, sidewalks, and an entrance-exit ramp from West Fourth Street.

The joint venture bid was the lowest bid received from twelve well-known contractors in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

"VALENTINE DAY SWEET-HEART" TO BE SELECTED

Commissioner Joseph E. Curtis announced on February 7 that the Boston Parks and Recreation Department will play host to over 10,000 senior citizens of Boston at fourteen Valentine Day parties to be held city-wide on Monday, February 14, 1972, at 1:30 P.M., with the exception of the party at the West Roxbury YMCA, which was held on February 11, at 10 A.M.

Mr. Robert Cusick, Director of Recreations, advises that all Hub senior citizens are invited to participate in these free holiday festivities. Refreshments and entertainment will be highlights of the parties.

A "Valentine Day Sweetheart" will be selected at each party by popular acclaim and will be suitably honored.

The Valentine Day parties are only one of many "get-togethers" for senior citizens sponsored by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department, year-round. The Valentine Day celebrations will be held at the following locations: Brighton Municipal Building, 20 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Brighton; Charlestown Municipal Building, 112 Bunker Hill Street, Charlestown; St. Kevin's Hall, Columbia Road, Dorchester; Marshall School, 35 Westville Street, Dorchester; Lee School, 155 Talbot Avenue, Dorchester; East Boston Library, 276 Meridian Street, East Boston; Hyde Park Municipal Building, 1179 River Street, Hyde Park; Our Lady of Lourdes Hall, Brookside Avenue, Jamaica Plain; Roslindale Municipal Building, 6 Cummins Highway, Roslindale; Tobin Recreation Center, 1481 Tremont Street, Roxbury; Warren Towers, 280 Martin Luther King Boulevard, Roxbury; M Street Playground Drop-In Center, South Boston; St. Ann's Drop-In Center, corner of Gainsborough and St. Stephen Streets, Back Bay; West Roxbury YMCA, 15 Bellevue Street, West Roxbury.

Prudential Center

Prudential Center, between Huntington Avenue and Boylston Street in the Back Bay section, is Boston's convention center, as well as a unified business, civic, and residential development. The focal point of the 13-building project is the 52-story Prudential Tower, the tallest building in the country outside of New York City; it rises from a reflecting pool spanned by four bridges. Within this complex are fifty-five shops and restaurants. The 31-acre area also features landscaped plazas, covered walkways and statuary.

Prudential Tower Skywalk, on the building's 50th floor, affords a 360-degree panorama of the city and suburbs. Open Monday through Saturday and holidays, 9 A.M. to midnight; Sunday, 1 to 11; admission 75 cents, children 6 through 12, 25 cents, children under 6, free.

VNA CONVOCATION

On March 11, the Visiting Nurse Association of Boston is sponsoring a major Convocation on Health Care.

Principal speaker will be Congressman Wilbur D. Mills, Chairman, Ways and Means Committee, United States House of Representatives.

In 1971, Representative Mills chaired the congressional hearings on pending proposals for a system of federal health insurance and medical care. The bills now are in committee undergoing redraft into a single proposal to be introduced early in 1972 for final consideration by the Congress.

The importance of this legislation to every phase of health care — to all of us in the immediate future — is obvious. The VNA of Boston, therefore, is extending an opportunity to the entire New England medical community and to national VNA directors to hear Representative Mills discuss the forthcoming health care act at the start of deliberations by Congress on this key issue.

The Convocation will be held from two to four o'clock in the main auditorium at Wheelock College, 200 Riverway, Boston. The program will present a perspective statement by Alice M. Dempsey, Boston VNA director. The main topic and speaker will be introduced by Representative James A. Burke of Boston, the only New England member of the Congressional Ways and Means Committee.

BPL ELECTION RESULTS

The election results for the Boston Public Library Staff Association have been announced. Best wishes go to the following members of the Executive Board: President Charles Longley (Periodicals and Newspapers), Vice-President Carol Cox (Connolly Branch), Recording Secretary Joanne Posch (East Boston Branch), Corresponding Secretary Ruth Marshall (Social Sciences),

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Allow only those persons to enter City Hall who have notified the Real Property Department prior to the day they wish admittance for reason of proper city business.

The prior request must be on departmental stationary and signed by the department director or commissioner. No name stamps are acceptable.

Names will be checked by security as the people enter. No others may enter.

Thank you.

ANTHONY E. FORGIONE,
Assistant Commissioner.

MBTA TELEPHONE SERVICE

Joseph C. Kelly, general manager of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) has urged the general public making telephone calls to the Authority to consult the new Boston directory to ascertain the number of the department to be called, rather than calling the Authority's general number.

Mr. Kelly said the new Boston directory, for the first time in many years, lists more than seventy-five numbers under the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority heading through which a caller is given much faster service by dialing direct to the department he wishes to call.

The Authority, he said, spent considerable time and effort in order to adopt the centrex system permitting direct dialing to the various departments. However, the dual purpose of the centrex system — faster service to the public and lower costs to the Authority for its telephone service — is being defeated by the public's unfamiliarity with the listings provided in the new directory, Mr. Kelly said.

A JOB WELL DONE

During the last Christmas season at Enchanted Village at Jordan Marsh's Boston store, a new record was established when 710,000 persons passed through the store without incident.

This is a fine tribute to the security forces of Jordan Marsh and to the patrolling force of the Boston Fire Department under its Fire Marshall, Deputy Fire Chief Joseph L. Dolan.

Purchasing Division

PERISHABLE FOODS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

It is the practice of the City of Boston to purchase perishable foods and other edible commodities on the basis of bids submitted weekly or monthly because of the perishable nature of these goods and the fluctuation in their prices and the quantities required.

It is required by law that contracts be executed with various companies covering said purchases for one year beginning April 1, 1972. Because these purchasing procedures, which accrue considerable savings to the city, do not lend themselves to formal public advertising, authority is requested to award contracts, without public advertisement, to the companies listed below for the period from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive. BUILDING DEPARTMENT

BUILDINGS RAZED

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:

Emergency telephone bid on Tuesday, December 7, 1971, for the takedown of 45 Horace Street, Ward 1, as ordered by Deputy Building Commissioner Leo F. Martin; to be supported by written confirmations.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 479, Acts of 1938, as amended, particularly section 116 (d) thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Duane.—$2,165.

Berardi.—$2,222.

Mystic.—$2,650.

John J. Duane Building Wrecking Company, 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling total buildings or structures as one unit results in lower administrative costs to the city than would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price $2,000 or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising as required in the city charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,165 of the John J. Duane Building Wrecking Company, 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD R. THUMA, JR.,
Building Commissioner.

CONSERVATION COMMISSION

PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH AND ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record and to award a contract for professional research and administrative services to Thomas Grahame of 203 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, at a cost not to exceed $2,750 during the period December 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972.

Under the proposed contract Mr. Grahame will assist the Commission's supervising landscape consultant on two projects:

1. Detailed landscape planning on the proposed Charles-to-Charles corridor, a project sponsored by the Conservation Commissions of Boston and Brookline, and later to include the Conservation Commission of Newton.

2. A conservation and passive outdoor recreation plan for the city to be prepared in close cooperation with the comprehensive plan including active outdoor recreation to be undertaken by the Planning Department. This Commission is authorized by chapter 893 of the Acts of 1971 to prepare such a conservation and passive outdoor recreation plan.

Such a coordinating assistant is necessary for the Charles-to-Charles corridor project in order to make the best use of the limited time of the supervising landscape consultant, to provide him with technical and other assistance, to coordinate his work with that of others working on the project, and to coordinate the Conservation Commission's work with the Planning Department in order to eliminate duplication of effort and to include all earlier work of this nature done by the Planning Department.

In view of the professional nature of the services to be rendered, it is my opinion that inviting proposals by advertisement would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

EUGENIE BEAL,
Chairman.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT SPEECH THERAPIST AND AUDIOLOGIST

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on September 1, 1971, it was voted to enter into a contract, without advertising, with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a charitable nonprofit corporation created by chapter 656 of the Acts of 1965, under which said corporation will provide the services of one (1) speech therapist and one (1) audiologist to work respectively thirty (30) and twenty (20) hours per week in the Out-Patient Department, Boston City Hospital.

This contract will be for a period commencing October 1, 1971, and ending March 31, 1972, in an amount not to exceed $7,382.39.

Since 1969 the services of a speech therapist and audiologist have been provided by a contract with the Tufts New England Medical Center. However, Tufts agreed to provide these services only through September 30, 1971. It is essential that these important services continue to be provided under contract until these positions are classified under the civil service system and funded directly from our departmental budget.

Inasmuch as this contractual undertaking is one of a personal and specialized nature, and since no benefit to the city can be derived from competitive bidding, your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

SERVICES AS DIRECTOR OF TUFTS MEDICAL SERVICE

DEAR SIR:

As Commissioner of the Department of Health and Hospitals and by virtue of the authority granted to me on November 10, 1970, by the Board of Health and Hospitals and upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee of the Medical and Dental Staff of this department, I hereby authorize the award of a contract to Tufts University School of Medicine for the period commencing July 1, 1971, and ending March 31, 1972, for the services of Dr. Norman Stearns to serve as full-time Director of Tufts Medical Service at Boston City Hospital at a total cost to the city not to exceed $13,125, payable in monthly installments. This contract is necessitated by the retirement of Dr. Harold Jeghers the former Director on June 30, 1971. Under this contract, Dr. Stearns would serve under the Board of Health and Hospitals but without direct compensation from the City of Boston and would be compensated by the said university.

The decision to enter into such an arrangement was made after consideration of several factors, the most influential of which is that this will allow Dr. Stearns to take advantage of certain fringe benefits which would not be available if Dr. Stearns were paid directly by the city. I refer particularly to participation by Dr. Stearns in the Teacher Insurance and Annuity Association, a nationwide pension plan offering extremely generous benefits to its members who must be associated academically with and compensated directly by a university, college, or medical school. Benefits accruing through membership in this association can be transferred if and when academic affiliation might be changed. This would not be possible if Dr. Stearns were compensated directly by the City of Boston and a member of the State-Boston Retirement System.

Because of the special and peculiar fitness of Dr. Stearns for the services he is to perform, your approval is respectfully requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Tufts University School of Medicine under the aforesaid terms.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

ACCREDITATION SURVEY

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston held on September 22, 1971, it was voted to enter into a contract, without advertising, with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., a charitable nonprofit corporation created by chapter 556 of the Acts of 1965, under which said corporation will provide the services of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals of Chicago, Illinois, to conduct a survey, for accreditation purposes, of Boston City Hospital.

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals is the sole accrediting agency for hospitals in the United States recognized by the American College of Surgeons, the American College of Physicians, the American Hospital Association, and the American Medical Association.

Inasmuch as the Joint Commission requires payment in advance of any scheduled survey visit, it was determined necessary and expedient to contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., to facilitate payment as required.

This hospital survey is conducted by a team of three persons over a period of three days at $300 per surveyor for a total cost not to exceed $2,700.

Inasmuch as this contractual undertaking is one of a unique and specialized nature, and since no benefit to the city can be derived from competitive bidding, your permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

LEASING OF CAMERA SYSTEM

SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on December 8, 1971, it was voted to enter into a contract, without advertising, with Searle Leasing Corporation of Waltham, Mass., for the leasing of a previously installed Nuclear-Chicago Gamma Scintillation Camera System in the Radiology Department at Boston City Hospital for the period commencing April 1, 1971, and ending March 31, 1976, in an amount not to exceed $49,704.80.

The term of this lease is for a period of five (5) years under the authority of the Acts of 1971, chapter 3, amending G. L., c. 40, s. 4, but is subject to an annual appropriation being available therefor.

At this same meeting the Board voted to rescind its previous vote of March 31, 1971, to enter into a contract with the Searle Leasing Corporation, and approved by your Honor on April 12, 1971, for the leasing of the above-mentioned equipment for a one-year period commencing April 1, 1971, and ending March 31, 1972.

Inasmuch as the award of this contract for a five-year period pursuant to the enabling legislation mentioned above instead of on a year-to-year renewable basis will result in a savings to the city of $20,117.64, and inasmuch as it is not anticipated that this equipment will become obsolete to our needs during the term of this contract, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

SERVICES OF DIETICIANS

SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on June 23, 1971, it was voted to renew, without advertising, the existing contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., under which said corporation will provide the services of professional registered ADA dieticians for Boston City Hospital for the period July 1, 1971, through December 31, 1971, in an amount not to exceed $37,000.

Negotiations are currently in progress between the Department of Health and Hospitals and the Civil Service Commission to establish these dietician positions within the city's compensation plan. Since these positions are essential to comply with the recommendations of the Joint Commission on Accreditation, these services must continue to be contracted for in this manner.

Accordingly, your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms set forth above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

HOUSING INSPECTION DEPARTMENT PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby respectfully request permission to dispense with public advertising in the City of Boston for the purpose of engaging a consultant (Sheldon N. The proposed contract is for full-time services commencing August 10, 1971, and ending March 31, 1972. This cost to be fully funded by and under the city's grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

It is my opinion that, in view of the professional nature of the services to be rendered, public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

FRANCIS W. GENS,
Commissioner.

The premises are needed by this department as a local office in connection with code enforcement activities under section 117 of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, City of Boston, Concentrated Code Enforcement Program, Mass. Contract E-6.

The proposed lease is for a term of one year, September 1, 1971, to August 31, 1972, with an option on the part of the city to extend the term for an additional year. The proposed rental fee is two hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, not to exceed the total of two thousand seven hundred dollars.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

C. West, Trustee, for this space. The premises are needed by this department as a local office in connection with code enforcement activities under section 117 of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, City of Boston, Concentrated Code Enforcement Program, Mass. Contract E-6.

The proposed lease is for a term of eight months, January 16, 1972, to September 16, 1972, with an option on the part of the city to extend the term for an additional year. The proposed rental fee is four hundred dollars per month, not to exceed the total of three thousand two hundred dollars.

Hub Adopts Noise Control Regulations

The first in a set of comprehensive noise control regulations has been adopted for Boston, David Standley, Executive Director of Boston's Air Pollution Control Commission announced on February 10.

"Interim standards for noise levels in residential and commercial areas and a program for reducing noise from new motor vehicles, construction equipment, lawn mowers, and other powered equipment are now in effect in the city," said Mr. Standley.

An extensive study of noise in Boston and of corrective measures available to the Commission by Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., of Cambridge preceded the regulatory proposal.

"We recognize that these regulations do not deal with all the problems of noise in the urban area," said David Standley. "They do, however, contain the first community noise standards to be established in the eastern United States and the first effort in New England to set performance standards for the noisiness of new vehicles and equipment."

Current noise control activities of the Commission include monitoring of noise levels at selected locations, development of a permit system, and noise limits for construction activities, and the enforcement of the new regulations. Mr. Standley indicated that regulations to control the noisiness of all motor vehicles and equipment during operation within the city would be developed as soon as possible.

"There has been a tremendous public response to noise pollution control efforts in Boston as well as in other cities. People are beginning to realize that noise can and should be controlled, not endured."

He mentioned that the actions of the Boston Commission alone will not be enough to assure reasonable quiet in the city — that state and federal agencies must act on aircraft and highway noise problems.

"The Commission believes noise abatement must have a much higher priority with the state's Departments of Public Works and Public Health, with the Registry of Motor Vehicles, and with the United States Department of Transportation and the Environmental Protection Agency," said Mr. Standley. "Of course, we must not exclude Massport, the F.A.A., and the airlines, who, were they to work for the broader public interest, could make major reductions in the impact of aircraft operations in Boston."

The new noise regulations set a maximum noise level in residential areas at 60 dB(A) from 7 A.M. to 6 P.M. and 50 dB(A) at night. Business zones would be limited to 65 dB(A) during the day with 55 dB(A) at night while industrial zones would be restricted to 70 dB(A) and 60 dB(A) at night. Alarms, alarm systems, and public address systems will also come under noise restrictions. All new and modified systems must be registered with the Commission as of March 1.

"Noise is a particularly violent form of environmental pollution," said Mr. Standley, "and a flagrant abuse of the rights of others. We now have the means to halt that abuse."

GRANTS ANNOUNCED TO DEMONSTRATE VOLUNTEER POWER

Twenty-three communities nationwide, including Boston, are part of a demonstration to show how a minor investment of public funds, coupled with citizen energy, can create a major public benefit.

Edwin D. Etherington, president of the National Center for Voluntary Action, announced that approximately $400,000 of federal money is being channeled through the National Center, a nongovernmental organization, to help create more effective ways to put volunteers to work in community service. The funds have been provided by the federal ACTION agency.

In Boston, where the Volunteer Office of United Community Services of Metropolitan Boston has been designated the Voluntary Action Center of Metropolitan Boston, a $28,223 grant has been awarded to inventory and develop new roles for groups of volunteers.

Seven grants will help communities get Voluntary Action Centers into place. Sixteen others will help existing centers develop model volunteer programs for duplication nationwide.

Henry Ford, II, chairman of the National Center, announced the formation of thirty-two Voluntary Action Centers. Nineteen more have since joined the network.

Focusing on the alleviation of critical social problems through citizen-to-citizen assistance, the funded programs range from New York City's plan to situate volunteer recruitment stations in disadvantaged communities, to San Mateo County, California, where former mental patients will be trained for and placed into community service roles, to assist their transition back to full employment.

Grant-supported projects in other localities will aim at training volunteers, providing out-of-pocket expenses for low-income volunteers, establishing neighborhood service centers, conducting volunteer recruitment campaigns, and organizing student community-service activities for academic credit.

Edwin D. Etherington, president of the National Center, said, "These grants demonstrate how small amounts of money can seed vast public benefits through volunteer service — such as in day care centers, food cooperatives, prisoner rehabilitation programs, and countless other areas of community needs."

Mr. Etherington continued, "In the state of Washington, for example, in two years time a volunteer program has been developed where more than 11,000 citizens provide services, not otherwise available, in the welfare and criminal justice systems and in facilities for the mentally ill and retarded. Supported by minimal staff, budget and taxpayer dollars, the dollar return is in the millions."

Nine grants range from $10,000 to $40,000, which must be matched locally, and fourteen from $2,000 to $10,000.

BRA APPROVAL

A 35-story building containing a million square feet of office space at Summer and Devonshire Streets, was approved on February 10 by the Boston Redevelopment Authority.

The prime tenant of the $40 million facility would be Massachusetts Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

Blue Cross said it will sell its present office facility on Federal Street and initially occupy 400,000 square feet of space in the new tower with an additional 200,000 square feet reserved for expansion.

MARK YOUR VALUABLES

The City of Boston has embarked on a program aimed at reducing residential burglaries by assisting residents in marking their valuables for quick identification, it was announced by Mayor Kevin H. White.

Sponsoring the program, called "Project Theft-Guard," is the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee. It will be implemented by the Little City Halls, through the Mayor's Office of Public Service.

The purpose of the program is to get Boston residents to mark all valuables in and around their homes with an identifying number. Electric engravers that mark metal, wood, plastic, etc., will be loaned free of charge to any Boston resident who wants to participate.

The Mayor said "Project Theft-Guard" will work as follows:

— Electric engravers will be available at all of the Little City Halls and at Room 243 at the main City Hall during regular business hours.

— An engraver will be loaned free of charge and may be kept at home for a reasonable period of time.

— A participant in the program will use the engraver to inscribe his or her social security number on all valuables kept in the home.

— At the same time, he will list on a form provided, all valuables so engraved.

— When the engraver is returned, the participant will be given two special "Project Theft-Guard" stickers to be placed on or near the front and back doors of the house.

In Monterey Park, California, where a similar program was first instituted in 1963, more than 4,000 households were participating by 1971. During this first eight years of the program, only three had been burglarized, according to Mayor White. Of the 7,000 households that did not participate, more than 1,800 were burglarized, he noted.

REDUCING FORMS

The United States Postal Service said on February 8, it is reducing its total of 5,187 separate official forms by one third.

More than 1,000 forms already are casualties of the drive against paperwork.

The first goal for a 33 percent cut is expected to be reached by mid-March, reducing the original total to about 3,500. After that, further reductions will be scheduled.

The costs of printing, maintaining, and disseminating postal forms had been estimated earlier at $4.8 million for the current 1972 fiscal year. Officials expect the new program to reduce the total costs significantly.

The reduction of 1,000 already achieved has been mainly among about 3,800 forms used in 44,000 post offices and other postal facilities for a variety of internal reporting, requisitioning, and communication purposes.

The postal reorganization, which took effect last July, when the old Post Office Department became the United States Postal Service, helped pave the way for the new attack.

MUMPS THE WORD

Measles and mumps are on the rise.

According to the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, the number of measles cases for 1971 may top 80,000—twice as many as the year before.

An article in the October issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association, however, announced that there is now a new measles and mumps combination vaccine that is safe, simple, and effective. The measles vaccine contains the live measles virus.

Other vaccines for measles and mumps have been available for years. But there have been complications. Sometimes pulmonary complications.

The new vaccine avoids this complication.

Breathing complications can develop from the strangest causes—like killed measles vaccine. Find out more about causes of breathing problems. Check with your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association.

COP-IN AT HARVARD

John Pippin, the first Harvard College graduate to become a Harvard University policeman, likes his job and intends to stay.

Officer Pippin's decision to join the force did not come easily. Half-way through Harvard, he had decided to go to graduate school to continue his studies in German History. But upon graduation, he realized that, although German History would always fascinate him, it would not provide the fulfillment he felt he needed.

While delivering mail for Harvard in the summertime, Mr. Pippin began talking to Chief of Police Robert Tonis about the university's police force. He learned that "the basic philosophies of a municipal police force and that of a university are drastically different. The university is not a city and therefore, its security system can be run differently."

The most frustrating part of his job is that "in some situations no matter what you do, you can't help someone.

"I was afraid that after a while I'd be forced to become insensitive to people's problems, but now I don't think that's going to happen. As long as it doesn't, I'll be very happy with this job," Officer Pippin says. "Selling out to monetary success catches up with you. The personal satisfaction I receive from my work is worth much more to me than greater financial reward."

FRANKLIN SQUARE HOUSE CONVERTED

The Franklin Square House on East Newton Street will be converted to housing units for the elderly and a community multi-service center according to an announcement made on February 11, by Robert J. Vey, Director of the Public Facilities Department.

Public Facilities Department, the city's central building agency, has designated Interfaith Housing Corporation of Boston as developer for the 700-room, century-old former women's hotel. Interfaith will be providing 190 apartment units for elderly citizens and a renovated elderly drop-in center which will provide hot meals for the elderly in the South End. Interfaith will also provide space for a 100-child day care center, a girls' club with gymnasium and locker room, twenty rooms for emergency housing for burn-out and freeze out-victims, and a food distribution center. An alcoholic detoxification center funded by the Mayor's Office of Justice Administration will occupy a completely isolated part of the building.

"Public Facilities bought the hotel for $500,000. Interfaith has offered the city $400,000 and will put the hotel back on the tax rolls for the first time since the 1890s. The city will not only recoup its costs but will be giving the South End a neighborhood facility providing a number of needed community services at no expense to the taxpayer," said Director Vey.

Public Facilities Department bought the quarter million square-foot structure to house Health and Hospital functions during the reconstruction of Boston City Hospital. Due to changes in the staging of the hospital construction program Franklin Square House became surplus property.

cause of the great economic advantages it provides to the city and the South End community.

Renovations will start as soon as mortgage arrangements are completed through the Federal Housing Administration or the Massachusetts Housing and Finance Agency. Total construction time should be about 24 months but according to Robert Vey, "Public Facilities Department and Interfaith have agreed to keep the elderly drop-in center and hot-lunch program, run by the Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly, in operation throughout the construction period. An effort is also being made to begin operation of the day care and food distribution centers as soon as possible."

MAYOR APPOINTS COMMERCE DIRECTOR

Mayor White has named Gerald W. Bush Director of Commerce and Manpower. Mr. Bush will be responsible for heading the search for new industry, especially manufacturing, inaugurating a tourism promotion program, and taking charge of the city's various manpower agencies. Mr. Bush, a business consultant, has served in various capacities in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations as administrator in the Office of Economic Opportunity directed by Sargent Shriver.

Mayor White announced that the Economic Development Commission will issue $2 million debentures to start its program. The debentures are being purchased by major Boston banks.

HUB VISITORS EXPECTED TO SPEND $43 MILLION

More than $43 million is expected to be infused into the economy of Boston by 263 conventions scheduled to meet in the Hub during 1972.

These conventions are expected to bring some 290,000 visitors to the city during the year, according to the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce.

The figures are contained in the 1972 edition of the Chamber's Convention and Visitors Bureau annual publication Conventions in the Many Worlds of Boston, just released.

The brochure further reports that thirty to forty additional conventions will probably be booked during the coming weeks and that some 500 conventions are already booked for years beyond 1972.

NUMBER ONE PRESIDENT (1732-1799)

Rules of Civility—from George Washington's Copybook

Before he was sixteen years old, President Washington copied down 110 "Rules of Civility and decent behaviour in company and conversation" as an exercise in penmanship. Thus early did Washington learn the secret of gracious manners and apply it to his own gentlemanly conduct. The "Rules" cover ten pages in one of Washington's copybooks now in the Library of Congress at Washington. Originally published by French Jesuits around 1595, the "Rules of Civility" were translated into English with various changes and were published many times. The "Rules" do not follow exactly the text of these English versions. Here are some of the Washington "Rules," just as he spelled and punctuated them:

Associate yourself with Men of good Quality if you esteem your own Reputation; for 'tis better to be alone than in bad company.

Wear not your Cloths foul, unript or dusty but see they be Brushed once every day at least and take heed that you approach not to any uncleanness.

Be not hasty to believe flying Reports to the disparagement of any. Shift not yourself in the sight of others nor gnaw your nails. Treat with Men at fit times about business and Whisper not in the company of others.

Be not curious to know the affairs of others neither approach those that speak in private.

Eat not in the streets nor in ye House, out of Season.

Read no letters, books, or Papers in company but when there is a necessity for the doing of it you must ask leave; come not near the Books or Writings of Another so as to read them unless desired or give your opinion of them unask'd also look not nigh when another is writing a Letter.

If You cough, sneeze, sigh, or yawn, do it not loud but privately; and speak not in your Yawning, but put your handkerchief or hand before your face and turn aside.

Let your discourse with Men of Business be short and Comprehensive.

Let your recreations be Manfull not sinfull.

Turn not Your back to others especially in speaking, jog not the table or Desk on which another Reads or Writes, lean not on anyone.

Think before You Speak pronounce not imperfectly nor bring out Your words too hastily but orderly & distinctly.

Undertake not what You cannot perform but be careful to keep Your Promise.

Speak not evil of the absent for it is unjust.

When You Speak of God or his attributes, let it be seriously & with Reverence. Honour & Obey Your Natural Parents altho they be poor.

The following letter received by the Boston Firemen's Relief Fund is published for the information of the department:

"February 5, 1972.

FIREMEN'S RELIEF FUND:

Enclosed is a check donated in memory of my dear wife, who died of a heart attack on October 3, 1971.

Over the past few years due to her failing heart I have had to call on Boston's Fire Department to administer oxygen to save her. I don't have words to express how grateful I and my family are toward these fine men. I, for one, will never be able to repay them. My dear wife died at the Fogg Post in Hyde Park with the firemen working desperately to revive her. One of the gentlemen from that station rode in the police ambulance to the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital working in vain all the way. My only regret is my two daughters were too upset to find out his name.

Once again I say thank you all, and thank God we have such fine brave men.

LAWRENCE P. SULLIVAN,
15 Tower Street, Jamaica Plain."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

MODEL CITY ADMINISTRATION

BOARDING UP VACANT BUILDINGS AND TRAINING PERSONS AS CARPENTERS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

We hereby request your approval to enter into a contract, without advertising, with the United Community Construction Workers, Inc., 438A Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $40,000.

Under the terms of this contract, United Community Construction Workers, Inc., will board up vacant buildings in the Interim Assistance Program Area and will train persons hired by the Model City Agency under the Emergency Employment Act as carpenters. The contract shall be effective for the period from January 1, 1972, through July 31, 1972.

United Community Construction Workers, Inc., has been selected for this contract because it is the only community organization with the experience and expertise in construction and construction training necessary to carry out this work.

For the foregoing reasons, it is requested that notice of said contract by advertising in the City Record be waived.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

LEASE OF CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to lease certain premises at 22 Yeoman Street, Boston, which we deem necessary and adequate to provide space to operate a street academy program under a grant contract between the Youth Development and Delinquency Prevention Administration of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare and the City of Boston, Model City Administration, as approved May 26, 1971, with Project Number 74-P-05110/1-01.

The premises are to be leased from Francis X. Foster. Included in the proposed lease is the entire building and adjacent land known as and located at 22 Yeoman Street, in the district of Roxbury, Mass., containing approximately five thousand (5,000) square feet of net usable space. The term of the lease shall be for one year, from January 1, 1972, to December 31, 1972. Rent will be paid by the city at the rate of three hundred dollars ($300) per month for each of the months the space is rented, for a maximum of thirty-six hundred dollars ($3,600) for the first year.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is respectfully requested that notice of this lease be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

PAUL PARKS,
Administrator.

OFFICE OF JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION STUDY OF PRETRIAL DETENTION REQUIREMENTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Staff of your Safe Streets Act Advisory Committee, I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with advertising in the award of a contract to the Joint Correctional Planning Commission, in an amount not to exceed $46,660 for the period October 1, 1971, to September 30, 1972.

Award of the contract is pursuant to a grant received by the city from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in the amount of $1,233,540 under paragraph (b) (7) of section 301 (P.L. 90-351), to be used as service monies during the year 1971. The grant was accepted by an order of the City Council on December 7, 1970, and was approved by the Mayor on December 14, 1970.

As part of this grant, the City of Boston, with the cooperation of the Sheriff of Suffolk County, together with the Joint Correctional Planning Commission will conduct an extensive study of pretrial detention requirements and alternatives in metropolitan Boston.

The study will identify the long-term needs for pretrial detention facilities and programs and for alternatives to pretrial detention in the Boston area. The study will analyze such factors as: (1) adequacy of existing facilities, utilization, programs, staffing, and per capita costs; (2) characteristics, legal status, time incarcerated, and eligibility for pretrial release of jail population; (3) differential characteristics of persons detained, bailed, granted ROR, or released into special programs; (4) trends in pretrial population and present and potential effects of court congestion, improved police enforcement, bail reform and costs of alternatives to pretrial incarceration; (5) feasibility of sharing of detention facilities; (6) renovation of existing facilities and/or construction of new facilities; (7) conversion of jails into single or multiple, specialized diagnostic centers.

The involvement of the Joint Correctional Planning Commission is vital to the success of this project. The Commission, appointed by Governor Sargent, is comprised of twenty-three members with broad responsibilities and interest in corrections, including the Commissioners of Corrections, Parole, Probation, and Youth Services. The Commission has a broad mandate to analyze and recommend changes for the existing correctional system in Massachusetts. It has at its disposal a wide range of knowledge and experience not available elsewhere. For these reasons permission is hereby respectfully requested to dispense with public bidding.

Respectfully,

PETER C. BORRE,
Executive Director.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At its last regular meeting, the Public Facilities Commission voted authorizing the undersigned to request of your Honor in the name and on behalf of that Commission, as I now do, formal permission to waive the City Charter requirement for public advertising in the City Record, in awarding a contract to Raamot Associates, Consulting Engineers, a New York partnership with local offices at One Goodwin Place, Boston, Mass., to provide engineering and soil analysis services related to the projected construction of the Carter, Bunker Hill, and Washington Allston Elementary Schools in the City of Boston, at a cost for such services (at hourly rates to be stated in the contract) of not to exceed $95,000, including not in excess of $12,500 for survey work by a subcontractor, not in excess of $45,000 for boring by a second subcontractor, and the net cost of direct expenses specifically authorized by and under the contract, and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The proposed contract will constitute the third occasion upon which the aforementioned firm shall have been engaged to perform relatively similar services, at different sites, for this department. This speaks very well indeed for the efficient, cooperative, and most acceptable performance hitherto rendered by Raamot Associates, and we are confident that these engineers will repeat their prior highly satisfactory services in the instant case as well.

In view of the foregoing and as the services to be rendered are professional in nature, it is the opinion of the Commission, that public advertising would not inure to the advantage of the city.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ARCHITECT'S SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On Tuesday, September 21, 1971, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request, both in its name and on its behalf, as I hereby do, of your Honor, written permission to dispense with a public solicitation for proposals by advertising in the City Record in awarding to Earl Flansburgh and Associates, Inc., Architects, of 119 Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge, Mass., a contract to prepare working drawings, detailed specifications, and construction cost estimates for, and to supervise the construction of renovations, to both the Grover Cleveland Middle School and an adjacent garage, at a cost of 8.85 percent of the presently estimated cost of construction of $2,880,000, less $53,080 paid under the architect's Phase I contract, the cost of the now proposed services being not to exceed $276,800 (including $75,000 for supplementary services); and to authorize the Director to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

As is our custom, the aforesaid 8.85 percent rate was derived from the 1967 A.I.A. Recommended Minimum "B" rates; and application of the same to the $2,880,000 now estimated construction cost shows the proposed fee to be $254,880, less $53,080 paid under the Architect's Phase I contract, results in a basic fee of $201,800. The addition of $75,000 for supplementary services will lead to a total authorized expenditure under the contract of $276,800.

In view of the professional services to be rendered under the proposed contract, it appears that a public solicitation for competitive bids would not inure to the benefit of the city.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

MECHANICAL EQUIPMENT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This project was publicly advertised in the City Record issue dated September 27, 1971. However, no bids were received on Wednesday, October 13, 1971.

Because of the urgency to procure this equipment this department informally invited four (4) bids for this material and received the following response:

Kenyon-Barstow Company, $81,535.
Enterprise Equipment Company, Inc., $93,780.

For your Honor's further information, the low bid submitted by Kenyon-Barstow is substantially under our estimate for this equipment. Accordingly, in my judgement, it is in the best interest of the City of Boston to award the contract to this company.

Your Honor's written authorization is requested to dispense with further public advertising in the City Record in awarding a contract to Kenyon-Barstow Company, 725 Statler Office Building, Boston, Mass., in the sum of $81,535.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

STUDY FOR RENOVATION OF OLD COURT HOUSE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In a meeting assembled on November 24, 1971, the Public Facilities Commission authorized me to request of your Honor, in its name and on its behalf, as I hereby do, executive permission to forego the usual practice of publicly advertising for competitive bids through the medium of the city's official chronicle of Municipal affairs, the City Record, in awarding to Universal Engineering Corporation, consulting engineers, with offices at 100 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., a contract to make a space use and feasibility study for the renovation of the Old Suffolk County Court House and thereafter to prepare and furnish to the city a comprehensive report thereon, which report shall incorporate a special section on the building encompassing: (1) its style, significance, and interior and exterior architectural modifications to date (2) proposed modifications that reallocation of functions might suggest, and (3) recommendations concerning the architectural historical aspects of proposed modifications which would serve both as a guideline for any future renovation work on the building, and as a special report to the historical community, at a cost for such services not to exceed $30,000, and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

In summary, the entire study and written report thereof would provide this department with comprehensive proposals for Old Suffolk County Court House functional changes, renovation needs, costs, and architectural historical concerns.

In the light of the very special nature of the services to be rendered under the proposed contract, it is felt that nothing would be gained by public advertising for bid therefor in the City Record in this instance.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

SCHEDULING AND COORDINATING CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES, MINOT HEMENWAY SCHOOL

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As authorized recently by the Public Facilities Commission, I respectfully request, in that Board's name and on its behalf, of your Honor, formal authorization not to publicly advertise in the City Record for proposals therefor, in awarding to U.D.S. Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, with offices at 134 Water Street, Wakefield, Mass., a contract for scheduling and coordinating construction activities in connection with the construction of the Minot Hemenway School, in the Dorchester district of the City of Boston, at a cost for such services not to exceed $20,700 (including $13,200 for services in twenty-four (24) updatings of critical path criteria for and during construction and a $2,500 allowance for extra services that may be ordered under the contract at $45 per hour); and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The foregoing arrangements are proposed in order to assure a seasonable occupancy and beneficial use of the new building by providing for an analysis of material affecting the scheduling of construction. Our use of the subject services will, in our opinion, insure completion and operation of the aforementioned facility in the shortest time possible and at the lowest cost to the city.

In the light of the very technical services to be provided under the contract now proposed it is the judgment of the Board that public solicitation for proposals for the same would not guarantee the procurement of such experts as are needed in the present instance.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

SCHEDULING AND COORDINATING CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES, NURSES EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a current authorization given the undersigned so to do by the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written permission, on behalf and in the name of that Commission, to dispense with a public solicitation for competitive bids by advertising therefor in the City Record, in awarding a contract to Mauchly Construction Management, Inc., a Delaware corporation, licensed to do business in the Commonwealth, with local offices at 575 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., for scheduling and coordinating construction activities in connection with the construction of the new nurses educational facilities at Boston City Hospital, at a cost for such services of not to exceed $12,500, including $8,800 for services in sixteen (16) updatings of critical path criteria for, and during construction; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

Our objective in making arrangements for the subject services is to assure that occupancy and beneficial use of the project structure will be timely, by providing for an analysis of the materials affecting construction scheduling. Employment of the subject services will, it is believed, make certain the completion and operation of the projected facility in shortest possible time and at the lowest financial outlay by the City of Boston.

In the light of the unique character of the services to be furnished under the provisions of the proposed contract, it does not appear that the city would benefit from the pursuit of the usual public advertising procedures.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As of a recent date, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request in its name and on its behalf, of your Honor, as I now do, permission to dispense with the otherwise mandatory provisions of our Municipal Charter requiring a public solicitation for bids by advertising in the City Record, in awarding to Construction Consultants, Inc., a Michigan corporation, duly licensed to do business in this Commonwealth, with offices in the New Center Building, Detroit, Michigan, a contract to provide consulting services in connection with the following: the design of, the preparation of the specifications for, and the installation of complete roof systems for the City of Boston, including as component items thereof insulation, roof membrane systems, membrane flashings, metal accessories and expansion joints, flashing of such appurtenances as protrude through roof systems, construction, methods of application, and their expediency, at a cost for such services not to exceed $27,500, payable (a) at hourly rates and (b) on a per square-foot basis as will be provided in the contract; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

Because of the particularly technical caliber of the services to be rendered under the proposed contract, it is considered that public advertising here would not serve a useful purpose.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

SCHEDULING AND SYSTEMS MARKETING CONSULTANT

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As authorized by the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request of your Honor, for and on behalf of that Commission, executive permission to dispense with the formality of publicly advertising in the City Record in awarding to Wagner-Hohns-Ingles, Inc., project planning consultants, of 212 High Street, Mount Holly, New Jersey, a Pennsylvania corporation, duly licensed to do business in the Commonwealth, a contract as a scheduling and systems marketing consultant on the BOSTCO Track II schools, at a cost for such services not to exceed $35,000, payable at per diem rates as will be recited in the contract; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

More particularly, the aforementioned consultant will: (1) assist (a) the design team in establishing individual project and overall design schedules and update them, (b) this department in setting marketing policy for Track II schools, (c) this department in preparing overall guides as to construction management standards to be prescribed for BOSTCO Track construction, and (d) in the preparation of certain sections of the specifications; (2) provide (a) research and special systems knowledge to the design team and (b) research and construction procedures knowledge for conventional construction to the design team; (3) prepare (a) prebid construction schedules for Track II schools and (b) the construction schedule for the first segment of the Norcross-Hoar School; and (4) make such presentations to the construction market as may be deemed necessary by this department.

The subject special and very technical services are, I submit, quite clearly of a nature, in respect to which the acquisition of same would not, in all probability, be safely effected through the medium of openly advertised competitive proposals therefor.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

LEASING OF CERTAIN PREMISES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the Director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in leasing certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Director for Public Works Department purposes from Benjamin Ginsberg of Brookline, Mass., with a place of business at 40 Court Street, Boston, Mass. There is a further delegation of power from the Commission to the Director to execute such lease upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The premises to be leased are located at 39-43 Dorchester Street in the South Boston District of Boston, and consist of approximately 8,000 square feet of garage/storage space on the second floor of this building.

The term of the lease will be from December 1, 1971, through March 31, 1972. The monthly rental will be $800 with the lessee paying for its own heat and light. Based on last winter's figures, supplied by the lessor, the cost of these utilities amounted to about $750, although for a longer period of time. The Auditor is requested to encumber this amount, in addition to the rental figure shown.

The use of this garage space will be to store various pieces of equipment belonging to the Public Works Department in connection with snow removal.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not believed that public advertising would serve any useful purpose in this instance.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

STEAM LINE INSTALLATIONS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a most recent authorization given the undersigned so to do by the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's executive authorization, in the name of and on behalf of that Commission, to dispense with a solicitation for competitive advertising therefor in the City Record in awarding a contract to Boston Edison Company, 800 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., providing for the furnishing and installing of the following: (a) 60 feet of 4-inch steam line pipe for the projected new nurses' residence building at Boston City Hospital, (b) 80 feet of 12-inch steam line pipe for the existing power plant at Boston City Hospital, and (c) 320 feet of 6-inch steam line pipe for the projected Norcross School building, at a cost for such services not to exceed $40,900; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The purpose of the aforementioned steam line installations at the named facilities is to provide heat from a dependable, constant, and efficient source. In the case of the steam line running to the existing power plant at Boston City Hospital, the same will furnish heat for the entire existing plant. For the further information of your Honor, the cost of these installations is substantially less than the actual expense therefor to the Boston Edison Company.

Public advertising is not being pursued here as it would serve no useful purpose since the Boston Edison Company refuses to permit such installations to be carried out by anyone other than their own firm.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

BURGLAR-INTRUDER ALARM SYSTEMS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission has authorized me to request of your Honor, as I now do, both in its name and on its behalf, formal permission to forego the customary public invitation for proposals in the City Record and to award to American District Telegraph Company, a New Jersey corporation, of 100 Charles River Plaza, Boston, Mass., duly licensed to do business in this Commonwealth, a contract for furnishing, installing, servicing, and monitoring combination magnetic, telaware, and ultrasonic burglar-intruder alarm systems in the Joseph E. Lee School and in the Edward Everett School, both in the Dorchester district of the city, at a cost for such services of not to exceed $8,468.60 (including a service and monitoring charge of $2,191.60, covering the period November 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972); and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The aforementioned combination of systems will be installed at multiple strategic locations in the aforementioned two (2) school buildings, including entrance doors, hallways, offices, rooms, and other areas. The systems will be connected directly into the contractor's central office where, upon receipt of an alarm signal, the Police Department is immediately notified and an armed uniformed guard dispatched to the source of the alarm.

For your Honor's additional information we also contacted the only other two (2) firms, namely Hyde Park Alarm System, Inc., in Roxbury and Call Central Station Alarms in Chelsea, in this service area who furnish, install, and service all these systems, including monitoring, neither of which firms responded with prices, although both had submitted higher prices earlier in the case of the John Marshall School burglar-alarm installation and service contract. In the light of these circumstances, it is believed that public advertising would not serve any public purpose.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Works Department does not have a testing laboratory and in order to control the quality of material used in street construction and repair, a private engineer must be engaged to perform this work. It is also necessary to supplement the city inspection of construction, and to provide supervision of asphalt and concrete plant operations to insure compliance with our specifications.

It is not customary to select professional engineering assistance by public bidding, so after most careful consideration, I have selected the Thompson & Lichtner Company, 8 Alton Place, Brookline, Mass., to perform this work. The Thompson & Lichtner Company, Inc., under the direction of Miles W. Clair, not only operates a complete testing laboratory, but maintains an excellent staff of professional engineers capable of furnishing complete materials testing and engineering services to this department.

Accordingly, your permission is requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract, at this time, to the Thompson & Lichtner Company, Inc., 8 Alton Place, Brookline, Mass., in the amount of $52,000 for this work. It has been agreed that the engineering services will be paid for on the basis of a schedule of hourly rates that will be set forth in the proposed contract, and will include social security, unemployment compensation, insurance, payroll costs, overhead, and profit. It is understood and agreed that the total fee will be based on the services rendered at the agreed hourly rate with the total fee not to exceed $52,000.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

OPERATION OF YOUTH DROP-IN CENTER

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

We hereby request your approval to award a contract for services in an amount not to exceed fifty-one thousand three hundred ninety-eight dollars ($51,398) to the Dorchester Area Planning Action Council, 450 Washington Street, Dorchester, Mass., for operation of a youth drop-in center project in and adjacent to Sub-Area 6 as part of the Model City Youth and Recreation Program.

The Dorchester Area Planning Action Council successfully operated this Drop-In Center project for the past two years. They shall continue to offer programs and activities in consumer affairs education, a performing arts workshop, and a recreation program. The center also conducts programs in tutorial assistance and it has offered to area youth the opportunity to channel their efforts towards constructive educational and cultural achievement.

The funds to be provided under the contract will be utilized to cover the cost of salaries, space, equipment, overhead, and program expenses.

This contract shall be effective during the period of August 1, 1971, through July 31, 1972.

It is therefore requested that notice of this contract be dispensed from public advertising in the City Record.

Very truly yours,

CLARENCE J. JONES,
Executive Director.

SUFFOLK COUNTY District Attorney's Office CHAIN LINK FENCE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The District Attorney's Office has received a federally-funded grant from the Governor's Committee on Law Enforcement and Justice Administration and the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Committee for the purpose of locating a building to house government witnesses whose testimony is vital to the successful prosecution of certain trials and whose whereabouts prior to and during the trial must be confidential.

In order to finalize the requirements of this grant, designated 70-018, and in order to provide maximum security, it is necessary to encircle the witness security building with a chain link fence.

Since the nature of the witness security project requires that the location of the witness security building remain confidential, I am herein requesting that public advertising be dispensed with and that the contract for the construction of the above chain link fence be awarded to Dinn-Boston Chain Link Fence Company, Inc., located at 6 Freeport Way, Dorchester, in the amount of $3,315, for the period commencing on December 21, 1971 and ending December 28, 1971.

The Dinn-Boston's estimate has been chosen from the following additional estimate submitted by Brendan Kierce Fence Contractor, located at 11 Berwick Street, Roslindale, Mass., in the amount of $4,500.

Because of the aforementioned confidential nature of the witness security project, and because of the more reasonable estimate submitted by Dinn-Boston, including the quality of the material to be used as well as the lower price, it is my contention that no advantage will accrue to the city by publicly advertising.

Very truly yours,

GARRETT H. BYRNE,
District Attorney.

REPAIRS AND REMOVAL OF TREES AND SHRUBBERY

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The District Attorney's Office has received a federally-funded grant from the Governor's Committee on Law Enforcement and Justice Administration and the Mayor's Safe Streets Act Committee for the purpose of locating a building to house government witnesses whose testimony is vital to the successful prosecution of certain trials and whose whereabouts prior to and during the trial must be confidential.

In order to finalize the requirements of this grant, designated 70-018, and in order to provide maximum security, it is necessary to complete certain exterior repairs to the witness security building and to remove certain trees and shrubbery growing alongside the security fence.

Since the nature of the witness security project requires that the location of the witness security building remain confidential, I am herein requesting that public advertising be dispensed with and that the contract for the completion of the above repairs and removal of the trees and shrubbery be awarded to the J. P. Donahoe Construction Company, Inc., located on Turnpike Street, Canton, in the amount of $2,400 for the period commencing December 21, 1971 and ending on December 31, 1971.

Because of the aforementioned confidential nature of the witness security project and because the estimate submitted by J. P. Donahoe Construction Company, Inc., is one that is reasonable for the work to be done it is my contention that no advantage will accrue to the city by publicly advertising.

Very truly yours,

GARRETT H. BYRNE,
District Attorney.

MANAGEMENT SURVEY

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The District Attorney's Office has received a federally-funded grant from the Governor's Committee on Law Enforcement and Justice Administration and the City of Boston's Office of Justice Administration for the purpose of conducting a management survey of the District Attorney's Office.

In order to finalize the requirements for this grant, designated 69-63, it is necessary that a contract for the entire grant award of $16,000 be entered into between the District Attorney's Office and a management consulting firm.

I am herein requesting that public advertising be dispensed with and that the aforementioned contract be awarded to the consultant firm of Harbridge House, Inc., located at 11 Arlington Street, Boston, for the period February 1, 1970, to December 31, 1970.

Since Harbridge House is located in Boston, and since it has done extensive meritorious studies on similar projects for the federal government, it is my contention that no advantage will accrue to the city by so advertising.

Respectfully yours,

GARRETT H. BYRNE,
District Attorney.

Hub Hosts Exhibition of Irish Art

Boston will be official host to the first exhibition of contemporary Irish art ever to be held in America, Mayor Kevin H. White announced on February 17. This major showing of contemporary paintings will be held in the spring from April 12 to May 5 in the galleries of Boston's new City Hall. Not a touring exhibit, it will not be seen elsewhere in this country.

Entitled "The Irish Imagination," the show comes here directly from Dublin where it has won critical acclaim and the beginnings of popular support as part of Ireland's second international exposition, "ROSC '71." The name "Rosc" is an adaptation from the Irish language meaning "eye," and has been lyrically translated to mean "The Poetry of Vision."

This major showing of quite recent Irish art was selected by Brian O'Doherty, editor of "Art in America" and director of the Visual Arts Program of the National Endowment for the Arts, U.S.A. Dr. O'Doherty also wrote an introduction for this exhibition's catalogue which was printed in Dublin. The catalogue has already become a collector's item with its essays by noted Irish writers and poets about these Irish artists.

"The exhibition's coming to Boston," explained Dorothea D. Weeden, artistic director and coordinator here for the event, "is the result of enthusiastic and superb cooperation between our two art centers and our two governments. For the first time in recent history, a visual awareness has emerged in Ireland. As a result, over the past decade an intense activity has developed producing young artists of great merit and promise.

"Seventy-one paintings were chosen for Boston," Mrs. Weeden continued, "and they are the works of Irish artists from 1959 to 1971.

Among them are painters of international reputation such as Louis LeBrocqy, Cecil King (now doing hard-edge work), William Scott, who will have a one-man show at London's prestigious Tate Gallery this spring, and Brian Henderson, who is scheduled to have a one-man show in New York.

"Of special appeal in the exhibit," said Mrs. Weeden, "will be the works of another influential group with Camille Souter, Patrick Collins, Patrick Scott, Nano Reid, and a few others. These people, Dr. O'Doherty pointed out in his introduction, 'had a clear idea, and a social pride in what they considered to be Irish. The landscape and the Irish light, with its long twilights, affected their work deeply and evolved a poetic genre. They are artists of considerable pictorial intelligence.'"

As a special added feature, the Boston exhibition will also contain several paintings by the late Jack B. Yeats, until recently the dean of Irish contemporaries.

The primary sponsors of this exhibition are the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs, the Council of the Arts and Humanities of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Cultural Affairs Committee of the Department of Foreign Affairs, Ireland, and the Gulf Oil Corporation which was responsible for the funding of "ROSC '71" in Ireland.

Regarding the Gulf sponsorship of the upcoming Boston exhibit, B. R. Dorsey, president, said, "It is particularly fitting that Boston, by reason of its cultural and historic ties with Ireland, should be the host to this first exhibition of Irish art ever to be shown in this country. We are pleased to be associated with our cosponsors in making this contribution to the cultural life in New England, not only for its citizens of Irish descent, but also for all viewers who will perceive in 'The Irish Imagination' an exhibition of great significance and artistic merit. Gulf is also pleased that three of its paintings bought from the exhibition in Dublin are included in the Boston show."

Sponsorship has also come from the Eire Society, the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of Boston, the Irish American Heritage Society, the Irish Georgian Society, and private sponsors.

Supporting institutions are the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the Institute of Contemporary Art. The Boston Museum of Fine Arts will have a complementary show of its Irish treasures to coincide with "The Irish Imagination" at City Hall. It will be the first time these museum treasures have been shown together.

The City Hall show will run from April 12 to May 5, open free to the public. Gallery hours are Mondays through Fridays from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. and Saturdays from 10:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Among the distinguished guests who will come from Ireland for the exhibit and who will be available for interviews are James White, director of the National Gallery of Ireland, and Dr. and Mrs. Robin Walker. Mrs. Walker, a distinguished art critic and historian, is chairman of the Irish Imagination Exhibition Committee in Dublin and Dr. Walker is one of Ireland's foremost architects.

WAGE FREEZE SALARY ADJUSTMENTS

To All City and County Department Heads.

Upon request submitted by the City of Boston to the Pay Board, approval has been granted to implement the salary increases effective as of the original contract date of September 1, 1971.

This action means that the effective date of the salary adjustments granted on November 14, 1971, will revert to September 1, 1971.

Immediate steps should be taken to prepare payrolls to effect the retroactive salary adjustments for the period from September 1, 1971, to November 13, 1971, inclusive, for all employees covered under collective bargaining agreements.

Step-rate increments which would have become effective September 1, 1971, October 6, 1971, and November 3, 1971, must be resubmitted separately, specifying the period covered to November 13, 1971.

All other personnel actions which may have been affected by the "wage freeze" must be properly adjusted.

The Data Processing Unit of the Administrative Services Department will prepare the retroactive payroll adjustments for each department. Departmental payroll personnel will be responsible for making step-rate adjustments which would have become effective for September 1, 1971, October 6, 1971, and November 3, 1971.

If you have any questions concerning this matter please contact the personnel assistant in this division who processes the personnel matters for your department.

DUNCAN T. FOLEY,
Supervisor of Personnel.

CONTROVERSIAL CHINESE MEDICINE

Our awakened interest in China is making us confront Chinese medicine, including an ancient and highly controversial procedure — acupuncture.

Acupuncture involves inserting needles at precise spots in the human body so that sensations are deadened. A recent article in the New York Times, written by Dr. Samuel Rosen of Mt. Sinai School of Medicine in New York, described how the procedure was used in the surgical removal of a lung from a patient who had pulmonary tuberculosis. The patient was himself a surgeon.

"I have no explanation for this phenomenon," says Dr. Rosen, "but science has no explanation for many observations that still elude investigation. Neither have Chinese medical men, as they frankly concede."

Acupuncture is being scrutinized by American medical men, but with profound reservations thus far. Medicine in the two cultures is as different as east from west. Surgery to remove a tuberculous lung, for instance, is still performed in this country but rarely and only in extreme situations. Drugs are used instead to prevent the progress of the disease and to salvage the lung.

To find out more about the treatment of TB in this country, check with your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. Only a visit to China can verify reports of the wonders of acupuncture.

KING NAMED CHAIRMAN FOR '72 "MISS SOUTH BOSTON" PAGEANT

The appointment of Edward M. King as chairman for the 1972 Miss South Boston Pageant has been announced by George J. Sweeney, general chairman of the Evacuation Day Committee of the Citizens' Association.

Commenting on the appointment, Mr. Sweeney said, "We are very pleased that Mr. King will serve as this year's chairman. He is a lifelong resident of the South Boston-Dorchester area and is very active in the community with civic groups."

Chairman King voiced his hopes that "this year's contest will be the best ever" and urged all girls between the ages of 16 and 21 to enter the contest. He further stated, "If you have tried in the past, try again. If you have not tried, please enter now. Send a recent photograph, plus your name, address and telephone number to the Miss South Boston Contest, P.O. Box 74, South Boston, Mass."

MBTA INSPECTION TOUR

Two MBTA officials are on a three-week inspection tour of transit systems in European cities.

Chairman Henry S. Lodge and Warren J. Higgins, director of transportation, will visit London, Paris, and Moscow, which have the largest and most modern rapid transit systems in Europe.

The MBTA has been given a federal grant from the Department of Transportation to design a new trolley fleet for both Boston and the San Francisco systems.

The federal government will also provide funds to build the fleet, on a $2 to $1 matching basis.

FLOODING PRECAUTIONS

Louis F. Saba, State Director of Civil Defense and Office of Emergency Preparedness announced that flood-prone communities should prepare for potential flooding during the next two months.

His agency is working closely with the National Weather Service, Boston, and the River Forecast Center located at Hartford, Connecticut, to keep apprised of potential flooding due to erratic weather conditions experienced thus far.

Director Saba urges that local Civil Defense directors and heads of government which have experienced flooding from streams, rivers, and coastal waters immediately review plans, supplies, and equipment inventories essential to combat flooding.

Pumps, generators, sandbags, transportation, and personnel are essential to combat flooding. Local officials are urged to inspect their dams to insure that they are safe and clear of debris.

AUGMENTED MAIL ROUTES

The United States Postal Service will add twenty-eight additional mail routes to its new preferential mail network being developed to speed surface mail across the nation, Postmaster General E. T. Klassen announced on February 18.

The new truck routes, expected to be operational by April of this year, will bring to fifty-six the total number of highway and rail service routes comprising the system.

Postmaster General Klassen said that the network represents "a significant step in improving delivery service of all preferential items which include special delivery and special handling parcels, perishables, newspapers, magazines, and other time-value items."

The main purpose of each route is to reduce transit time and to provide a regular scheduled movement of mail shipments between major metropolitan areas, the postmaster general said.

"For example," Mr. Klassen said, "surface mail from Washington, D. C., to Los Angeles was previously routed through Kansas City, Missouri. Now, trailers are loaded at Washington for direct shipment to Los Angeles."

STAMP BUFFS

Postmaster George K. Walker said recently that he had been informed by the United States Postal Service that an 8-cent postage stamp to mark the 100th anniversary of Yellowstone National Park will be issued March 1 with dual first day ceremonies at the park site in Wyoming and in Washington, D. C.

This stamp will be the first of eight stamps in five denominations in the National Parks Centennial series to celebrate the first national park in the world. Plans are to complete issuance of the series by mid-summer. The stamps are designed for collection as a harmonious set and will point up the diversity of parks.

The United States Postal Service is making special arrangements for processing mail order requests for first-day cancellations of the Yellowstone stamp. Collectors should follow the special instructions being issued on how to submit their requests.

Yellowstone, which sprawls over 2,213,207 acres in northwestern Wyoming, eastern Idaho, and southwestern Montana, contains more geysers than the rest of the world combined. The star performer, "Old Faithful," will appear on the stamp.

Yellowstone and other elements in the far-flung system are administered by the National Park Service of the Department of the Interior.

Because of the small size of the post office and the uncertainty of the weather and the availability of personnel this season at Yellowstone Park, all mail order requests for first-day cancellations should be sent to "Yellowstone Stamp, Postmaster, Washington, D. C. 20013," with proper remittance enclosed. Special processing will be provided to expedite service,

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

FUEL OIL

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 25, 1971, bids for fuel oil were publicly opened and read in this office. No bids were received on 0.05 percent sulphur oil. Again on September 2, 1971, bids for fuel oil were publicly opened and read in this office. No acceptable bids were received on 0.05 percent sulphur oil which will be the legal maximum sulphur content acceptable effective October 1, 1971.

Under normal conditions, a price posted in the New York Journal of Commerce, Platt's Oil Gram, or any other publication recognized by leading national oil companies would be used as a basis for establishing a net price to the city. The price would fluctuate only as the whole industry's prices in this area would change. There is no common or comparable basis for making awards on the publicly advertised bids of September 2, 1971.

Since there is insufficient time to advertise this bid a third time; since major suppliers have indicated that they will be unable to bid any differently due to lack of a posted price and uncertainty of a sufficient quota of oil for this area; and since this has now become an emergency situation this office has been negotiating with petroleum and transportation companies to fulfill the needs of the city.

Satisfactory agreements have been reached for furnishing and delivering fuel oil to the city for various periods from October 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972. It is therefore requested that permission be granted me to reject all bids received on September 2, 1971, for fuel oil, dispense with further advertising, and award contracts, without public advertisement, to the following companies in amounts not to exceed those indicated. In my opinion, an award in this manner will be in the best interests of the city:

Gulf Oil Company, $874,000, net, 30 days. Price will be for pickup at Chelsea and will be the Gulf C.T.T. price posted at Chelsea on the day of pickup, less $.20 per barrel, or $.475 per barrel, October 1, 1971. The contract period will be from October 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972, with the privilege of extending to September 30, 1972.

Clen-Heat, Inc., $13,000, net, for delivery of heavy fuel oil from Chelsea to the various city departments under the same terms and conditions as their present contract expiring September 30, 1971. Price is not to exceed the legally established price for this area but at no time will it exceed $.0057 per gallon. Contract period will be from October 1, 1971, to December 31, 1971.

Bonded Oil Systems, Inc., $158,200, net, 30 days, for furnishing and delivering medium fuel oil to the various city departments from December 7, 1971, to March 31, 1972. Price will be posted Journal of Commerce price day of delivery plus $.87 per barrel for deliveries of 3,000 barrels or more and posted price plus $1.07 per barrel for deliveries less than 3,000 barrels. Total amount of contract is based on net prices of $5.57 and $5.77, respectively.

Metropolitan Petroleum Company of Massachusetts (Division of Pittscon Company), $134,960, 2 percent, time of payment, for furnishing and delivering heavy fuel oil to Deer Island House of Correction from October 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972. MIRACLE SOFTWARE PACKAGE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Boston City Hospital for the purchase of a miracle software package and a request to purchase this material, without advertising, from Republic Software Products, Inc. This equipment has been on rental from this company for $3,240 per year.

Total cost to the city would now be $5,600, less a credit of 50 percent of the last year's rental, $1,710, plus maintenance cost of $250 for a one year period, of $4,140.

By purchasing this equipment as requested an annual savings of $3,170 would be effected.

It is therefore requested that permission be granted me to dispense with public advertising for bids and to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Republic Software Products, Inc., for a miracle software package, as per detailed specifications to be included in the contract.

Total amount of contract is not to exceed $4,140, net.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

PARTS FOR ROCKWELL METERS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Traffic and Parking Department for parts for Rockwell meters. Rockwell Manufacturing Company, the manufacturer of these parts, has submitted an informal written quotation.

Since this company is not only the manufacturer but is also the only source of supply, in my opinion no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids. Authority is therefore requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Rockwell Manufacturing Company.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $8,580.50, net, 30 days.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

BOOKS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Model Cities Department for several sets of various books. An informal written quotation has been received from Arno Press, the only source of supply.

Permission is therefore requested to dispense with public advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Arno Press.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $3,040.50, net.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

WATER METER PARTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of requisitions from the Public Works Department for water meter parts for Hersey meters. These parts are for rebuilding Hersey meters and are not interchangeable. Hersey-Sparling Meter Company is the manufacturer of these parts.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Hersey-Sparling Meter Company.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $15,000, net.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CONSULTANT'S SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

Your Honor's approval is hereby requested to dispense with public advertising and engage the services of Mr. Horatio Bond, 65 Batterymarch Street, Boston, as a consultant for rewriting the Boston Fire Prevention Code.

Mr. Bond is retired from active service with the National Fire Protection Association and has forty years experience in writing and revising fire prevention codes. He has performed such services to the Boston Fire Department during the year 1971 and has completed approximately fifty percent of the fire code to date.

This contract for his services will enable Mr. Bond to complete the rewriting of the Boston Fire Prevention Code and insure his presence at City Council hearings on the adoption of the code.

I believe it will be in the best interests of the city to engage the services of Mr. Bond for a fee not to exceed $12,500.

Very truly yours,

JAMES H. KELLY,
Fire Commissioner.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT DIETITIANS

SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals on January 5, 1972, it was voted to renew, without advertising, the existing contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., which expires on December 31, 1971, under which the said corporation provided Boston City Hospital with professional registered ADA dietitians at a cost to the city not to exceed $37,000.

This department is still engaged in negotiations to have these positions classified under civil service and transferred to the City of Boston Compensation Plan. However, until this is accomplished, it is essential that such personnel are available to us in order that we might continue to comply with the recommendation of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

In our judgment a renewal of our contract with the aforesaid corporation to have them continue to provide us with these personnel for an additional three-month period (January 1, 1972, to March 31, 1972) at a cost not to exceed $25,000 is the most reasonable and expeditious way of handling this matter.

Accordingly your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,

JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT SUMMERTHING PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record in awarding to the Boston Foundation, Inc., a contract for the production and management of the 1971 Summerthing program. Under the terms of the proposed agreement, the Boston Foundation, Inc., will supply and produce 208 major performances in music, drama, dance, science, and plants, as well as supply performances of lesser scope in neighborhoods with the assistance of the local Neighborhood Arts Councils; and the cost to the city will not exceed $40,000.

The performances covered under this contract have not been covered under previous contract with the Boston Foundation, Inc. They include ten (10) zoomobiles; ten (10) tomorrowmobiles; fifty-six (56) puppet shows; thirty-nine (39) workshop-performances of African heritage; forty-nine (49) plantmobiles; thirty (30) popular music performances; and fourteen (14) performances of professional theatre and dance.

In view of the success of past programs of the Boston Foundation, Inc., it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT COPIER MACHINE

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby respectfully request your written authorization to dispense with a public solicitation for bids in the Boston City Record and, thereafter, to enter into a contract with the Xerox Corporation, with a place of business in Boston at 100 Charles River Plaza, providing for the furnishing and servicing of a Xerox 3600 I copier machine, during the period of April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, the total cost for the aforesaid machine and maintenance services for the entire contract period not to exceed $11,000. The following costs indicate that it would be advantageous to the city to use the Xerox 3600 I copier machine:

One to 10,000 copies, $.030 per copy; 10,001 to 15,000, $.0225 per copy; 15,001 to 25,000, $.014 per copy.

For the past six years the Xerox copier machine has been used by this department and is particularly suited to our needs. We are continually updating our equipment due to the increased demands, and the 3600 I copier machine has the unique capability of making exact copies of whatever is placed in the machine in the nature of written, printed, diagrammatic, or illustrative text or matter set forth on paper, and whether in the form of a single sheet, magazine, or bound book. The machine, which utilizes a dry reproduction process, automatically produces as many copies as desired. It does not require the use of specially treated or sensitized paper, but instead ordinary bond paper is used. The 3600 I Xerox copier reproduces at the rate of 3,600 copies per hour, allows two-side copying and requires less toner powder.

The Xerox copier is manufactured exclusively by the Xerox Corporation, Rochester, New York, and is the only copying machine that has all the features and capabilities outlined herein. Since the purchase of this machine is not feasible at the present time, it can be acquired only by execution by the city.

Inasmuch as the copy requirements for the proposed contract period are estimated and in the event that the actual number of copies or the actual operational expense may exceed estimates, it is my purpose, as such occasions may arise, to request your authorization to amend the proposed contract to increase the sum as may be necessary.

In view of the very technical nature of this equipment and because the design of same is such that it fills our particular needs, and since, as indicated, it has proved so very valuable to this department to date, I feel very strongly that publicly inviting bids therefor would not serve a useful purpose nor indeed be of any avail to the City of Boston.

Respectfully,

EDMUND L. McNAMARA,
Police Commissioner.

Hub's Water Rates Increased, Effective April 1

Public Works Commissioner Joseph F. Casazza on February 28, announced an increase in the city's water rates, the first such increase in eleven years, effective on all bills rendered on and after April 1.

The sewer use charge will remain unchanged at $1 per 1,000 cubic feet of water.

The new rate schedule represents an increase of 50 percent in the minimum rate for each meter size and an increase of about 67 percent in metered water use, according to Commissioner Casazza.

He said that because tax-exempt institutions are required to pay for water, it was fairer to increase water rates than to finance deficits out of real estate taxes, which are paid by only about 50 percent of the property owners in Boston.

Last year's water deficit of nearly $3 million required the addition of nearly $2 per $1,000 valuation to the tax rate, with the result that homeowners, businesses, and rent payers further subsidized the operation of tax-exempt institutions in the city.

"With the Water Division operating on a self-sustaining basis, tax-exempt institutions will be required to pull their fair share of the load," he explained.

"The new rate schedule, while developing sufficient revenue to meet an estimated 67 percent increase in costs over the next five years, will result in an increase of only 50 percent to many residential customers," the commissioner noted. "Most of these people, who represent about 40 percent of all Water Division accounts, will continue to find the minimum water allowance adequate for the largest portion of their needs."

The new rate schedule was proposed by Camp Dresser & McKee, consulting engineers, based on a study of Water Division costs and estimated revenue requirements over the next five years.

For the last three years, Water Division expenditures have exceeded revenue and the resultant deficit has been paid out of real estate taxes.

The Camp Dresser & McKee report noted: "Water Division costs can be expected to increase substantially in the coming years. The principal reasons for this increase are a probable increase in MDC rates (the city's cost of purchasing water from the MDC), higher salaries from collective bargaining, and rising costs for materials, equipment and contractual services."

The MDC is seeking legislative approval to hike the cost of water to the city to $160 from $120 per million gallons, Mr. Casazza said. In 1970, the city purchased 51.7 billion gallons of water from the MDC.

Water Division personnel costs have risen from $1.8 million in 1961

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

An estimated 1,100 friends of the late John J. Labanara, honored his memory by attending a $25-a-plate dinner at the John B. Hynes Auditorium, Monday evening, February 28. John, an aide to Mayor White and a member of the Building Department for three years, was murdered last October 20, on the day he received the thrilling news that he passed the Massachusetts Bar examination.

Contributions to the John J. Labanara Scholarship Fund will be used to finance students at Boston and Suffolk Universities. A standing ovation of respect was given to John's mother who was the honored guest, along with her son Fred and relatives.

Mayor White, honorary chairman of the dinner and the sole speaker, said of John "He was a young man, open, keen, alert, with a spirit of generosity that was warm and sometimes almost soft. He cared and was competitive. . . . I am very proud. I am proud for John Labanara that you came. We have come in good cheer and we can go with the knowledge that because of this night there will be more young men like John Labanara coming into our lives and making them happier."

to $2.9 million in 1971, an increase of 62 percent over the last ten years, according to the study. "This increase is even more significant when considering the total number of employees decreased from 333 to 277 during this period," the study noted.

The estimated operating cost of the Water Division for the current year, including the MDC increase, is $16 million, according to Mr. Casazza. Estimated revenue is $18.5 million, an increase of $8.5 million over the amount of water billed last year.

The average expenditures during the five-year period 1972-1976 is estimated to be $17.8 million.

The present and new rate schedules are shown in the following tables:

A Night to Remember . . .

A capable, diligent and hard working committee comprised of Fred Labanara, Miss Maureen Mallard, Chris Hansen, and Bob Bradley put it all together when they presented the following entertainment: "The Quarter Deck" group of young singers and dancers from the Boston Conservatory of Music; the entire cast of "Godspell"; and Gerald Senier, Boston's well-known tenor, who thrilled the audience with his flawless renditions of "Because" and "Moon River."

Harry Kolwin and his orchestra provided excellent music, and Dick Dray, one of Boston's better masters of ceremonies, performed his chores as though he were inspired. The food was delicious (Hart's caterers) and, happily, the weather turned clear and good.

Everything considered, it will be a night long remembered by all who attended this wonderful affair, for in giving to this most worthy cause they derived their own happiness.

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF BOSTON AS A CITY

To All Department Heads.

On Saturday, March 4, 1972, Boston observed its 150th anniversary as a city. The voters of Boston ratified a city form of government on March 4, 1822.

The Mayor was master of ceremonies at a special ceremony held on Friday, March 3, at 12:30 P.M., in the Exhibition Gallery at City Hall.

Boston's 150th birthday should not pass unnoticed, and the employees of the city should be part of any ceremony held to call attention to this historic occasion.

All department heads were urged to attend and to invite all their employees to participate in the observance. There was a huge cake baked especially for the birthday celebration, music, refreshments, posters, and the like.

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN, Director,
Administrative Services Department.

NEW APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED BY MAYOR

Mayor Kevin H. White announced on February 24, several top-level administrative changes as part of an overall reorganization plan designed to upgrade, expand, and streamline the delivery of city services.

Following is a list of changes:

— Clarence Jones, from executive director of the Youth Activities Commission to administrator of the Mayor's Office of Human Rights at a salary of $24,000. The position had been vacant since A. Reginald Eaves resigned to run for City Council.

— Paul McCaffery, from deputy commissioner of the Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly, to executive director of the Youth Activities Commission at a salary of $20,000 (requires the approval of the Commission).

— Edward C. Dwyer, from director of the Office of Public Service to commissioner of the Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly (present commissioner's salary of $15,000 will be raised with the approval of the City Council).

— Joseph B. Karrissey, from commissioner of the Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly to the newly created position of executive secretary to the Commission at a salary of $15,000 (council approval is required for the new position).

— Fred Salvucci, from deputy director of the Office of Public Service to acting director of the Office of Public Service at his current salary of $18,500.

— Rick Borten, from special assistant, Mayor's Office, to executive director of the Consumer Affairs Council at a salary of $16,000. Samuel Spencer, the current executive director, returns full time to the Law Department.

"I have carefully evaluated the qualifications of the individuals in preparation for this portion of the reorganization," the Mayor said.

"I am convinced that those named today will bring to their new assignments not only a record of accomplishment and trust but a fresh insight into the problems of the people they serve and new ideas for solutions to those problems.

"I believe it is good business practice to periodically reassign top-level management personnel with the hope that the new men will view their assignments from a new perspective and provide the stimulus for change and new approaches to our everyday efforts."

The Mayor said other changes would be announced over the next several months and that his decision to reorganize and expand the operation of the Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly was based on the observation that many of the city's 90,000 elderly were living out their years in poverty, sorrow, and loneliness.

"The federal, state, and city governments have, in recent years, recognized the peculiar problems of the elderly and have made attempts, through various programs, to provide solutions," the Mayor said. "Unfortunately, the people we are hoping to serve are either uninformed or misinformed, and that is the first thing I hope to change.

"In addition, we hope, for example, to improve upon existing programs, such as the food surplus and elderly hot-lunch programs, and to tailor our present and future efforts in order to take maximum advantage of federal funding," he explained.

BPL NEVER TOO LATE INFORMATION

Senior adults over age sixty are invited to join others who believe it is "never too late." Membership in the group is free and it brings with it advance notice in the mail of many interesting events. All one needs to do is to "sign up" at one of the programs. Adults of all ages are welcome to attend any of the group's programs.

The Never Too Late Group at Boston's Central Library was founded in 1950 with a membership of eighty-five adults and, now, there is a membership of several hundred. Groups have been formed at the branch libraries as a result of the original group's popularity.

COMMISSIONER CURTIS LAUDED

Joseph E. Curtis, Boston's Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, received the Louis Brownlow Memorial Fund award of recognition in a ceremony which took place in the Commissioner's office on February 23.

Mr. Curtis's article "Park Programs on a Bare-Bones Budget" appeared in the December, 1971, issue of American City Magazine. The article reported Boston's development of community participation to supplement a current reduction in park personnel. For this story, Commissioner Curtis was named to receive $250.

Mr. Brownlow, whom the award honors, served cities in many ways. During his lifetime he was a journalist, a commissioner of the District of Columbia, as well as one of the nation's first city managers. Following his death in 1963, a Memorial Fund was established and administered by friends in institutions he influenced during his outstanding career. These awards recognized innovations and improvements produced by the professional advancement of public service.

The Brownlow Award Committee announced the termination of awards with the 1971 presentation. The final recognition award would be granted to a person submitting an outstanding article to the American City Magazine on the subject of public administration, selected by the editors. Commissioner Curtis's article describes a professional response and innovation to economic restraints by enhancing participatory, representative government in contrast to accepting declining service and despair.

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL EXPERIMENT

To help break the lockstep effect of United States education, the Harvard Law School is offering delayed admission to eighty men and women this year.

In effect, people who have been wholly engrossed in their own schooling for sixteen years will be offered the opportunity to take a year or two off before beginning professional studies.

The experiment will offer eighty successful applicants to the Law School class entering next fall the option of waiting a year or two before beginning legal studies. They will be free to enter Harvard Law School in 1972, 1973, or 1974. The eighty will be selected at random from those admitted who have had no substantial break in their sixteen years of schooling through college.

The experiment developed from the observation of a number of people at the Law School. Russell A. Simpson, director of admissions, said that, "On the whole, people

This year, the admissions committee simply is asking the eighty selected new students "to think seriously" about taking a year or two off. Mr. Simpson is writing to them:

"We believe that the startling upward trend in competition for places in our entering classes may well have led many applicants to enroll immediately when their personal preferences and interests would have been to do something else for a year or two before beginning law school."

Harvard Law School, which last year had 6,400 applications, expects this year's applications to reach the 7,000-8,000 range. Although the deadline for application was March 1, some 4,470 applications had been received by the end of January.

MBTA INITIATES NEW SERVICE

The MBTA will launch a new cross-town bus line late next month, primarily for poor patients who want to go directly from the Boston City Hospital area to the hospital complex clustered around Harvard Medical School.

Outpatients who are referred by doctors at City Hospital or the BU Medical Center to one of the Longwood Avenue-Brookline Avenue hospitals must now change vehicles at least once and pay two fares. Disabled patients often take taxis, whose fares are paid by the Welfare Department.

The new line will be called the Dudley-Fenway route, and Schedules Superintendent J. Willard Burditt said the buses will tentatively follow Washington and Ruggles Streets, and Huntington, Longwood, and Brookline Avenues.

He said half-hour service, from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. is contemplated initially.

The Fenway area institutions to be directly served include Children's Beth Israel, Boston Lying-In, Deaconess, and Peter Bent Brigham Hospitals.

NUTRITION DISCUSSION AT BPL

"Nutrition for Senior Adults" is the topic of a talk to be given by Dr. Jean Mayer, distinguished Professor of Nutrition at Harvard University, at a program sponsored by the Never Too Late Group of the Boston Public Library on Thursday, March 9, at 2 P.M., in St. Andrew's Hall, Trinity Church Parish House, Copley Square.

Dr. Mayer recently served as Chairman of the Nutrition Division of the 1971 White House Conference on Aging and his presentation will include the recommendations from that conference. Author of a book entitled Overweight: Causes, Cost and Control (1969), Dr. Mayer also has two books ready for publication in 1972 and will be sharing some of his ideas from the forthcoming books.

Recognized as a stimulating and authoritative speaker, Dr. Mayer has had an outstanding career as a researcher and teacher as well as lecturer in the field of human nutrition. He led a technical mission to wartime Biafra in 1969. As the Chairman of the National Council on Hunger and Malnutrition in the United States, he had a major role in calling the nation's attention to the nutritional problems of the poor in America.

The meeting is open to the public and is free to all.

DECLARATION OF AGING RIGHTS

Humanity's fundamental rights are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. They are rights that belong to all, without regard for race or creed or sex. We declare that all people also inalienably possess these rights without regard for age.

As love and nourishment are due the infant, as education and guidance are due the child, as freedom to work and build and lead are due the grown man and woman, so also are certain conditions of justice due our older or retired citizens. Among these, we declare to be:

1. The right to live with sufficient means for decency and self-respect.
2. The right to move about freely, reasonably, and conveniently.
3. The right to pursue a career or interest without penalty founded on age.
4. The right to be heard on all matters of general public interest.
5. The right to maintain health and well-being through preventive care and education.
6. The right to receive assistance in times of illness or need or other emergency.
7. The right to peace and privacy as well as participation.
8. The right to protection and safety amid the hazards of daily life.
9. The right to act together to seek redress of their grievances.
10. The right to live life fully and with honor — not for their age, but for their humanity.

This declaration is the sense of overwhelming numbers of older Americans on the occasion of the 1971 White House Conference on Aging, and to it they dedicate their solemn purpose.

T BUS SERVICE CELEBRATES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

In observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the first motor bus to operate in Boston on February 24, 1922, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority displayed a brand new air-conditioned, anti-pollution bus and a vintage bus at City Hall Plaza on February 24 and 25.

A brief ceremony was held on Thursday, February 24, to open the display to the public. Participating in the opening were MBTA General Manager Joseph C. Kelly and Edward Dana, who was general manager of the old Boston Elevated Railway when it instituted Boston's first bus service fifty years ago.

That first service was operated with two buses on a mile and a half route between Union Square, Allston, and the North Beacon Street Bridge over the Charles River. Today, the MBTA operates 179 routes with 1,219 buses in sixty-three cities and towns.

The new bus is the first of 165 new air-conditioned, 46-passenger buses to be delivered by the Flxible Company, Loudonville, Ohio, low bidder for a 300-bus order. The remainder of the order includes eighty-five air-conditioned 39-passenger buses and fifty air-conditioned 49-passenger suburban buses. In addition, the Authority plans to buy ten compact-size buses for twenty-five passengers.

Equipped with antipollution devices, the buses are being purchased by the Authority with a two-thirds federal transit aid grant of $8.1 million from the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, Department of Transportation. The remaining one-third financing is from the Authority's first bonding authorization granted by the General Court in 1964. The new buses, when delivery is completed in June, will permit the Authority to replace overage and obsolete vehicles and to expand operations of the bus fleet.

The vintage bus is a 1934 model that was operated on Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company routes that are now part of the MBTA's bus system. The thirty-eight-year-old bus was loaned to the Authority for the fiftieth anniversary observance by the Seashore Trolley Museum at Kennebunkport, Maine.

Fire Lieut. Robert H. Donovan, Engine Company 52.

At 1600 hours on February 1, 1972, the department responded to a fire at 15 Fermoy Heights Avenue, Dorchester. Upon arrival at the location, heavy smoke was billowing from the first-floor windows. Fire Lieut. Donovan and Fire Fighter Kilduff threw a 16-foot ladder to a window, climbed the ladder, and entered through the window, followed by Fire Fighter Cusack of Ladder Company 23.

After groping through heavy smoke and heat, a person was found unconscious on a bed. Fire Fighter Cusack carried the victim from the back bedroom through the apartment to the outside, and Fire Lieut. Donovan and Fire Fighter Kilduff continued their search until they found another victim unconscious in another bedroom. This person was also carried to the outside.

The foregoing rescue work was performed without the use of air masks and before charged hose lines could be placed in operation or complete ventilation effected.

The following letter received by his Honor, the Mayor, is published for the information of the department:

"January 17, 1972.

MY DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I would like to take this opportunity to commend to you the actions of both the Boston Fire and Police Departments at the scene of the Tudor Nursing Home fire on South Huntington Avenue, Jamaica Plain, on the night of January 16, 1972.

Under the most adverse conditions of subfreezing weather and faced with the problem of saving some forty to fifty elderly patients, many of whom were not ambulatory, both the firemen and policemen worked diligently and effectively.

Not only did they evacuate each and every patient safely, but they also extended every courtesy to the relatives of these patients who arrived anxious and concerned about their loved ones.

During these days when men such as these are subjected daily to the abuses from various segments of the public, it is most gratifying to me that they can still exhibit this genuine concern for the safety and welfare of the people of Boston.

My wife and I wish to thank publicly these kind, considerate gentlemen who wear the uniform of the Boston Fire and Police Departments.

Very truly yours,

TIMOTHY F. GALVIN, *Acting Principal,
Elihu Greenwood School.*"

"Chapter 52

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority Emergencies

52.1 In this chapter the word, 'emergencies,' shall be construed as fires, accidents, attempted suicides, or any other situation in or on MBTA property requiring the immediate response of the fire department.

I. Fire Department Procedure

52.2 When the Fire Alarm Office receives notification from a person, other than an MBTA employee, of an emergency in or on MBTA property, the Fire Alarm Office shall alert the MBTA of such condition and furnish the MBTA with all pertinent information available.

52.3 Upon arrival at the emergency the name of the officer in charge shall be given to the Fire Alarm Operator who will relay said name to the MBTA dispatcher. Any change of officer in charge shall also be given to the Fire Alarm Operator. This is necessary, because the MBTA is instructed to honor requests for shutting off and restoring power, and other necessary requests only from the officer in charge at the scene of the emergency.

52.4 When the fire department responds to an emergency in which there may be danger of personal contact with live electrical equipment, such as a 'third rail,' the officer in command at the scene shall order the power in the affected area shut off. This may be done by notifying the Fire Alarm Office via department radio. The name of the officer ordering the power shut off must be given. The officer in command should bear in mind that requests for power shut off many times involves considerable inconvenience to the riding public and the MBTA, especially during rush hours. Therefore, power shut off should not be requested when a fire involves only smoldering papers, track ties, etc., in which it would not be necessary for fire department personnel to be near live electrical equipment. When only a small fire is involved it may be advisable to allow elevated and subway trains to proceed to the nearest station to discharge passengers before requesting power shut off. It should be understood that when the third rail power is cut, it does not necessarily shut off all lighting and lighting feeder cables in stations and tunnels.

52.5 Upon receipt of such message, the Fire Alarm Office shall notify the MBTA dispatcher, giving the name of the officer ordering the shut off.

52.6 Initially, the MBTA may have to cut the power to a much larger area than is necessary, thus interrupting passenger service considerably. In such case, an MBTA official at the scene may request permission to restore power on a portion of the line beyond the affected area for the purpose of moving trains and/or cars and passengers away from the scene of the emergency and to lessen passenger danger and inconvenience. Such request shall be honored by the fire department officer in command, if advised by an MBTA official that it is safe to do so.

52.7 Fire department personnel shall not enter or work in the immediate area of live electrical equipment until the officer in command has been informed by the Fire Alarm Office or a responsible MBTA official that the power has been shut off. This shall not preclude attempts by the fire department personnel to rescue endangered persons, provided all reasonable precautions against contact with live electrical equipment is taken.

52.8 Fire department equipment shall not be placed on or against elevated structures until live electrical equipment has been shut off. This rule applies particularly to metal ladders.

52.9 The officer in command at an emergency in which the power has been shut off shall order the power restored as soon as conditions permit so that passenger service may be resumed at the earliest possible moment. Said officer may not necessarily be the same officer who ordered the power shut off. The name of the officer ordering the power restored must be given to the MBTA dispatcher.

52.10 Authorized personnel of the MBTA have been issued official passes by the Fire Commissioner which permits them to be admitted within the fire lines. Such personnel can be of assistance to the fire department at an emergency involving MBTA property and equipment. The officer in charge at the scene shall permit such officials within the fire lines to assist, if in his opinion, their health or life would not be placed in jeopardy.

52.11 When it becomes necessary for fire department personnel to stop an approaching train, the recognized MBTA method is to swing a light from side to side horizontally.

52.12 In addition to procedures as herein set forth, fire department personnel shall be guided by instructions distributed to the department by the Training Research Division.

II. MBTA Procedure

52.13 At an emergency involving MBTA equipment, a request from an official of the fire department to any employee of the MBTA shall receive immediate attention.

52.14 Upon receipt of a power cut request from the Fire Alarm Office, the MBTA dispatcher shall immediately order the power off in the affected area. He shall also dispatch the MBTA Emergency Crew to the scene.

52.15 When definitely assured that power is off, the MBTA dispatcher shall notify the Fire Alarm Office.

52.16 The MBTA Emergency Crew, upon arrival at scene of emergency, shall report to the officer in command and be guided by his instructions. They shall be on the alert to prevent trains from bridging over into dead sections. They shall constantly use test lamps at all emergencies involving third rails, and other electrical equipment.

52.17 The fire department officer in command at the time it has been determined that the power can be restored is authorized to order the power restored. Said officer may not necessarily be the officer who had ordered the power shut off.

52.18 When an MBTA employee discovers a fire involving a train, car, bus, or other vehicle or a fire in any MBTA property, he shall immediately notify the fire department by the most expeditious means available.

Additional instructions promulgated by the MBTA officials, with the approval of the Boston Fire Department are as follows:

A. Safety of Passengers

(1) When fire develops on a train, motorman must immediately determine if it is safe to proceed to the next station, stopping the train for inspection, if necessary. The train must not proceed to the next station, if it would involve entering a subway. A train on fire must be stopped short of any subway section. If it is impossible to reach a station where all passengers can be discharged, passengers must be removed from the burning car to other cars in the train, or, if a single car, to the roadway.

(2) If train cannot be moved, but fire and smoke conditions permit, dispatcher will arrange for a relief train to be moved into position and passengers evacuated into it. The relief train should be cleared of passengers before going to the disabled train's assistance.

(3) When conditions dictate immediate evacuation of train, power must be removed from all tracks in the area and the passengers evacuated to the roadbed by the train's end doors. Emergency ladders must be used when time permits.

(a) If, because of communications failure, power has not been removed, trainmen must keep all passengers clear of the third rails and adjacent tracks.

(b) Passengers must be escorted in an orderly manner to the nearest station platform, subway emergency exit, or point of safety.

(4) Dispatcher must hold all other trains clear of the burning train until it is known to be safe to advance them.

(5) If burning train is in a subway section and fire and smoke conditions are severe, all affected stations must be evacuated. Stations will then be closed to all but fire fighting and emergency MBTA personnel.

B. Combatting the Fire

(1) Dispatcher must arrange for fire department or fire fighting personnel to intercept burning train.

(2) After burning train has been evacuated, the following will apply:

(a) Do not move the train. Notify the dispatcher so that the third rail can be de-energized. Station must be evacuated and closed to safeguard the public and avoid interference with fire fighting operations. MBTA Police and

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

Boston Police will be requested to assist in the evacuation of the station.

(b) If a relief train has been used, dispatcher must not de-energize the third rail until the relief train has cleared the area.

(c) Trainmen on burning train must turn off all switches and apply handbrake(s) on burning car(s) as soon as possible. Handbrakes must be applied and battery and motor generator switches turned off in all other cars after the third rail is de-energized.

(d) If fire and smoke conditions permit, MBTA personnel at the scene will use available fire extinguishers to combat the fire until fire fighters arrive.

C. Continuation of Service

(1) Every effort must be made to maintain service as close to normal as possible, using as much of the line as remains open. The dispatcher must summon whatever assistance is required to effect this end.

(a) Trains must not be operated on tracks adjacent to the train on fire until the Train Dispatcher knows it is safe to do so. He will ascertain this by establishing reliable communications with the trainmen or supervisory personnel at the scene.

(2) The public must be kept accurately informed of the probable duration of any delays with periodic train and station announcements. Announcements must be made at five-minute intervals while delays persist.

(a) Use of the word 'fire' must be avoided in any train or station public address announcement."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

ICE CREAM CUPS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Parks and Recreation Department for 4,000 dozen ice cream cups.

There is insufficient time to advertise for delivery before Halloween. Sealed bids were received in this office and publicly opened and read on October 21, 1971, at 12 noon. Two bids were received.

Authority is therefore requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to the lower bidder, American Mobiles Corporation (a wholly owned subsidiary of H. P. Hood & Sons).

Total amount of contract is not to exceed $4,000, net.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

FIRE ALARM PARTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Fire Department for fire alarm parts for Gamewell fire alarm equipment.

R. B. Allen Co., Inc., has submitted an informal written quotation.

Since R. B. Allen Co., Inc., is the distributor for these parts and the only source of supply, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with advertising and award a contract, without public advertisement, to R. B. Allen Co., Inc.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $3,181.25, net, 30 days.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

WATER TOWER

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Fire Department for the purchase of one (1) "Squirt" stock unit model water tower. Maxim Motor Division of the Seagrave Corporation, the exclusive distributor in New England for the above piece of equipment, has submitted an informal written quotation.

The Snorkel Company is the manufacturer of the "Squirt." This special equipment is the only one available for immediate delivery. It will replace a twenty-three-year-old hose wagon and also a forty-year-old water tower. The amount of equipment we have available to fight fires in high-rise buildings is limited and we have an opportunity to purchase immediately a type of modern fire fighting apparatus which is not usually available.

Because of the foregoing facts and also the information contained in the letters received from the Fire Commissioner, copies of which are attached, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Maxim Motor Division of the Seagrave Corporation. In my opinion, the best interests of the city will be served by awarding the contract as requested.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $32,000, net, 30 days.

Respectfully yours,

KEVIN P. FEELEY,
Purchasing Agent.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT RENTAL AND SERVICING OF TYPEWRITER

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Acting under the authority of the Acts of 1966, chapter 642, section 2, the Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request, as I now do, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, from the Mayor, written permission to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record, in awarding a contract to International Business Machines Corporation, a New York corporation, duly licensed to do business in Massachusetts, with local offices at 900 Prudential Center, providing for furnishing on a rental basis, and servicing, one (1) magnetic card "selective" typewriter during the period April 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972, inclusive, at a total cost for the rental and maintenance services thereof not to exceed $2,100; and to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

This special machine has been and continues to be a most useful adjunct in the process of accomplishing certain voluminous and essential paper work here. We expect that this circumstance will continue to prevail.

In view of the fact that the subject machine is unique in its particular category, it is not considered that public advertising would be of any avail to the city in this instance.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

ARCHITECTURAL SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Facilities Commission authorized the undersigned to request in the Board's name and behalf, from the Mayor of Boston, written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement published in the city's official chronicle, the City Record, in awarding a contract to John Carl Warnecke and Associates, Architects, a California corporation, duly licensed to do business in Massachusetts, with offices at 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, to prepare working drawings, detailed specifications, and construction cost estimates for, and for the supervision of, construction of a garage building for the Public Works Department in the South Boston district of the city, at a cost for such services of 5.32 percent of the presently estimated cost of construction of $8,000,000, less the $158,750 fee previously paid John Carl Warnecke and Associates, for preparing the preliminary studies, the basic drawings, outline specifications, and construction cost estimates for the aforesaid building, the cost of the new proposed services not to exceed $361,850 including not in excess of $95,000 for supplementary services; and to execute such contract, in the name and on behalf of the Commission, upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The aforementioned architectural firm produced the preliminary studies and outline drawings and specifications for the subject project which have been formally approved. It is then, logical that the same firm be engaged by the city to prepare the final plans and specifications and to supervise construction of the subject garage building.

Since architects are paid in Boston at the same (uniform) rates and since the services rendered by them are professional in character, it is considered that nothing is to be gained here by publicly inviting open competitive bids for such services.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

APPRAISALS OF LAND AREAS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As one of the steps required to be taken in arranging for the acquisition of the land needed for the projected Southwest High School in the Hyde Park-West Roxbury, section of the city, appraisals must be made of the land areas involved.

Therefore, on January 19, 1972, the Public Facilities Commission voted authorizing the undersigned to request of your Honor, in its name and on its behalf, executive permission to dispense with public advertising in awarding to Reginald H. Gallagher, real estate appraiser, with offices at One Court Street, Boston, Mass., a contract to prepare and submit an appraisal report on the parcels of land outlined in red on a Public Works Department taking plan entitled American Legion Highway (Barry's Quarry) Hyde Park-West Roxbury, dated December 13, 1971, at a cost for such services not to exceed $3,500; and to authorize the Director to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The aforesaid consultant has specialized in appraisal work for the past thirty-five years; he is a member of both the Massachusetts Board of Real Estate Appraisers and the American Right of Way Association; and he has been retained by such public agencies as the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, the Metropolitan District Commission, the BRA, and the BHA.

In the light of the very special character of the services to be rendered here, coupled with the fact that the same are of a confidential nature as well, it does not appear that the public interest would best be served by an open solicitation for competitive bids.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As one of the actions needed to be taken in arranging for the acquisition of the land needed for the contemplated Margaret Fuller replacement school in the West Roxbury district of the city, appraisals must be made of the land areas involved.

Thus, recently, the Public Facilities Commission voted authorizing the undersigned to request your Honor, in its name and on its behalf, as I hereby do, executive permission to dispense with public advertising in awarding to John Sherman Cullen, a real estate appraiser, with offices at 24 School Street, Room 719, Boston, Mass., a contract to prepare and submit to the city an appraisal report on four (4) two-family houses, one (1) business site, five (5) parcels of unimproved real estate, and certain Boston Edison Company property, being situated on Glen Road, Forest Hills Street, and Washington Street, respectively, in the West Roxbury District of Boston, at a cost for such services not to exceed $3,100; and to authorize the Director to execute such contract in the name and on behalf of the Commission upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor.

The aforementioned appraiser has been engaged in appraisal work since 1946; he is a member of both the American Society of Appraisers and the Society of Real Estate Appraisers; and he has, at various times, received assignments from the G.S.A., the United States Departments of Justice and Interior, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, and from the BRA.

Since the services to be performed are of a unique character and due to the fact that they are also of a confidential nature, it is believed that public advertising here would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

ROBERT J. VEY,
Director.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

EMERGENCY FIRE ALARM WORK

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The excessive number of false alarms in the Boston schools during 1971 has created many serious problems which could endanger the health and safety of pupils, teachers, and other occupants in the schools. Because of this danger an emergency meeting was held by members of the State Department of Public Safety, the Boston Fire Department, and the Boston School Department. As a result of this meeting, and at the suggestion of the State Department of Public Safety and the Boston Fire Department, it was recommended that the present fire alarm stations be relocated into adjoining classrooms where the fire alarm stations could be monitored.

As time is of the essence because of the dangers involved this work has to be done on an emergency basis. Therefore I am awarding a contract, without advertising, to the Lentine Electric Service, Inc., 42-44 South Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for emergency fire alarm work at the Jeremiah E. Burke High School, 60 Washington Street, Dorchester, in an amount not to exceed thirty-five hundred dollars ($3,500).

Very truly yours,

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

EMERGENCY FIRE DAMAGE WORK

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

On Sunday evening, October 24, 1971, vandals broke into the Florence Nightingale School, Park Street, Dorchester, and caused extensive physical damage to the building and set fire to it. The fire completely gutted approximately one-third of the structure.

In order to protect the building from further acts of vandalism, and to protect the health, safety, and welfare of persons going near it, I am awarding a contract on an emergency basis, without public advertising, to John Palumbo Company, 60 West Dedham Street, Boston, Mass., for emergency fire damage work, including boarding up building, protective work, and disposal of debris, at the Florence Nightingale School, Park Street, Dorchester, in an amount not to exceed seven thousand one hundred dollars ($7,100).

Very truly yours,

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT ENGINEER'S SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Your approval is respectfully requested to engage the services of Planning, Engineering and Development, a Massachusetts consulting engineer, sole proprietorship, having an office at 5 King Philip Path, Hingham, Mass. 02043, to collect certain traffic counts for the Traffic and Parking Department during the period from April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973.

Also requested is your Honor's authorization to dispense with public advertising in the award of this contract. The proposed consultant's charges for this work were submitted to the undersigned in the form of a proposal dated January 20, 1972.

The consultant shall be paid on a monthly basis but in no event shall the maximum liability of the city under the terms of the proposed contract exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

In view of the very technical nature of the services involved, no useful purpose would, in my opinion, be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

ENGRAVING AND PRINTING CERTIFICATES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Security-Columbian Banknote Company, 240 Mt. Vernon Street, Boston, Mass. 02125 and the American Bank Note Company, Charles River Building, 131 Beverly Street, Boston, Mass. 02114 have submitted bids for 25,000 City of Boston $5,000 bond heads in wing form which will provide for up to eighty (80) coupons, the bond certificates and coupons to be in substantially the same form as model available for inspection at the office of the Collector-Treasurer, the text, border, city seal, vignette of City Hall, etc., to be steel engraved per our specifications, to be used in connection with the issuance of various loans.

Security-Columbian Banknote Company has submitted a bid of $0.41 each, or $10,250, for engraving and printing 25,000 certificates carrying up to eighty (80) coupons, with imprinting charges as follows:

Base charge for imprinting first two hundred (200) bonds including one (1) interest rate and one (1) maturity, $610; imprinting charge for each additional bond over two hundred (200), $0.22; for each purpose change, $85; for each interest rate change, $30; for each maturity per purpose, $7.

On sample illustrative loans used to determine the low bidder, the total cost to the city would be $19,189.

American Bank Note Company has submitted a bid of $0.42 each, or $10,500, for engraving and printing 25,000 certificates carrying up to eighty (80) coupons, with imprinting charges as follows:

First two hundred (200) bonds and requisite coupons, including one (1) purpose and one (1) interest rate, plus $5 for each maturity, $400; additional bonds and coupons imprinted, etc., at same time, 28 cents each; each additional purpose, $100; each additional interest rate, $35.

All prices are net, f.o.b., Treasurer's Office, City Hall, Boston, Mass. or the Signature Company, New York, New York.

On sample illustrative loans used to determine the low bidder, the total cost to the city would be $19,821.

These companies are the two largest engravers of bonds in the country. Since no purpose will be served by publicly advertising I respectfully request approval to award a contract, without advertising, to the Security-Columbian Banknote Company, the low bidder for 25,000 City of Boston $5,000 coupon bond certificates which will provide for up to eighty (80) coupons at a cost of $10,250, with additional imprinting charges at the following rates:

Base charge for imprinting first two hundred (200) bonds including one (1) interest rate and one (1) maturity, $610; imprinting charge for each additional bond over two hundred (200) $0.22; for each purpose change, $85; for each interest rate change, $30; for each maturity per purpose, $7.

Very truly yours,
EDMUND W. HOLMES,
Collector-Treasurer.

ROOM AND BOARD FOR CAMPERS

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Your permission is requested to award a grant of $2,500 to the Cranmore Mountain Lodge, Kearsarge, New Hampshire, for room and board for fifty campers for the weekend of July 16, 1971, and the period of August 16 to 18, 1971.

Funds can be provided from the Summer Recreation Support Program to cover the cost of the grant.

This will enable the Youth Activities Commission to continue its ongoing summer recreation program for inner city youth.

Cranmore Mountain Lodge was selected without public bidding since it could accommodate a large group of campers on short notice and offered a large variety of activities at low cost to the city.

Respectfully,

CLARENCE J. JONES,
Executive Director.

SUFFOLK COUNTY

Registry of Deeds

COPYING MACHINES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with writing proposals of advertisement in the Boston City Record and to award to the Xerox Corporation a contract for the supply and maintenance of two Xerox copying machines during the period April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed $4,200 which I believe is fair and reasonable.

In view of the quality of the machine and service to be provided, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH D. COUGHLIN,
Register of Deeds.

MICROFILMING AND PRINTING SERVICE

YOUR HONOR:

At the present time the Suffolk Registry of Deeds is using the electro duplex recording system for the microfilming and printing along with the loose-leaf bookbinding of its records. This service is being furnished by the firm of Hall & McChesney, Inc., P. O. Box 591, Syracuse, New York.

The use of this service by this office results in a substantial savings in the bookbinding account and provides for the prompt availability of the records for the use of the public. At the present time I believe this is the only firm furnishing this service.

This company has submitted an informal quotation of forty cents ($0.40) per sheet including binding of each 375 sheets on an estimated use of 34,000 sheets.

Therefore, for the foregoing reasons I respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and to engage the services of Hall & McChesney, Inc., P.O. Box 591, Syracuse, New York, by contract in the total sum not to exceed thirteen thousand six hundred dollars ($13,600), to furnish the electro duplex recording system and loose-leaf bookbinding service as requested during the contract period of April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, at the price of forty cents ($0.40) per sheet.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH D. COUGHLIN,
Register of Deeds.

Patient Food Service Upgraded at BCH

Hot food for patients! More palatable menus! Better control of special diets! Elimination of food shortages! All of these are improvements instituted over the past four months at BCH by a team of specialists. Harold A. McCrensky & Associates, Inc., a management consulting firm, was engaged by the hospital to improve food services and to plan a system for the future that will assure continual high quality meals and dietary services.

The consultants are using a unique approach in that its staff has its own registered A.D.A. dietician who works along with industrial engineers and management specialists for improvement of food services. At the present time one of their senior consultants, Mrs. Mary McCrensky, is the acting chief dietician for the Boston City Hospital. This combination of engineering-dietary talent is particularly important to meet the needs at BCH because its problems relate both to the need to establish high standards of food service and also to engineer improvement of the food handling system.

Mrs. McCrensky has concentrated on the therapeutic and quality control aspects. She has worked closely with the hospital's seven R.D. therapeutic dieticians who maintain that "Good nutrition is a major part of patient therapy and adherence to special diets requires the same control as providing medication."

At Boston City Hospital the professional dieticians attend rounds with the physicians and nurses so that there is maximum assurance that the proper nutritional care is provided for every patient.

Mrs. McCrensky comments, "Boston City Hospital can be very proud of its fine team of R. D. dieticians who are skilled in the medical application of the therapeutic diet. Our dieticians see that the prescription by the doctor for a modified diet is fulfilled. Just as important is the fact that the dieticians counsel and teach the patient how to follow their diet so that they can properly continue the meal patterns at home upon discharge."

Concurrently with the "dietary" control of food, Jay Gould of the McCrensky staff has been working on the food handling system. With the cooperation of Joseph Day, BCH food service manager and his staff, Mr. Gould has engineered and installed new methods that make it possible to maintain the fine quality of the food as it leaves the kitchen. The kitchen now has a schedule for last-minute loading of food items onto trucks and for rapid transportation to wards, thereby reducing the time for delivery of the food to the twenty-seven wards. In addition, the kitchen uses an improved method to determine accurate patient census each day on each ward. This method, combined with new techniques for portion control, assures correct amounts of food for each ward and minimizes food shortages on the trucks.

Along with the present improvements of the current system, the consultants have made a thorough engineering study of the present food handling in comparison to alternate systems. Their report strongly recommends a centralized system which it is hoped will be installed within the next few months.

With centralized service, a personalized meal will be assembled for each patient in the main kitchen, delivered in the wards in an insulated tray and served to the patient with a minimum of handling.

The proposed new system will enable a better control of regular and therapeutic diets since the individual tray for each patient will be under the direct supervision of professional dieticians. "Every member of the dietary department of our hospital is continually striving to make improvements so that patients will have the maximum opportunity to enjoy each meal," Mrs. McCrensky said.

IMPROVED HOUSING FOR ELDERLY

Funding this fiscal year of a record total of over 20,000 units of measurably improved, specially designed FHA insured housing for the lower-income elderly has been facilitated by new HUD-FHA procedures, according to Secretary George Romney of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Older Americans will have the benefit of this better housing, including improved livability and more social and recreational facilities. Under the newly issued FHA instructions, there will be greater variety in building types, including high-rise structures, and more flexibility in having the option of suburban or central city locations.

"We are consolidating and redirecting our efforts," Secretary Romney said, "to focus more intensively on improving the quality of daily living for our older citizens through producing housing that is more responsive to their needs.

"Moreover," Mr. Romney said, "since elderly and handicapped people must spend much of their time within the project, suitable social and recreational amenities are essential to their well-being."

Another benefit expected from these procedures involves recognition that elderly housing projects may warrant higher staff and operating budgets than projects for younger age groups.

The procedures to be followed, as administrative blending of a number of features of existing programs, are contained in a circular issued to HUD field offices. Recognizing higher construction costs often incurred in providing specially designed housing for the elderly, HUD in some areas will be using higher mortgage and unit cost limits than are normally used for multifamily subsidized construction for family units. To accommodate such higher construction cost levels, HUD will permit in certain circumstances a modification of customary project feasibility determination rules.

EVACUATION DAY

A famous event in Boston's history took place on March 17, 1776, Evacuation Day. Except for defeat in Canada, the American colonists were holding their own against the British forces. The colonial forces in Boston were stronger than ever despite the lack of guns and ammunition.

Fortunately, cannons and ammunition arrived to add an ironic touch to the triumph; for the guns which Ethan Allen had captured from the British at Fort Ticonderoga almost a year before were available for use against the invaders.

During the winter, the American troops, commanded by Colonel Henry Knox, hauled the cannons over wilderness trails on sledges drawn by oxen. By early March, 1776, the captured cannons were mounted on Dorchester Heights, South Boston, and were made ready for action.

Viewing the awesome sight of these cannons aimed directly at their ships, the British invaders realized that their occupation of Boston must cease at once. They evacuated Boston, March 17, 1776, and set sail for Nova Scotia. It was a great victory for General George Washington, for the British never again returned to that area.

NEW "T" CONTRACT SIGNED

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) have informally approved a new contract with Division 589-Amalgamated Transit Union, effective January 1, 1972, through December 31, 1972. Informal board approval came the day after the membership of Division 589 had approved the new contract. The contract is still subject to approval by the Advisory Board to the MBTA.

The new contract, affecting some 4,200 employees, will cost the Authority approximately $2 million during the life of the contract.

BCH ACCREDITED

Statement of Mayor Kevin H. White.

While I am obviously pleased that the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals has accredited Boston City Hospital for another year, I am hesitant to accept this as a total victory.

The Commission, along with its letter of accreditation, recommended improvement in several areas of the hospital. We will comply. One year from now, there must not be, and I will not accept, any excuses.

This Administration has demonstrated its commitment to Boston City Hospital, where it really counts, with money to properly staff, operate, and rebuild the hospital. This year alone, I have recommended an increase of more than $5 million in the hospital budget.

Let me assure those who use the hospital and those who serve its patients, that we will endeavor to implement each and every recommendation to insure a full two-year certification when the Commission makes its next inspection a year from now.

"T" SEEKS FEDERAL FUNDS FOR IMPROVEMENTS

The Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) recently approved the filing of a capital facilities grant application with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA) of the United States Department of Transportation (DOT) in the amount of $1,573,147 to modernize six elevated stations on the Orange Line — Dover, Northampton, Dudley, Egleston, Green, Forest Hills — and to construct a new police-maintenance department building and a new revenue department building.

The total project cost for these improvements will be $2,359,720 with the local matching share of $786,573 made available from the recently approved increased bonding authority.

Modernization of the six old elevated stations (the rapid transit line to Forest Hills opened in 1919), will include system information and directional graphics, new fare collection and waiting room facilities, improved lighting, fencing and ventilation, and structural improvements such as straightening the Dudley loop.

The police-maintenance building will provide a well equipped, centrally located site for the Authority's police force allowing the unit to move from the cramped quarters in Dudley Street Station. It will also provide a maintenance storage depot and housing facility for signal, power, and structural maintenance crews.

The revenue building will provide sorely needed space to accommodate revenue department personnel such as receivers, auditors, and administrative and clerical workers as well as adequate parking facilities for the trucks assigned to this department.

The above improvements represent phase one of an on-going program to rehabilitate the Authority's older facilities. It is estimated that completion of this first phase will take one and one half years from the start of actual construction.

75th FOR MUNICIPAL PRINT SHOP CHAPEL

The Municipal Printing Plant was established in March of 1897 by Mayor Josiah Quincy for the purpose of supplying the city's printing needs. Mayor Hugh O'Brien was one of the four founders of Boston Typographical Union No. 13 and served as secretary-treasurer of the local.

The City Printing Plant (James J. Duffy, Superintendent) has the most up-to-date typesetting equipment, printing presses and bindery machinery available. The plant is capable of supplying the city with all its printing needs from business cards and social announcements to legal briefs, annual reports and brochures. Many of the city's printing needs are unique in that they are required by law to be printed, but the small quantity needed is not considered worth the trouble of outside commercial printers. The plant at 174 North Street, employs a total of eighty persons including compositors, proofreaders, pressmen, bindery workers, office staff, and maintenance men.

The City Record (edited by Joseph Fahey) is printed weekly and is the official chronicle of the City of Boston. Through the City Record, advertisements for bids on city contracts are published, also notice of awarding of contracts, tax abatements and sales, building, gas, and plumbing permits. All the news from City Hall and the Mayor's Office is printed weekly along with Fire and Police Department orders and department changes.

The members of the chapel are proud of their plant and its seventy-five-year history.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY BOSTON; YOU IMPROVE WITH AGE

On Friday, March 3, Boston celebrated its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary as a city — the oldest in Massachusetts and one of the oldest in the nation. For almost two hundred years, since the first settlers set foot in Boston in 1630, the capital of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, famous for Paul Revere, the Minutemen, Bunker Hill, and the Adamases, had been a town governed by selectmen.

Then, on March 4, 1822, by the tenuous majority of 916 votes, the eligible residents of Boston voted to convert their government to a city and later that year elected their first mayor, John Phillips. In fact, in 1822, a total of 4,678 voters participated in that decision and, by contrast, the least populous of Boston's twenty-two wards today, Ward 9, has approximately 700 fewer voters.

In 1822, Boston consisted of what is known today as Beacon Hill, downtown, South End, East Boston, and Brighton on the mainland and had recorded an official population in 1810 of 33,787.

To celebrate the city's one hundred and fiftieth birthday, one day early so that all municipal employees could participate, a huge cake in the shape of City Hall and bearing 150 lighted candles was ordered by the Mayor. Children of the city employees from various departments joined the Mayor in the strenuous task of extinguishing the conflagration.

All city employees, department heads, and city councillors were invited by the Mayor to the plaza area on the third floor of City Hall at 12:30 P.M. Friday, to witness the ritual and to sample the cake and other refreshments.

Members of the cast of "Godspell" performed several numbers from their rock musical show that has been presented so successfully in Boston for 100 performances. Other music also was provided to enliven the festivities. Refreshments were available from 12:30 until 2:30 P.M.

OPERATION POTHOLE

Public Works Commissioner Joseph F. Casazza announced on March 7, that thirty-seven trucks and work crews have started to wage the annual battle against the motorist's fiercest enemy, the pothole.

For the first time, Mr. Casazza said, private contractors have been hired this year to supplement the city's force of twenty-five trucks assigned to pothole filling. Additional trucks, which during the winter months carry road-salting equipment, will be converted for patching work as spring draws closer, he explained.

At least three work crews, initially, have been assigned to each of the ten public works districts, and the annual task, which costs the city approximately $500,000, will continue daily throughout the city, weather permitting.

Trucks and crews will work their way through the city, beginning with the most heavily travelled streets in each district. Mr. Casazza noted, however, that many of the most travelled arteries are under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Public Works or the MDC.

Serious road conditions should be reported immediately to the local Little City Halls, he added.

ANNIVERSARY OF BOSTON

Coun. Piemonte offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The voters of the Town of Boston did, on March 4, 1822, by popular vote, accept chapter 110 of the Statutes of 1821, an act "Establishing the City of Boston";

Whereas, Boston thus became the first city in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and

Whereas, Saturday, March 4, 1972, commemorates the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Boston as a city; and

Whereas, A city is notable for the deeds of its citizens and for the civic and cultural contribution to the welfare of a nation; and

Whereas, In this respect Boston well deserves the title of the Athens of America; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That his Honor Mayor Kevin H. White is hereby requested to take appropriate steps to note the anniversary of the one hundred and fiftieth birthday of our great city; and be it

Resolved, That the city's Division of Cultural Affairs be and is hereby directed for and on behalf of the Mayor and the Boston City Council to prepare and present to the public a program and exhibit in the City Hall, giving honor and recognition to the cultures and achievements of our forebears; and

May we always be reminded of, and give voice to the prayer for, this beloved city on the official seal from 1 Kings, VIII, 57:

"God Be With Us As He Was With Our Fathers."

In City Council February 28, 1972. Adopted.

Attest:

J. M. Dunlea, City Clerk.

UNDERWATER BREATHING MASKS

Surgical masks are standard costumes in operating rooms. But scuba gear may be the next style.

At Indiana University Hospital in Indianapolis, operating room personnel wear surgical masks connected to respirator systems that function like scuba masks. Air is supplied, while exhaled carbon dioxide is directed away from the operating area. A gentle breeze of sterile air is blown constantly over the patient.

Scientists are looking for ways to increase man's ability to breathe underwater without masks. At the University of Marseilles in France, Dr. Jacques Chouteau kept two goats alive for a full day in a pressure chamber simulating conditions 300 yards underwater. The unusual aspect of the experiment was that a cylinder filled with a gas called potassium superoxide kept re-converting just the right amount of oxygen in the chamber.

One day man can live under the sea if he can figure out how to breathe just the right combination of gases.

To find out more about the many problems of breathing above water, contact your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. It really is a matter of life and breath.

TOP O' THE MORNING

Saint Patrick (389?-461), Ireland's patron saint, whose special day the Irish celebrate on March 17 with their annual parade through South Boston, was reputed to have been born in England. He lived in Southwestern Britain and was educated as a Christian.

When he was sixteen years old, a group of Irish raiders took him as a slave to Ireland. After serving in Ireland for six years as a swineherd, he escaped in a ship bound for Gaul, France. He later became a monk and then returned to his home in Britain.

After his return, he dreamed one night that a man came to him with a paper bearing these words, "The voice of the Irish," and at the same time he heard the Irish calling, "We pray thee, holy youth, to come again and walk amongst us as before."

Beloved Patrick then decided this was a missionary call to Ireland. He returned to Gaul and spent fourteen years preparing for his work. With the title of bishop, and the Pope's blessing, he arrived in Ireland and became its patron saint.

He did much to establish Christianity firmly in Ireland, building churches, monasteries, and converting the people. This remarkable work was accomplished in spite of fierce tribal chieftains ruling the land.

Many legends grew in Ireland concerning Saint Patrick. One story related how he compelled the snakes of Ireland to fling themselves into the sea. There is another story to the effect that when some converts questioned the doctrine of the trinity, Saint Patrick ended the argument by displaying a shamrock leaf as an example of "three in one." When he died on March 17, 461, it was claimed there was no night for twelve days.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT MEDICAL SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Board of Health and Hospitals held on September 16, 1970, it was voted to approve the expenditure of $12,000 for grants to three hospitals to enable new community health centers in southern Jamaica Plain, South Dorchester, and the North End to begin providing health care without delay.

The proposed grants were subject to two principal conditions. First, that the city contribution in each case be matched by the participating hospital(s) which shall be requested to provide either funds or services equal in value to the city grant; secondly, that the department be satisfied that each hospital and the corresponding neighborhood health committee have reached agreement on the purposes for which the funds will be spent and their respective roles in the management of the health center programs.

It was the Board's intention that these funds be transferred to the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., for management and distribution. The Trustees did, in fact, award the grants to the hospitals concerned with the expectation of reimbursement from city funds which were reserved in the 1970 budget. However, through an oversight occasioned in part by the fact that this specific grant mechanism was relatively new in the department, a formal contract was never executed to provide for this reimbursement. The $12,000 has been carried over in the department's budget each year and is currently available.

These three small grants, together with the matching contributions from the area hospitals, enabled the three neighborhood health centers to provide pediatric and adult medical services on an emergency basis to the residents of the communities they serve. All three of the health centers which were granted funds from the Trustees are presently operating and have continued to provide these services on an expanded basis.

The department in recent years has endeavored to extend and improve primary health care services in various neighborhoods in Boston. We are convinced that this objective was furthered by the awarding of these grants.

We, therefore, respectfully request your approval for the City of Boston, acting by its Board of Health and Hospitals, to enter into a contract, without advertising, with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc., in an amount not to exceed $12,000 to reimburse said corporation for the management and distribution of these grants.

Very truly yours,
JAMES V. SACCHETTI, M.D.,
Commissioner.

OFFICE OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS SUMMERTHING PROGRAM

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

This is to request your written authority to dispense with public advertising and enter into a written agreement with the Boston Foundation, Inc., during the period January 3, 1972, through March 31, 1972, to plan for Summerthing, Boston's Neighborhood Festival. The total cost of this service will not exceed $30,000.

Under the terms of the proposed agreement the Foundation will prepare budgets for the 1972 Summerthing Program; conduct auditions for performing groups; plan programs; contact and work with neighborhood arts councils, community agencies, other city departments, and neighborhood coordinators; conduct personnel training for prospective teachers, coordinators and other staff; order supplies and equipment for technical, workshop and performance programs; arrange to repair and refurbish technical equipment; and in general arrange for the necessary advance planning to carry out the Summerthing program.

In view of the special nature of the services to be rendered and the successful operation of past Summerthing programs by the Boston Foundation, Inc., it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
KATHARINE D. KANE,
Director.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC SERVICE
COPYING MACHINES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with writing proposals of advertisement in the Boston City Record and to award to the Smith Corona Marchant Corporation a contract for the supply and maintenance of two SCM copying machines located in the Roslindale and Allston Little City Halls during the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, at a cost not to exceed three thousand three hundred twenty-six dollars and forty cents ($3,326.40), which I believe is fair and reasonable.

In view of the quality of the machines and service to be provided, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD C. DWYER,
Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT
ARCHITECT'S SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Therefore, I hereby request your Honor's written permission to forego public advertising in the City Record in the award of a contract to the firm of Storch Associates to prepare working drawings, detailed specifications, and construction cost estimates, and for the supervision of construction of recreational facilities at the subprojects listed above, and upon the receipt of such authority to execute said contract in the name of and on behalf of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation.

The total estimated cost of construction is $320,000. The architect's fee of 9.3 percent has been taken from Group II of the "Percentage Fee Schedule" of the American Society of Landscape Architects and based upon the average construction cost of seven sub-projects listed above, which fee shall not exceed $29,760, less the sum of $10,416, paid to the architect under the initial contract with the firm.

The contract now proposed will also provide for presently estimated needs for supplementary services by the architect at an added cost of $5,000. The maximum liability of the City of Boston under the new contract is to be $24,344.

In view of the category of services to be performed under the proposed contract, I am of the opinion that nothing would be gained by a public invitation for competitive bid therefor.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH E. CURTIS,
Commissioner.

TRAFFIC AND PARKING DEPARTMENT COUNTING PARKING METER REVENUE

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Since 1958 the First National Bank of Boston has been engaged in counting parking meter collections which are made daily throughout the city by personnel of this department. The monies collected by our employees are placed in sealed containers and deposited each day at the bank. These monies are then counted by the bank and a check is sent to the city each day in the amount of the prior day's total collections.

This arrangement has proved very satisfactory, promoted efficiency, increased security, allows us to cut personnel and is definitely financially advantageous to the City of Boston because hitherto some of our employees had to spend a considerable number of hours each day counting the collections. Previously the department asked for informal bids on this sort of work and the only bank which returned the proposal was the First National Bank of Boston. Proposals were sent to several banking institutions.

The First National Bank advised us that they will, in the future, count our parking meter revenue for a monthly fee of $675. I feel that the bank's monthly charge is a fair one and public advertising would not be of any avail to the city in the present case. The bank's responsibilities and services have more than doubled as current collections have more than doubled since this service was first initiated.

Your permission is hereby requested to award a contract to the First National Bank of Boston covering the daily counting by it of the city's parking meter revenue during the period beginning April 1, 1972, through March 31, 1973, at the aforementioned cost of $675 per month, total contract expenditure not to exceed $8,100, and without public solicitation for proposals in the City Record for this service.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM T. NOONAN,
Commissioner.

SUFFOLK COUNTY Registry of Deeds

LEASING OF IBM EQUIPMENT

YOUR HONOR:

The Suffolk County Registry of Deeds is presently leasing and using the IBM equipment for which the International Business Machine Corporation has submitted informal written quotations, as itemized below:

Inasmuch as the above-mentioned company is the manufacturer and distributor it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices.

Therefore, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with publicly advertising for bids, and following the effective date of the 1972 budget, to enter into a contract for the period April 1, 1972, to March 31, 1973, inclusive, with the International Business Machine Corporation, for the leasing and servicing of the following equipment:

407 IBM printing machine at $711 per month for three months, $2,133.

One collator, 85-10632, $131 monthly, $1,572.

Total amount of above contract not to exceed the sum of ten thousand four hundred nineteen dollars ($10,419).

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH D. COUGHLIN,
Register of Deeds.

No. 12

Model City People Speak Out

In January, 1968, an exciting experiment began in the City of Boston. Through the office of Mayor Kevin White, Boston's Model City was established as a first step toward revitalization of one of the oldest and most famous communities in the city. The program, one of 147 such projects throughout the United States, was initiated through funds from the Federal Department of Housing and Urban Development. Boston itself has received $7.7 million per year since its inception, a very moderate sum considering the magnitude of the job to be done.

Each program of the Boston Model City is a pilot, an experiment, a laboratory. It is a pilot in that it has never been done before. It is a laboratory in that it is dedicated to learning through doing. It is an experiment in that it is not just out to prove something, but to improve, and to develop models that other city neighborhoods may follow. It is a small beginning in the midst of a very great need.

The Model City or Model Neighborhood is a 2,000-acre, doughnut-shaped region which includes parts of North Dorchester, Jamaica Plain, and Roxbury. For the purposes of the program, it is divided into six geographic sub-areas which contain about 59,000 residents. The Model Neighborhood is roughly 9 percent of Boston, and contains the parts of the city that are most desperately in need of physical, economic, and social help.

In general, the average Model Neighborhood resident is in dire financial need. In 1960, 65 percent of Model City households were subsisting on less than $6,000 annually, as compared with a little more than half of Boston's households. Since then, the proportion of low-income families in the Model Neighborhood has increased. Estimates of median income for families in this area range from $4,100 to $6,182, although supporting evidence suggests that the $4,100 figure is an underestimate. At any rate, the median income is well below that for the entire city.

In other areas — employment, education, housing — the outlook is just as bleak for most Model City residents. Model Neighborhood people are under-represented in professional-technical jobs as compared with Boston household heads. Compared to Boston, a greater proportion of the Model Neighborhood population, eligible for full-time work, is unable to find or keep jobs. The housing situation in the Model City is so poor, in terms of amount and quality, that the Model Neighborhood Board has set housing as its main priority.

To accomplish the formidable goal of improving the quality of life for its 59,000 inhabitants, Boston's Model City had to find some way of giving the people themselves a powerful voice in the program. Who, but the residents, could know the real needs of the area — the deprivations and frustrations, the hopes, and the fears.

In December, 1969, the Boston Model Neighborhood Board, the official spokesman for Model Neighborhood residents, was established by City Ordinance, as the partner agency of the Model City Agency. The Board represents the citizen, the Model Neighborhood residents; the Model City Agency (or City Demonstration Agency) represents the city. And both have equal powers and responsibilities. No proposals, programs, or funds can go through the program without the full approval of both these agencies. In plain language, that's a tremendous amount of political power for the man on the street — if he's aware enough and anxious enough to use it.

The eighteen representatives on the Model Neighborhood Board, three from each Model Neighborhood sub-area, are residents elected by fellow residents to voice their interests and desires.

The Model Neighborhood Board is citizen participation in its fullest sense. Whether a resident wants a street light or more low-income housing, he can come to the Model Neighborhood Board and be heard, because the Board itself is his voice in the Model City.

Its chief responsibility is to hear the real wants and needs of residents and, if feasible, to put them into action through Model Cities funds. A Model Neighborhood Board representative wields an enormous amount of power and responsibility. By City Ordinance, he and his seventeen peers are the official representatives of thousands of constituents in Boston's Model City. Without the Model Neighborhood Board's approval, nothing can be funded by the Model Cities Program. Its veto is enough to kill a plan; its sanction, on the other hand, is a powerful positive influence.

To give the general public a bird's-eye view of the Model City, its people, and its programs, the Model Neighborhood Board, in cooperation with the Boston Public Library, will have a special display throughout the month of March in the Central Library in Copley Square.

WATER QUALITY

The House Public Works Committee will soon take up the Muskie-proposed amendments to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, legislation that offers tougher challenges to industry. The bill alters the thrust of the country's water pollution control efforts by removing state water quality criteria and replacing them with limitations on individual effluents and a "zero discharge" goal for 1985. The bill is geared to complement the controversial Federal Permit Program under which permits are granted for each industry's effluents. (Municipal users are exempt under the 1899 Refuse Act, the basis for the Federal Permit Program.) Industry spokesmen are critical of H. R. 11896 (formerly S. 2770) in its present form, maintaining that the added benefits of effluent limitations and "zero discharge" are not commensurate with the exponential costs involved. Council of Environmental Quality Chairman Russell Train points out that, under the new law, the last one percent of cleanup will be as costly as the first ninety-nine percent.

Advocates of H. R. 11896 counter by stating that "zero discharge" source controls will provide a genuine incentive to industrial recycling and more perfect processing techniques and that, as several larger companies like Dow Chemical and General Motors have experienced, it is often cheaper to recycle waste than to construct treatment facilities. In either case the "zero discharge" debate will have a profound effect on water quality control strategies for the next decade.

The following is a capsule summary of other elements of H. R. 11896:

— (1971-1976) Companies must apply the "best practicable" technology to control water pollution.

— (1976-1981) Companies must achieve "zero discharge" unless they can "show cause" that these cannot be effected at "reasonable cost." In that case, the "best available" technology must be employed.

— EPA to study the feasibility of "zero discharge" with provisions for "mid-course correction" in 1976 if costs outweigh benefits.

— Authorization for $14 billion, four-year federal program to aid localities in building waste treatment plants.

— Municipalities to have constructed "secondary treatment" facilities by 1974.

RELAX, A BETTER PARK IS COMING

The Shoppers' Park, opened last fall at the corner of Franklin and Washington Streets, is temporarily closed during the demolition of Filene buildings at that corner. When the work is finished the park will be restored with permanent landscaping supplied by Filene's to replace the previous temporary arrangement. Shoppers' Park is a joint enterprise of the Mayor's Office, the City of Boston Park Department, the BRA, the Department of Public Works, and Filene's.

TAX INFORMATION BOOKLET AVAILABLE

Sales of a booklet which gives information on how to fill out federal tax returns have topped the one million mark since early January, the Postal Service reported on March 3.

The publication, entitled "Your Federal Income Tax," was written by the Internal Revenue Service and contains many examples illustrating how the tax law applies to actual situations.

The booklet is still available in large- and medium-sized post offices (first and second class). Copies are being rushed to post offices in large cities where demand for the booklet has exceeded expectations.

The booklet, written by government experts, consists of 160 pages and costs 75 cents a copy.

First-class post offices also are selling another popular IRS publication called "Tax Guide for Small Business," which gives special guidance to owners of small businesses. The small business tax booklet also sells at 75 cents a copy.

MODEL NEIGHBORHOOD EXHIBIT

The Boston Model Neighborhood Board, in cooperation with the Boston Public Library, is presenting a special display throughout the month of March in the Central Library in Copley Square. The aim of the exhibit is to give the general public a bird's-eye view of the Model City Area, the Model Neighborhood Board, and programs being delivered in service to the community by subcontracting agencies and firms.

Each sub-area is highlighted with maps, pictures, narratives, and suggested readings. Models and pictures of In-Fill Housing, Family Life Centers, and other programs are being shown.

The display cases are found on the first floor, near both entrances and along the North and South Corridors.

"SUMMIT" CONFERENCE AT RADCLIFFE

A national conference called "Women: Resource for a Changing World" will take place at Radcliffe College on April 17 and 18.

Nearly 350 participants will explore some of the political, social, educational, and vocational changes affecting women and the meaning of such changes for society. Sociologists, psychologists, historians, economists, psychoanalysts, and educators will discuss their current research and will seek to define realistic new goals for women and for the institutions that educate and employ them.

The conference will bring together researchers and practitioners, theoreticians, and administrators to see what the implications are for the future. "We hope to define some goals so that institutions like Radcliffe can better serve women and the needs of their families and society," said Alice K. Smith, Dean of the Radcliffe Institute, the sponsoring organization.

The Radcliffe Institute, now in its eleventh year, is Radcliffe's center for continuing education and research. Through its fellowship programs it has helped hundreds of highly-trained women continue in their fields: arts, sciences, medicine, law, education. Through basic research it has studied such areas as the roles of graduate students' wives, women in medicine, the career patterns and choices of educated women, the impact upon the family of working mothers, domestic help, and other projects.

The conference is open by invitation to guests and to members of the working press.

"1019 Beacon Street,
 Brookline, Mass. 02146,
 February 22, 1972.

Boston Fire Department,
 115 Southampton Street,
 Roxbury, Mass.

On November 27, 1971, while waiting for a trolley car for Beacon Street, I suffered a heart attack. The employees of the M.B.T.A. called the Fire and Police Departments for help. The firemen got there first and administered the necessary oxygen and then the police ambulance took me to the Massachusetts General Hospital, where I had been treated previously for heart trouble.

Since I don't know from which station they were, I am writing this to you hoping that this will be forwarded to the proper station so that those who helped me so promptly may know how grateful I am for their prompt assistance.

May God bless them for their concern for their fellowmen and for the help they gave me in that emergency.

Gratefully yours,

JOHN M. MASCARENHAS."

Conservationists Plan "Charles - to - Charles" Project

Almost ninety years ago Frederick Law Olmsted, the father of landscape architecture, designed the world-famous Boston parks system which is shared by the City of Boston and the Town of Brookline. Today, nearly a century after the inception of this system, we have the opportunity to enlarge and extend upon Olmsted's vision.

Specifically, metropolitan Boston has the opportunity to create a large open space system, connecting one section of the Charles River, in the north at Boston's northern boundary with another section of the Charles River on the south, near West Roxbury and the Boston/Newton boundary. It would form a connecting link across two sections of the Charles River, a river which meanders in a "C" shaped line encircling the Cities of Boston and Newton and the Town of Brookline.

This plan, conceived by the Boston and Brookline Conservation Commissions, is known as the "Charles-to-Charles" Corridor.

As formulated, this plan would extend Olmsted's world-famous "Emerald Necklace" park system into a much larger recreational space. The corridor would be in the midst of a densely populated urban area and would create an opportunity for people who are interested to leave the city to enjoy hiking, bicycling, cross-country skiing and nature study in natural surroundings. The Boston/Brookline Conservation Commissions believe that it is fitting to embark upon the project this year, which is the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of Olmsted's birth.

The plan can be visualized in three segments. The first is now primarily parkland. It extends along Olmsted's park system through the Fenway, along the Muddy River and the Boston/Brookline boundary, along an expanse of mature trees and rolling hills. This segment is currently occupied by private estates, institutions, and public parkland. If preserved it will significantly enlarge the outdoor recreation potentials in Boston and Brookline.

The southern segment of the corridor extends from the intersection point of the Boston/Brookline/Newton boundaries southwesterly along Sawmill Brook to Cow Island Pond, in the Charles River.

Singled out for early action is the middle section, which runs along the Boston/Brookline boundary. It is this area which is most threatened by action from developers. Some 400 acres of this 1,357-acre middle tract are of primary concern at the present time. These early action parcels contain many outstanding features, including ponds, hilltop vistas, woodlands, and streams. Their location makes it possible to have uninterrupted open space, in a system with trails which connect Olmsted Park at the Charles River Basin in Boston to Larz Anderson Park in Brookline, and on the south towards West Roxbury.

Because of its location along the lines of Boston, Brookline, and Newton, this park system would be truly a regional park. Its planning reflects the regional aspects of the project. The Conservation Commissions of Boston and Brookline, working under the leadership of their respective chairmen, Mrs. Eugenie Beal and Francis X. Meaney, have worked closely to develop plans for this corridor. The City of Newton has also contributed essential technical assistance during the early stages of corridor development. The Boston Redevelopment Authority has given invaluable assistance, as has the Brookline Planning Department, in carrying this project forward.

It is expected that funding of the project will reflect its regional nature. Preserving the corridor will require joint action of federal, state, and local governmental sources. Both commissions have applied for Ford Foundation grants to investigate additional financing for this project. It will also require assistance from the owners themselves to carry the project forward. Written into the 1972 budget for Boston is a request for $1,000,000, to be used by Boston Parks and Recreation Department, to begin funding this project. However, the ultimate success of the project depends on joint support from federal and state funds.

The Conservation Commissions of Boston and Brookline strongly believe that this "Charles-to-Charles" project would be a worthy tribute to Frederick Law Olmsted, a man who pioneered in the creation of public green space along the urban frontier. Both commissions view the Charles-to-Charles Corridor as the central land link in a regional, state, or perhaps even a national park system. This is a park where the people are.

Boston's Parks and Recreation Commissioner, Joseph E. Curtis, described the "Charles-to-Charles" proposal by the Boston and Brookline Conservation Commissions as "a positive and encouraging move which represents the greatest single open space improvement for Greater Boston since the Olmsted development of the nineteenth century."

Mayor White, commenting on the project, said, "It is an imaginative effort to preserve a precious reconstructed resource."

SELF-DEFENSE

Nonsmokers are learning how to defend themselves.

Remember just a few years ago when airlines passed out courtesy cigarettes? No longer. Today they're just as busy setting up nonsmoking areas for complaining customers.

Cigarette smoke is more than an annoyance to nonsmokers. It can cause physiological distress in healthy individuals as well as in those with asthma and other respiratory illnesses. New research indicates, in fact, that the nonsmoker is affected by cigarette smoke in much the same damaging way as is the smoker himself.

Your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association urges nonsmokers to speak up and say "Yes, I do mind if you smoke." Defend yourself. It's a matter of life and breath.

CAPTAIN BURK HONORED

Deputy Fire Chief Joseph L. Dolan, Fire Marshal of the City of Boston, represented his Honor Mayor White, Fire Commissioner Kelly, and Chief of Department, George H. Paul in awarding to Capt. Raymond W. Burk, U.S.N., Captain of the Yard, Boston Naval Shipyard, the rank of honorary Chief of the Boston Fire Department. Fire Marshal Dolan presented Captain Burk with the badge of office and with a plaque containing a piece of a wooden water main that was used to supply various hydrants and water supply areas during the Colonial days of our great city.

This presentation was made for "The interest that you have shown, in the life safety from fire, to the members of your command, both military and civilian and, yes, even beyond the confines of this federal property in the community of Boston itself, reflects credit upon the United States Navy, our government, and last, but not least, you — the man."

DOT PROGRAM DELAYED

The DOT program for upgrading Boston to Washington rail service has bogged down. The Office of Budget Management has been reticent to approve the proposed $460 million guarantee loan legislation required to make the program go. In the interim, Congress has given all but final approval to a three-year $314 million extension of the high-speed ground transportation research program.

While Congress continues to maintain a healthy interest in furthering research on high-speed trains, no substantive support appears to exist for moving ahead with the development of high-speed rail service such as that suggested for the Northeast Corridor. The DOT proposal for Boston to Washington service would have optimally provided for a two-and-three-quarter-hour service between Boston and New York. Many observers, including the Chamber of Commerce, believe that only a service of two hours or less between Boston and New York would be economically viable and competitive with air service to the extent that the need for additional airport and highway facilities would be reduced.

AMTRAK's efforts to upgrade conventional train service and the DOT proposal to spend $190 million between Boston and New York to accomplish a three-hour service do not hold much promise in luring the intercity business traveler back to the train. Geo-Transport Foundation of New England in addressing this problem last year aptly stated that the availability of a two-hour high-speed train between Boston and New York could in one stroke reverse the imbalance in the region's passenger transportation system, and resources should not be wasted on a lesser program.

DON'T PLAY HOOKY

On Thursday, March 9, supervisors of attendance in the Boston school system, accompanied by Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority police officers, were seen in downtown subway stations in a reenactment of "Operation Tallyho," a program designed to discover youthful truants from Boston and suburban schools.

Operating from 9 A.M. to 11 A.M. at Park, Washington, and Essex MBTA Stations, the task force deemed the operation a success as more than one hundred forty truants were found.

The Boston school system has found that sporadic rather than periodic checks of this sort are very effective in curtailing instances of truancy. The MBTA is pleased to cooperate in the program which helps in ridding subway stations of potential vandals and mischief-makers.

SECURITY REGULATIONS

To Department Heads.

To tighten up security within City Hall it becomes necessary at this time to reevaluate our present system of admitting employees to the building outside of regular working hours.

I have been informed that several department heads have failed, possibly through some inadvertence, to supply the Assistant Commissioner of Real Property with lists of employees authorized to enter the building after closing hours, on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays. These lists should be compiled in three categories, namely:

1. Department and division heads, including key employees who may be authorized to enter the building at any time.

2. Employees performing work on an overtime basis with the dates and time involved.

3. Names of individuals who may be invited to meetings held after regular hours excepting, of course, public hearings or public meetings that may be scheduled.

Your cooperation is respectfully requested in forwarding a list or lists, as applicable to your department, to Mr. Anthony E. Forgione, Room 811, City Hall, at the earliest possible moment.

Strict adherence to this directive, with the updating of category number 1 whenever deemed necessary, should improve our present security system and minimize the disappearance of equipment and other articles throughout the building. Unless an authorization from a department head is on file with the Real Property Department, the security officer stationed at the Dock Square entrance will not allow employees to enter the building outside of regular working hours in the future.

Sincerely,

EDWARD T. SULLIVAN,
Director.
